The Foreign Secretary told the legislators:

"We have already made it plain to the French Government—understandably that government fell last night. But I don't believe in this respect that the French policy will change—that if she saw her way to enter into closer communications with Berlin, they would have our complete good will in doing so and if we could give any help in bringing about that closer association, we should be most happy to do so."

The British Government, Sir John said, had communicated to Chancellor Hitler of Germany "that we have taken a most attentive note of the declaration which he and other representatives of Germany had recently been making and had stated that the whole of our influence would be used for the purpose of trying to bring about a spirit of negotiation and cooperative action instead of keeping Germany at a distance."

"We also," said Sir John, "have communicated to Italy how we satisfied we were to learn she agreed with us in keeping the conference in being, and how satisfied we were that the present procedure which Italy has been urging on us, was the correct procedure."

He declared the British Government, coincident with communications with Paris and Berlin, meant "to work in close touch with the Italian Government and its head because only by giving a contract between these great capitals and the powers on this procedure can the ground on what is to happen next at Geneva be prepared."

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding took place at the Zion Church, Manx, Charlottetown, on the evening of Nov. 8, 1933, when Freda Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace W. MacNeill, Milland, was united in marriage to Mr. Samuel Leonard Willis, Kingston. Rev. Carlyle Webster officiated. The bride was gowned in white transparent velvet with coat hat and gloves to match. The bride and groom were unattended. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty wedding supper was served. Both couples have the best wishes of many friends.

GOLDEN WEDDING—The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Crisp Moore of Westmoreland was celebrated at their home on Tuesday last. The surviving members of the bridal party were invited to supper by Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Moore. There were twenty-six present. In the evening over one hundred and twenty seven friends came. The proceedings opened with an address by Mr. Robert MacDonald of Crapaud, who spoke on behalf of Saint John's Church. Mr. MacDonald spoke of the faithful manner in which Mr. Crisp Moore has fulfilled the office of Churchwarden since 1885. Mr. Thomas Best then read an address from Prince Arthur Royal Orange Lodge, and mentioned the love and esteem in which Mr. Moore is held by the Orangemen of Prince Edward Island. A gold-headed cane inscribed "Presented to C. Moore from Prince Arthur L. O. L." was given to Mr. Moore by the Orangemen, and the Church presented Mrs. Moore with a gold cross and chain inscribed "M. Moore November 1885—November 1933." Mr. Moore then replied very fittingly on behalf of himself and Mrs. Moore. Other speakers followed and the ceremonies closed with the singing of "Blest be the tie that binds." Ice cream and cake were then served and the rest of the evening passed very pleasantly in dancing and cards. Mr. and Mrs. Moore have a very wide circle of friends who unite at this happy time in wishing them every joy that Heaven affords.

Happiness

Share a little of yours with the needy children this Christmas. SMOKE BUCKINGHAM and SAVE THE WRAPPERS.

The votes are piling up fast, and as the Christmas Gift contest closes December 8th the Knights of Columbus are asking EVERYBODY to help in a final drive for MORE Buckingham wrappers, from cigarettes, fine cut or pipe tobacco. Make your NEXT smoke a Buckingham. We want your help.

Just the other day Santa Claus drove around Charlottetown. Did the children follow him? Well, anyone with half an eye could see they were half crazy with joy. Lots of them won't be supplied with Christmas toys, and here's an opportunity to make them smile on Christmas Day. Smoke Buckingham's and the Knights of Columbus will do the rest.

Maybe some people are holding their empty packages expecting further Buckingham contests this winter. We have it on good authority, in fact right on Tuckett, Ltd., that no further contests will be held after the Buckingham Christmas Gift Contest closes. So if you are piling up a supply and will have to burn them later on, why not fill up the Ballot Boxes on December 28th in knowing that you helped put this contest over in Charlottetown.

If you are busy and unable to drop your votes in the boxes, phone one of the following committee: A. A. Hennessey, Leo McDonald, Wm. Moran, E. J. H. Morrissey, Vernon Maddigan or Ed Hornby and they will look after the collecting of your wrappers. CAN WE COUNT ON YOU?

CONGRATULATIONS—Mr. W. H. Acorn will be the recipient of hearty congratulations today, the occasion being the celebration of his 78th birthday.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH—The sermon at the Central Christian Church tomorrow evening will be delivered by Pastor H. J. Chisholm, of the Cross Roads Christian Church.

CAR ACCIDENT—Two cars collided last evening about 10.30 at the corner of Kent and Great George Street. One was proceeding south on Great George Street, the other east on Kent Street. The bumper of one car was torn off. The drivers decided to make settlement privately.

GRAVEL PIT ACTIVE—The gravel pit on the Morrison estate at Peters Road which was tested and approved of by the authorities over two years ago, has now been officially opened for practical use. For some days past team loads of the product have been conveyed to the public highway and applied to low-lying portions which in wet seasons to say the least were uncomfortable for vehicles and generally unfit for the requirements of modern traffic. The product is reported of good quality for highways and other uses, and will fill a long felt want in the community to all who appreciate good firm roads.

The work is in charge of Road Supt. A. R. Macdonald who endeavours to make fair distribution to all whom he considers best entitled to work irrespective of political affiliations. The pit is situated on high ground and is operated to a depth of from nine to twelve feet and indications are that a vast amount of the stuff lies embedded there.

Mrs. Philip McNally, Summerside, has returned after attending the funeral of her only sister, Mrs. Edgar Fernest, of Jacket River, N.B.

Misses Margaret and Jeanette MacDougall, teachers at Springfield and Braselbane, respectively, spent Sunday very pleasantly at their home in Belle River.

Messrs. Gerard MacGugan and Arthur Lamb, Springfield, and Donald MacSwain, Pleasant Valley, motored to the city last Sunday.

Ministerial Protest Against Sunday Concert

The following correspondence speaks for itself:—

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Nov. 23rd, 1933.

F. D. Williams, Esq., Sec'y. Community Concert Assn., Charlottetown.

Dear Sir:—

In sending you the accompanying letter we wish to state further that as a body we entirely disapprove the holding for gain on Sunday evening of such concerts as recently held in this city, whose financing is so arranged as just to come within the provisions of the Lord's Day Act of Canada.

Signed: E. H. Ramsay, Trinity Church. G. Carlyle Webster, Zion Church. W. L. Outhouse, Central Christian Church.

A. C. Vincent, Baptist Church. R. Moorhead Legate, St. James Church. G. N. Brown, Trinity Church. Henry D. Raymond, St. Paul's Church.

W. B. Stevens, Adjutant, Salvation Army. Charlottetown, P. E. I., Nov. 23rd, 1933.

F. D. Williams, Esq., Sec'y. Community Concert Assn., Charlottetown.

Dear Sir:—

The Protestant ministers of Charlottetown in session are agreed that the announcement of a Community Concert for Sunday evening is unwise, and would request the Committee of the Community Concert Assn., to give reconsideration at once to the announcement, with a view to carrying out their program on any other day but Sunday.

We point out that the holding of such entertainment on Sunday is in direct contravention of Section No. 5 of the Lord's Day Act of Canada.

We feel it to be most undesirable further that anything should be done to interfere, or seem to interfere, with the sanctity of the Lord's Day.

We know from opinions expressed this morning by leading citizens and ticket-holders of the Concert Assn., that a considerable portion of the public does not look with favor on the announcement made. We urge that it is not in the interest of the Association for the future that its concert be announced for Sunday performance.

In making this protest we hasten to say that we are entirely appreciative of the efforts of the Association to provide concerts of first-class quality for our citizens, and will always be found ready to co-operate in every way possible in such a beneficent purpose.

E. H. Ramsay, Trinity Church. G. Carlyle Webster, Zion Church. W. L. Outhouse, Central Christian Church.

Reply by Concert Committee

In connection with the protest of the city ministers against the holding of the Community Concert on Sunday night at 8.30, the directors wish it to be known that their action in holding the concert at this time is entirely an emergency.

They do not aim to establish any precedent nor is it their purpose to hold any further concerts on Sunday.

The original first concert of the season was booked for the 25th October, but owing to the illness of one of the artists of the trio, the tour was cancelled.

It was only after much work and persuasion that the Concert Service people were able to replace the original concert trio with the Barre-Salado-Britt trio, and the only available date was Saturday the 25, November.

When this date was announced to the members of the Community Concert Association it was vigorously pointed out by many of our business people that they could not possibly attend a concert on Saturday night. It was then decided to commence the concert at 9.15 p. m., but still the protest continued and it was also pointed out that some ninety young people were student members this year and it was too late an hour to commence a concert for them. It was also shown that the trains have been arriving as late as 8.30 p. m., and that therefore it might be well after 10 p. m. before the concert would commence. It was then planned to hold the concert Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m., but it was at that time pointed out by one of our ministers that this time would interfere with the Sunday schools. After further consideration by the Community directors the concert

COURT CASE

RE EXCHANGE OF HORSES

Judgment Given In County Court, Summerside, Recently.

Thursday 23rd Nov. in the County Court at Summerside a decision was given in regard to an exchange of horses in the case of Gavin vs. Moller. The parties live near Alberon, and are farmers who also do business in horse-dealing. During the summer of 1933 the Plaintiff exchanged with the Defendant a mare and foal for a horse. Shortly afterwards the Plaintiff on a lien note, Plaintiff then went to Defendant to get back his mare and foal and negotiations for a compromise of the loss were commenced but never consummated. Some few weeks later on a Sunday, while the Defendant was at church the Plaintiff went to Defendant's house and took away the said mare and foal.

The Defendant returned from church, and finding the mare gone started in pursuit of the Plaintiff whom he overtook on the road. An altercation ensued in which the Defendant took back the mare and foal from the Plaintiff and incidentally in the retaking, the Plaintiff assaulted the Defendant. Immediately thereafter negotiations for a settlement were entered into but there seems to be a misunderstanding as to its terms. The Defendant still has the mare and foal while the Plaintiff remains minus the horse. This action was brought by the Plaintiff for damages and for failure of consideration in the exchange claiming that there is an implied warranty of title on the horse exchange. The Defendant resisted the warranty claim, and counter-claimed on the alleged new agreement and breach thereof, and also for damages for assault. The Plaintiff rejoined claiming that if there were a new contract it was void on account of having been made on Sunday; and denying the alleged assault. Several witnesses were examined as to the occurrence that took place on Sunday. In regard to the Sunday settlement or contract, the Court was of the opinion that the same was void as contravening the Lord's Day Act.

The main question in the case however, was as to whether or not there is an implied warranty of title in the case of the exchange of chattel. On the argument no case was cited as to an implied warranty of title in the case of barter, nor does there appear to have been found any direct decision deciding that there is an implied warranty of title in such case. In regard to the sale of goods not the Court was of opinion that its provisions did not apply to a transaction by way of exchange. The Court, however, held that there was an implied warranty in an case of a barter, reasoning by analogy from the common law of sales, and holding as follows:—

(1) That at common law, apart from Statute, there was an implied warranty of title in the sale of a chattel; and,

(2) That the rules of the common law in regard to a sale apply likewise to an exchange of chattels. The Plaintiff was allowed $75.00 for damages on implied warranty of title and the Defendant was allowed $50.00 on his counter-claim for assault. Judgment was entered for Plaintiff for $25.00, each party paying his own costs. Mr. Heath Strong, K. C., for Plaintiff. Mr. W. E. Darby for the Defendant.—S.

Buy Tuberculosis Seals

The Canadian Tuberculosis Association annually at this season of the year put on a sale of Christmas Seals all over Canada. Money raised in this way is spent in the province or municipality by the local committee which helps to raise in aid in finding early cases by means of examination, including X-ray.

At the present time there is provision in this province for complete examination for the diagnosis of Tuberculosis and that without cost to the individual if such individual is unable to pay for the same.

The Canadian Tuberculosis Association are contributing largely to this provision. They are deserving of your support and you are asked to do this by buying Tuberculosis Christmas Seals. You will know them by the double cross.

HEAVY DAMAGE

after ten o'clock that night getting a car of potatoes and oats ready for shipment on the morrow, when he arrived at the scene of the fire the flames were catching the roof, under the eaves. Mr. Bell's carrying on in the warehouse which adjoins his office next to the Bank of Nova Scotia. This was away from the scene of the fire.

Mr. Phillips of the produce company said that had they had any fire equipment they could have saved the warehouse. He lost 9,000 bags of potatoes there of his own and some 20,000 belonging to the farmers. They succeeded in getting out quite a quantity of the potatoes. The old station house which is west of the produce warehouse was in great danger, and only by the fact that the sheetmetal roof of the produce building kept the flames low was the station house saved. The produce warehouse caught at the end and the fire swept right through the building. Mr. Phillips hopes to salvage a good part of the potatoes remaining in the cellar. The building was a three storey one, 120 feet long and forty feet wide, with eleven foot basement. The basement was filled to the ceiling with potatoes, and it is there that Mr. Phillips hopes to save. He is now protecting them from the frost with straw and bags and a setting to work today putting up a roof and will carry on in this temporary way until a new building can be constructed.

There was considerable grain and other produce in both the produce warehouse and Mr. Bell's building. The car of flour which was burned had not been taken over, so the loss rested with the railway. A line of freight cars were in danger but the men moved them down the line, and when the engine arrived from Tighish they were taken completely out of the range of the fire. Two freight cars one an empty refrigerator car and the other containing flour were totally destroyed. Another car was very badly buried. The only warehouse left now which are available for storing produce are a small one belonging to the Robert Ellis estate and Kennedy's and Matthews' small buildings.
