TO WIND UP ESTATE — Mrs. Caroline McKinnon, matron C.N.R. Passenger Station, who returned from St. Peters Island, P.E.I. Thursday of this week, plans to return there Saturday again, in order to wind up, or assist in winding up the settlement of the estate of her late sister, who passed away last week. Allen McKinnon, her son, and member of the Freight Shed Department, is leaving for St. Peters Island, P.E.I. next Thursday, and will be there for a week or so. Under the decree of the will, the property must be disposed of, as there are none of the surviving relatives remaining desirous of working the farm. —Truro News.

SPINACH green and gray is a new color combination. VARNISHING LINOLEUM Worn spots on the linoleum mar the effect of a pretty kitchen. Large patches in front of stove, table and sink will soon be worn colorless and patternless if no preventive measure is taken. A coat of varnish, shellac or lacquer, topped with wax will prevent these unsightly scars and will give the linoleum a new lease on life. Mihal's Enamel removes stains.
