FILM STAR PREPARED TO DEFEND WIFE'S SUIT HE DECLARES

HEKHART, Ind., Jan. 14.—"You may say that I emphatically deny all charges of misconduct with motion picture actresses made by my wife in her suit for divorce," declared Charles Chaplin to a reporter who interviewed him on the train, New York bound, when it stopped here to change engines this afternoon. Chaplin said he was prepared to defend himself against the suit and could say nothing further about it.

GIVING THE HENS MORE LIGHT.

Lights have been used on poultry for a long time, but that definite results may be expected. Management and good stock are so closely linked with the results, however, that success with lights will carry with the skill of the individual poultryman. Results of studies in several states have brought country specialists to the Ohio State University to these definite conclusions: 1. Light will increase the winter and spring egg production of hens and pullets. They should not be used on the breeding flock. 2. Breeding hens can be hastened back into production by a limited use of lights from January 15 to March without any apparent effect on the hatchability of eggs. 3. It is possible, with lights, to carry early hatched pullets through their first production period with much less loss than when lights are not used. 4. Fall laying can be kept up by using lights from September to November, if birds are to be used as breeders. 5. Discontinue lights abruptly and throw the flock into a molt to give them a rest for the coming hatching season. 6. Properly installed, lights will materially increase the light income from the birds for the year. 7. Slow maturing pullets will mature more rapidly under lights. There is danger bringing the birds into production before they are properly matured. 8. Mr. C. Fields has "low comedy" feet as he has the heels out of his shoes. For many years his standard costume as a stage comedian included shoes with flat soles and several sizes too large. Now he is playing a higher type of comedy and his shoes must fit, but the habit of flat soles is so strong, he says, that he can't get "high heels" if wearing heels. Here are specifications set by Jack White, supervising director of Educational comedies, for the ideal comedian: He should be small, active, bright, snappy, vivacious, ebullient, somewhat of a rogue, and beautiful but baldy. Genius should form only a small part of the perfect actor's mind. In the opinion of Director Hobart Henley he suggests this division: Fifty per cent talent, forty per cent intelligence, and ten per cent genius. "The mind of a genius is too unbalanced to get any work done," he says. "The mind of a first production period with much less loss."

Believe Former King Would Draw Big in Title go

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 15.—While willing to fight the survivor of the heavyweight tournament planned by Tex Rickard, Gene Tunney today said he believes Jack Dempsey would draw more money with him in a return match than any other heavyweight now before the public.

Crescents Put Win Over Wanderers

HALIFAX, Jan. 15.—Crescents emerged from a hot tussle at the Arena last night as undisputed leaders in the recently opened Halifax Amateur Senior Hockey League.

The winning margin, which put the Blue and Blacks at the top of the heap, was started Tuesday night, when the locals secured a 3 to 2 win over the Dartmouth players. Last night the Crescents hammered out a victory over the Wanderers by the same score.

This score was a big surprise, but not so big as the showing made by the youthful Redshirts. Manager Wally Barnstead has welded together a team of youngsters who will be heard from before the season is out. Make no mistake about that.

Advantage in Territory

As far as the game is concerned the Crescents deserved their win. They had a big advantage in territory and shots at the nets, but Jack Lewis, former Dalhousie ace, was the big stumbling block. Lewis has turned in many brilliant exhibitions in his three years of local hockey, but last night was his big night, and his stick, pads, body protector and hands, turned many likely looking shots into the corners.

From the start the Crescents peppered the Wanderers' cage, but Lewis kicked so many out that the Red front liners started to get into the game, and the result was two goals. The first one stunned the fans, but the second score put the thousands of spectators through their paces in a noisy demonstration.

Wanderers, with youngsters mingled with a few veterans, were not conceded a look-in. They had more than that. They were right in the picture all the way, gave the Crescents many anguishing minutes, and all in all gave a very creditable account of themselves.

Dundee Wins From Roberts, Escapes Knockout in 4th

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Joe Dundee, Baltimore welterweight, gained the decision over Eddie Roberts of Tacoma, Washington, tonight in a 10-round match at Madison Square Garden, after being himself close to a knockout in the fourth Jack Delaney, the French-Canadian, round. A capacity crowd of more than 18,000 saw Dundee gain revenge for his one round knockout dued for Jan. 11, but was set back at the hands of Roberts a few weeks ago.

Dempsey Will Fight Again

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Jack Dempsey has yielded to the demand of Tex Rickard that he submit his title comeback hopes to at least one test fight, according to the former champion's eastern representative, Leonard Sachs.

"Dempsey will string with Rickard," said Sachs, in announcing the dethroned king had abandoned his attitude of opposition to any bout other than a return match with Gene Tunney. Sachs said Jack would get in shape to take on the survivor of Rickard's elimination series, involving Jack Sharkey, Jim Maloney, Paul Berlenbach, Paulino Izcedun, and possibly Jack Delaney.

Although Rickard has held several conferences with Delaney's manager, Pete Reilly, terms have not yet been reached for Delaney's participation in the race for the next heavyweight championship battle.

Rickard will insist that the next challenger agree to conditions under which the Madison Square Garden promoter will have exclusive rights to his services in the event that he lifts the crown from Tunney.

"I'm not going to be caught again," says Tex, referring to the difficulty he had in lining up Tunney. "The man who gets the shot with Tunney will have to agree to box for me. I did not start this way of doing business, but if others do it, I must protect my business interests."

St. John Fusiliers Beat Moncton Atlantics

ST. JOHN, Jan. 15.—About 1,600 hockey fans braved the rain and sleet last night to watch the Saint John Fusiliers hand the Moncton Atlantics a 1 to 0 setback in the Southern New Brunswick Hockey League at the Arena last night. In spite of having a slight edge on the play the well oiled Moncton machine was unable to penetrate the Fusiliers' fortress. The winning goal was shot by Frank Kily, after eight minutes of play in the first period. The puck struck Bidlake on the pads, but before he brand of hockey seldom surpassed could clear rolled in the corner of the local arena. Every man worked hard and showed up well. The goalies were both kept busy throughout the entire three stanzas.

Only one penalty was handed out until about the middle of the third period when Bismwanger and Dunphy assumed pugilistic attitudes. Both were sent to the pen to cool off for a few minutes. Cameron, the stonewall right defence for the visitors, played the stellar game for his team. Perhaps it may be said he showed up the best among any of the players on the ice tonight. His end to end rushes were features that won applause from the fans. I. Sears, the Antigonish goalie, also played a splendid game and but for his clever work in the net a much larger score would have been piled up against them.

True to their name the Fusiliers played "old army game" in the last two periods and although they made some pretty individual dashes down the ice, the play was Moncton's practically all the way.

SEED GROWING A PROFITABLE INDUSTRY.
Seed production in Canada is rapidly becoming an important and profitable industry states Honorable Mr. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, in his latest report. The inherent qualities of winter hardiness and vigour of growth possessed by Canadian grown seeds has brought a great demand for them in foreign markets. The thorough system of grading, strictly enforced by the Dominion Seed Branch, has given foreign and domestic buyers complete confidence in our seeds. Canada produces an exportable surplus in high class seeds of cereals, forage crops and vegetables. The production of these seeds is continually increasing and they are supplanting imported stocks on our home markets. Especially great progress has been made in the production of alfalfa, maturing barley, and timothy or Rhode Island bent grass. alfalfa crop increased from 235,000 acres in 1920 to 895,000 acres in 1926, and this remarkable increase has been brought about largely by the development of our own seed supply from varieties which can withstand our severe winters. In Northern Ontario special attention is being given to the growing of barley seed, maturing barley of high quality, and finding a ready market, can be produced in that region. In British Columbia one district alone gave a yield of 70,000 pounds of timothy seed and 100,000 pounds of meadow fescue of finest quality. Many other examples of our progress in seed growing may be cited, all showing the great possibilities the future holds for the industry.
