COWDRAY BECOMES AERIAL ORGANIZER

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Lord Cowdray, known as one of England's greatest business organizers, took over organization and development of England's aerial warfare. He will have the sole charge of construction and equipment of the empire's air forces, both of the army and the navy.

His appointment was regarded as a direct response to the caution voiced by Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig recently against possible loss by the empire of its present air supremacy.

Lord Cowdray is principally known as the president of the firm of S. Pearson and Son, owners of vast properties and developments all over the world, and particularly in Mexico.

MT. RYAN SCHOOL CLOSING

An entertainment of an unusually high character was presented by the pupils of Mt. Ryan School, Thursday December 21st, on the occasion of their annual entertainment and Xmas Tree. The schoolroom was very tastefully decorated with evergreens, bunting and flags and it was illuminated with Xmas candles and Chinese lanterns. The whole effect presented an artistic and very pleasing appearance. The different numbers on the programme were especially well-rendered. Special mention might be made of Master Joseph Gallan whose performance delighted the large audience. The entertainment as a whole reflects a great deal of credit not only upon the pupils themselves but also upon their teacher, Miss Margaret Francis whose untiring efforts made the event one of the most enjoyable ever given by the pupils of Mt. Ryan School. Much credit is also due Mr. Martin Power who had charge of the musical part of the programme and who contributed several numbers himself and responded to a number of encores. One of the most pleasing events of the evening was the arrival of Santa Claus, who at once proceeded to unburden the heavily-laden Xmas Tree and to present each pupil with a number of presents. Nor did he forget the teacher who was presented with a beautiful ivory manicule set besides a number of other presents. Mr. Peter Cumiskey presided and performed his duties in a manner satisfactory to all. The following was the programme.

Do Us a Favor

Come in and see "Heart Songs." Go over a few of the pages. Look for your favorite piece. It is there. Compare "Heart Songs" with any other song book you have ever seen. We know the result; you will not go away without a copy of the

Charlottetown Daily Guardian's Beautiful Big Song Book

"Heart Songs" is not a mere collection of words and music thrown together to make a song book, 20,000 people voted the songs in "Heart Songs" the songs of the American people. Four years were required to reach a verdict and the result is "Heart Songs," the song book of the American people. Many of these songs cannot be found in any other collection. They came in yellow, time-worn, tear-stained sheets—that had been sacredly treasured from childhood—some were written out from memory—others were given by titles only—or remembered verses involving a long search to obtain the whole. Of the thousands received it is safe to say that the several hundred finally selected—as having the largest number of votes and the highest endorsement—represent today the taste of the American people in its choice of music. We believe that the distribution of this unrivalled song collection will bring more happiness into the homes of our Readers; will do more to inculcate a love for music; to soften, elevate and refine the home life; to cultivate the noble and higher virtues of the fireside—than any other means we could adopt.
