Tribute To Mr. George S. Currie

—Tribute by Rev. Wm. G. Davis, United Church, Hantsport, N. S., to Mr. George S. Currie of Hantsport, N. S., and formerly of Elmdeale, P. E. I.

The passing of George Currie comes as a staggering shock to every organization, every home, and every individual in Hantsport and in many places beyond. He was one whose life and deeds were deeply interwoven with other people. No one will ever know how much this man has done in loving sacrificial service for others. I have been amazed to hear of all he did the last day he was alive (did for others) and that day was no exception. His religion was one that must express itself in brightening the lives of those around him, and we can truly say this community is a better place, because he lived here, and much poorer by his passing. I think of a passage in St. Matthew's Gospel concerning the parable of the last judgment Matt. 25:34-40 and these shall go away into eternal life. When I think of his passing in relationship to this Church, I know that we have lost one whose place cannot soon be filled; personally I turned to him on so many occasions and never without the greatest satisfaction; he was the kind of a man who found it irksome, to undergo a lot of debating and red tape before doing a job that had to be done. Rather it was always his way to face the thing squarely, and if it needed to be done, he held in our hearts and our deepest sympathy goes out to all who are bereaved today, especially his daughter and his mother and all we know.

No good undertaking ever passed him by without him giving his loyal enthusiastic support. It is very difficult to realize he has gone from us; on Sunday he worshipped here with us and seemed to be getting back to his normal self; for the past two months he had lived a very lonely life, and it did seem that he was just now beginning to pick up the broken threads of life, where he left off when his beloved wife passed away two months ago. We cannot understand the mystery of life, it seems so tragic that this man should be cut off so soon, but I am quite sure that in years he has lived, he has done a great deal more than many who have lived much longer lives. George Currie was not blind to the Shortness of Life and the fact of Death. I think his mind dwelt quite seriously upon it at times. I was surprised when he drew my attention to it by means of our hymn, and pointing to the second verse he said, "I often repeat those lines, there is something about them that appeals to me."

Our years are like the shadows, on sunny hills that lie Or grasses in the meadows, that blossom but to die.

The picturesqueness of the phrase, the spiritual meaning of the words alike appealed to him amidst his gaiety; his love of little children, his cheerfulness, therefore I remember he had a sense of eternity. I think that is a good sign of a healthy Christian influence, a sense of eternity along with a buoyant cheerfulness. What matters after all is not how many years we live but how intensely. Both a healthy experience, no doubt was his and it was expressed in generous acts for others. Mr. Currie was a courteous, generous, patient, Christian gentleman, as I was thinking of him while preparing a few words to say at this time. I recalled a creed, I had once read, it must have been his for he lived it daily.

If any little love of mine can make one life the sweeter
If any little care of mine can make one step the fleetier
If any little help may ease the burden of another
God give me love and care and strength to help along each other.

Such was the creed of his life for he lived such a life. It is all the more sorrowful when he is taken from us; no words of mine can adequately express our feelings today; he was a real and personal friend of all of us. Before I had ever seen Hantsport I had heard of George Currie and everyone spoke of him as if he was a jolly and intimate companion. The large audience here both within the church and outside today, witness to place of affection and esteem he held in our hearts and our deepest sympathy goes out to all who are bereaved today, especially his daughter and his mother and all we know.

We all know what a terrible blow has been following so closely upon a sad bereavement two months ago. We pray for them that they may be given strength to meet this great loss, and guidance to meet the future with confidence and trust. A loving father, a Christian gentleman, a splendid citizen, a great friend has been taken from us; we bow in submission to that which we cannot change and pay our humble tribute to a truly great and good man.

In Memoriam

MISS MARY DUNNING, R.N.

Relatives and friends of Miss Mary Dunning, age 51 years, were deeply shocked and saddened on June 15th to hear of her death at the home of her sister, Mrs. Stephen Bertram, Hazel Grove.

The late Mary Dunning was born at Clinton where she spent her early girlhood days and at the age of 20 years she went to Jersey City, U.S.A. to train for a nurse.

After receiving her degree she spent most of her time at her profession, caring for the sick in her own kind and gentle manner, and in a way which endeared her to all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Two years ago her health failed and she came home to live with her sister. Although she suffered a stroke last fall it was hoped she would recover, but despite tender care and medical treatment she was called beyond on the above mentioned date. She leaves to mourn one sister, Mrs. Stephen Bertram. Her mother and father, also several sisters and one brother, predeceased her several years ago.

The funeral took place from the home of her sister and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Morrison of Hunter River, who so kindly visited her during her illness, conducted the service. The hymns sung were: Rock of Ages, Peace Perfect Peace, and as a solo Miss Mary Muttart very feelingly rendered "Safe In The Arms Of Jesus" by special request of the deceased.

The pallbearers were William Pound, Cleveland Somers, Benj. Weeks, Arthur Houston, Frank Nicholson, Reagh Ferris. Interment was in Margate Cemetery, beside the loved ones gone before. The funeral was under the direction of Mr. J. E. Andrews, Hunter River.
