Summerside and Western Guardian

GARDENS RUINED.—It is reported that many gardens about Summerside have been practically ruined. The cut worm being given for the cause.

CAVALRY NOTE.—B Squadron of the P. E. I. Light Horse under Command of Major Lewis Lowther will entrain for Charlottetown at Summerside on Tuesday morning.

PLEASANT VISIT.—The Guardian representative had a very pleasant visit to the Holman ranch, on Pope Road outside Summerside recently and was much interested in a young fox, which had been raised by hand under the skillful direction of Superintendent and Mrs. Weeks. The fox is a beautiful specimen and is so tame and trained that it can be treated just like a household pet.

BIG PARADE.—The committee in charge of the arrangements for the patriotic celebration at Summerside on Dominion Day is inviting every automobile owner in the province to join in the big parade that will start at 10 o'clock from the railway station. It is requested that cars be decorated with flags and maple leaves.

DIED AT DORCHESTER MASS.—The angel of death visited the home of John Delaney, 59 Wales Pl., Dorchester, Mass., on June 15th, and took from them their little son aged eighteen months. The child was sick only one week and despite the efforts of the most eminent doctors and nurses and the most living care he quietly passed away. The little fellow was exceptionally bright and will be sadly missed by his parents and all who knew and loved him. Mr. and Mrs. Delaney are both from Tignish, P. E. I. Mrs. Delaney was formerly Miss Clara Phee, daughter of the late James Phee. To the bereaved parents and two aunts the Misses Marie and Millie Phee, who make their home at the Delaneys we extend our sincere sympathy.—H.

U.C.C. Closing At Summerside

The Union Commercial College, Summerside, held for the term on Friday, Principal Moran presented the diplomas and prizes won during the term. He congratulated the students on the excellent work done during the term, work which reflected credit on students and teacher alike. The attendance has been very large, showing interest the people of Summerside and Prince County in general took in the institution. He was sure the graduates would give a good account of themselves when they went into the business world. He announced that College would reopen in September and he looked for a large attendance. The following is the list of graduates and prize winners: Gold Medal for Trench Typewriting awarded to Wanda Wyatt, Summerside; Gold coin for highest standing in Short-hand awarded to Lillian Dobson, Summerside; Gold coin for Spelling awarded to Eileen Murray, Linkletter (Miss Murray made 100 per cent); List of graduates: (Not in order of merit)—Mae Lavers, Summerside; Wanda Wyatt, Summerside; Sue Cannon, Ellerslie; Lou Eileen Murray, Linkletter; Genevieve Hammill, Freetown, Bertha Riley, Linkletter; Lillian McDowell, Summerside; Paula McCallough, Summerside; Pearl Gorrill, Northam; Myrtle McNeill, Summerside; Belle Craig, Bideford; Dorris Morris, Summerside; Erma Clark, Linkletter; Edna Gaudet, St. Nicholas; Helen Milligan, Summerside; Georgia Williams, Summerside; Marion Millman, Summerside; Eliza Sudbury, Summerside; Sue Cannon, Ellerslie; Lou Robinson, Summerside; Marion Ching, Summerside; Helen Baker, Summerside; Viola Barrett, Lot 14, Ethel Schurman, Summerside; Roberta Dunn, St. Eleanors; Sylvester Gaudet, St. Nicholas.

J. E. Wyatt, K. C. addressed the students congratulating them on the excellent work done during the term. The college fills a long felt want in Summerside and Prince County, closed for the term of the painstaking efforts of the teacher Mrs. McLellan, her good work being shown in the results. In closing he wished the College every success.

"There's a Reason"

MOBILIZATION.—"A" Squadron P. E. I. Light Horse will mobilize at the Armouries, Charlottetown, Tuesday morning, June 28th at 8 a. m. sharp for camp. F. I. Andrew, Major.

BETTER LUCK AGAIN.—Several of the boys who left Summerside with the signalling detachment have returned to their homes, having failed to pass the necessary physical examinations when they reached Charlottetown.

UNVEILING.—The Soldiers' Memorial monument at Malpeque, will be unveiled on Wednesday of next week. This is a splendid monument, a credit to the community, and one that will ever help to keep fresh the memory of those from the district who laid down their lives for the Empire.

PLEASANT EXCURSION.—About fifty members of the Knights of Columbus, Summerside, were the guests of Captain P. C. G. Gallant on a moonlight excursion on Bedeque Bay Friday evening. After a very pleasant two-hour outing, the Knights returned to the town, where they were the guests of Henry Gaudet at the Olympia Cabaret.

GORED A HORSE.—A cow pastured with a horse is not always a satisfactory combination, as one dweller in the east end of Summerside discovered last week. The boy was one of a rather unruly disposition and never friendly with the companion in the field, turned on him the other day, goring the horse so badly that he had to be shot. The carcass was sold for fox meat.

HARDWORKED OFFICIAL.—A road official in the vicinity of Egmont Bay, a few days ago took a few minutes off to dig clams. He took his shoes off and placed them in his carriage, leaving the horse and carriage on the road side. The horse after a time became weary of waiting, and started after its master, it became bogged, and quite difficultly was experienced getting it out.

BEAUTIFUL MEMORIAL.—The family of the late H. F. Gillis, Miscouche, have presented to the parish church, a beautiful Sanctuary lamp in his memory. He himself had expressed his desire in this regard before his last illness and the family carried it out immediately after his death. The lamp which now hangs before the altar, where he for long years worshipped, is of brass, gothic in design, and very massive. On either side are the memorial stained glass windows recently placed there, and with the addition of the heavy Sanctuary it gives to the church that "dim religious light" which pervades the atmosphere of religious edifices.

A SHARP CONTRAST.—As an indication of the slump in the price of produce, a farmer living outside Summerside tells the following story about himself. He hired two men during the week to call potatoes for him, with the intention of selling. The men demanded and received the wage of $2.50 a day. The farmer loaded the potatoes, hitched up a team of horses and drove to town, losing a day's work, and the top price he could get for the tubers was about 20 cents a bushel; not enough to pay for the work of culling the potatoes. A Summerside man hearing that this farmer had quite a stock of Murphys on hand, intimated that he would like to get some, at a reasonable price, but on driving out to the farm was given as much as his car would hold, about 25 bushels, just for the cost of coming after them. This time last year potatoes were selling in Summerside at about $3.50 a bushel.

SAD DEATH.—Death at all times is sad but when a young and devoted wife and mother is taken away from her home and family it is indeed saddest of all. Such was the case in the recent death of Mrs. Frank McLellan who died on June 18th at her home Huntington Avenue, Roxbury, Mass. Her death at the early age of 25 years has cast a gloom over the whole neighborhood where she lived, for she had by her genial disposition and kind ways won the love and esteem of all who knew her. Her husband who is the son of the late B. D. McLellan, M. P., formerly of Palmer Road, P. E. I., is heart broken while the two beautiful little girls left behind are too young to realize their irreparable loss Mrs. McLellan was formerly Miss Teresa, daughter of Mr. Michael Corcoran of Baldwin's Road, P. E. I. Besides her husband she leaves a devoted father, three sisters, and four brothers. The funeral was held from the Church of the Blessed Sacrament and was largely attended. Four of the pall bearers were from P. E. I. Messrs. Reuben Cadigan, J. McNeill, J. Dougan and C. Morrison, the others being Messrs. Ernest Werner and Jas. McGrohan, Roxbury, Mass. May she rest in peace.—H.

"Where is my umbrella?" fumed father just as he was ready to rush off to the city. "Somebody's taken it!"

Little Willie looked up at his dad. "I 'spect Mr. Smith took it, father," he said. Mabel, the beautiful grown daughter of the house, blushed crimson.

"Oh, Willie!" she cried, "how can you say such a thing?"

"Well, sis," returned Willie, "when he was saying good-night to you last night I heard him say, 'Mabel dear, I'm—I'm going to steal just one.'"
