IT'S THE POLICE! KEEP QUIET... IF YOU DON'T WANT TO BE HURT! A LONG STATE TROOPER RIMS DOWN HIS QUARRY! THIS IS THE CAR, ALL RIGHT! AND THE QUARRY TURNS, AT BAY... TAKE THAT AND THAT! TWO BULLS-EYES... A TROOPER AND A TIRE.

Contract Bridge By Josephine Colburnton

Bad Trump Break Not Always Fatal An extremely bad break of trumps is usually fatal to a normal contract, but by playing for (and getting) good breaks in other suits, the declarer can sometimes overcome his difficulty. Observe today's deal.

South dealer. Both sides vulnerable. 9 8 5 2 AK954 A862 J873 6 3 8 7 5 3 AQ4 AQJ832 QJ The bidding: South West North East 1 Pass 2 Pass 3 Pass 3NT Pass 4 Pass Pass Pass 4 Pass Pass Double Pass Pass Pass Double

North, an expert, did not like to bid three notrump when void of his partner's suit, but neither did he like to stop short of game when holding three honor-tricks. South's bidding was a shade strenuous throughout. West opened the spade three and East's bid went to the ace. South then led down the ace and queen of trumps. In view of East's double, South had not expected a good division of trumps, but the revelation that East had six of them still came as something of a shock! After capturing the heart queen
