OPERATORS GO TO VARIOUS STATIONS

On Tuesday morning last, at five o'clock, the Minto left Pictou, having on board six of the Marconi operators, who will go to their stations in the Gulf for the summer. R. G. Newman, G. A. Wright and J. Hood go to Heath Point, Anticosti; A. Chew, T. Craig and C. A. Soal to Fame Point, on the Gaspe Coast. All these men have been at various points during the winter, but assembled at Pictou to take the steamer. A most enjoyable "smoker," was given by the Marconi operators in Advocate Hall on the Monday night previous. Besides those referred to, there were also present, A. H. Whiteside, George E. Clegg, of Cape Bear; Messrs. Boutillier, McDonald and Lomas, of Pictou, and Mr. Maloney of the Minto. A number of officers of the Minto and some friends from the town of Pictou, about sixty in all, attended as guests. The opening address was given at ten o'clock by the chairman.

Mr. Clinton, engineer in charge of the Pictou station. This was followed by a splendid program, including songs, readings, speeches and performances by the vaudeville artists, Gailloutte, the slack wire man, and Nelusco, the magican, who performed in the Opera House during the latter part of the week. The gathering broke about midnight. Shortly before the closing time, a vote of thanks, moved by Mr. Newman, was tendered B. Gravestock for the use of his hall. All the boys had a splendid time and parted very reluctantly, hoping to meet again.

PLEASANT EVENING AT APTIN ROAD

A number of the friends of Andrew and Mrs. Musgrave assembled at their residence Aptin Road, on the evening of the 28th inst, to express appreciation of their value as neighbors and also to express their sorrow at their departure for Sydney, C. B. The ladies did themselves credit by the many delicacies they provided. A very pleasant time was spent in music, games and dancing. At the close Mr. and Mrs. Musgrave were presented with the following address and a sum of money. The address was signed in behalf of their friends by Edgar Farrar and Cyrus McKinnon. Dear Friends: — "It is with feelings of sincere regret that we learn you are about to remove from your present residence to another place of abode. The announcement of this change has occasioned a feeling of sorrow throughout this district which we are unable to express in the feeble words of this address. Yet we cannot allow you to say farewell without conveying to you in some way an expression of our regret at your departure, and our high appreciation of your worth as neighbors; for this is the chief feature of your sojourn with us that will leave behind it "foot-prints on the sand of time." But the time has eventually come when we must bid each other adieu, and before saying good bye, we beg leave to present you with this purse and would ask you to kindly accept it, not for its value but as a small token of our regard to you. In conclusion we pray that He who directs the destiny of man, may ever shower on you his choicest blessings and may your pathway through life be smooth, strewn with success and illumined with the sun of prosperity. Hoping that we may all meet in that land where eternal light knows no shadow and parting is unknown."

"House cleaning helps. Ammonia, arpet soaps and washes, borax, moth balls, insect powder, Adam's English furniture polish. We strongly ecommend this furniture polish. Wall Paper Enthusiasm

That our enthusiasm over our handsome new Wall Paper is shared by the public is evident from the hum of business, and the unusually large sales in this department, sales which far eclipse even those of last season, which was considered a record breaker.

Nor is this to be wondered at when one views the extremely handsome and artistic designs, at such very moderate prices.

Without doubt, we are now showing the largest and best selected wall paper stock ever shown here—bought direct from the best and most up-to-date Canadian manufacturers. The designs are all new and selected with care and discriminating taste, and the many new patrons we are daily adding to our list, proves conclusively that the public appreciate a really good article at a moderate price.

Besides these we have a small but exclusive stock of English velours in most artictic designs which are just what many households have been looking for. These are not included in our sample books so don't fail to ask to be shown them.

A notable feature this season is the increased number of mail orders being recieved from all over the Province. These recieve prompt and careful attention, and are shipped out the first train following the receipt of the order. Samples are sent free to all requesting them. Just drop a postal, stating for what rooms required also an idea as to the color preferred, and about what price, and suitable samples will be sent free.

We have opened up a new era of wall paper selling, and if you are one of the few who have not yet bought from us, you will do yourself and us a favor by calling in and seeing our stock.

Large sample books will be sent and called for to any part of the City.
