TIMELY TIPS ON SPORT

BOXING CARD SATURDAY NIGHT

The tid-bit of the boxing season is in store for local fans Saturday night at the Forum where a card of four bouts is scheduled to take place. The main go is between Bennie Binns clever young welter-weight of the city and Kid Burke of Amherst. This bout has all the marks of being a humdinger from the start and is scheduled for eight rounds. The semi-final is between Jack Nelson "The Battling Dane", and "Battling" Bill Gerd, also of Amherst. Both these boys are willing to mix it up and the fans are promised a battle royal. The go is for six rounds. Kid Nickerson and Johnnie Stanley both well known to Charlottetownians take part in the curtain-raiser. One comedy bout rounds out an exceptionally well-balanced program. Popular prices prevail, 50 cents reserved seats and 35 cents general admission.

HAS CHARGE OF BOXING CLASS

Jimmy Foster, captain and goal tender of the Moncton Hawks is not only a brilliant hockeyist but is also quite a boxer. Jimmy an aspirant for the Canadian Olympic team several years ago, has charge of a boxing class in the Y. M. C. A. at Moncton instructing the younger generation in the many art of self defense.

Springhill Fencebusters took a commanding lead in their race with St. Stephen Kiwanis for the Maritime baseball title when they won yesterday's encounter 5 to 3.

"Coope" LeBlanc after losing the opening game of the series came back yesterday to turn back the New Brunswickers. The big south-paw was away to a shaky start but rallied strongly in the last half of the game.

In the first encounter Albion's error on the fly ball paved the way for the Kiwanis victory. Albion popped up yesterday again, but in quite a different manner, his four-base wallop sending the miners into the lead after last year's champions had tied the score at 3 nil.

CONACHER A HOLDOUT

Charlie Conacher, right winger on the "Kid Line" of the Toronto Maple Leafs is reported to be holding out in face of another out. He has been offered a $5,000 contract with several bonus clauses, a drop of $4,000 from the $9,000 he got last season, and has refused to accept. Conacher, whose average salary has been $8,500 in his four-year hockey career, is willing to accept $7,000, but can't see the big drop. It is stated he will not go to the Leafs' training base at Kitchener tomorrow unless an agreement is reached. The remainder of the Leafs team with the exception of Hec Kilrea have signed contracts for the year.

ABBIE PRACTICE

Abegweit football practice is called for 5 o'clock sharp this afternoon at the C. A. A. Grounds. The following players are requested to be on hand.
A. Woolner, J. Hunter, J. Lonergan, P. Hillier, F. Kennedy, M. Arsenault, E. LePage, F. LePage, H. Richardson, H. Currie, R. MacKenzie, J. Duffy, H. MacNeil, A. Fraser, M. Burgoyne, H. Fisher, L. Wellner, N. Price, N. Burnett, and any others who wish to try out.

"I was quite upset when Jack kissed me."
"Oh, I say! You'd been kissed before."
"Yes, but never in a canoe."

RIFLE MATCH

The team shoots for the McKinnon and Guardian Cups scheduled to have taken place last Saturday, but postponed on account of the weather, will be shot tomorrow, Saturday, starting at 1.30 p. m. sharp. It is understood that the following Military Units and Civilian Rifle Clubs will be represented by teams for both trophies: F. E. I. Light Horse, No. 2 Signal Company, P. E. I. Highlanders, York Rifle Club, Covehead Rifle Club and possibly one or two others. The present holders of these Cups are asked to have them at the bungalow before the match starts.

Senators Begin Season's Work

OTTAWA, Oct. 19.—An important cog in the Ottawa Senators' National Hockey League machine slipped back into place when Ralph "Cooney" Weiland, much-sought-after centre star of the locals, reported into camp. Arriving by motor from Boston, Weiland lost no time in getting into uniform. In two snappy practices "Cooney" whirled around in great style. Perk Galbraith, former Boston Bruin player, sent word he had reached Toronto on Tuesday. He was due to arrive in Ottawa on Wednesday. "Yip" Foster, burly defenceman from Springfield, Mass., also was on hand at Wednesday's workouts. No word has yet been received by club officials from "Scotty" Bowman, but the Niagara Falls player is expected to report within a few days.

The net was guarded again in the senior line-up by Bill Beveridge. No official announcement has been made yet regarding Alex. Connell, still an absentee from practice, and it is not known what dealings the former captain of the Senators is having with the club directorate. With some 20 players on hand, those who worked out included "Bud" Cook, Bert Bury, "Buzz" Williams, Bill Beveridge, "Cooney" Weiland, Frank Finnigan, Bill Touhey, Syd Howe, Gus Forslund, Earl Roche, Billy Boucher, Danny Cox, Desse Roache, Nick Wasnie, Allan Shields and Bert McInenly.

Edmonton Stars For Black Hawks

EDMONTON, Oct. 19.—Two players of the Edmonton Eskimos will be sold to Chicago Black Hawks, providing they make good in tryouts, Gordon "Duke" Keats, manager of the Eskimos, said. The players were Emile Kenny, defenceman, and Ade Johnston, brother of "Ching" of New York Rangers, and left-winger. Terms of the deal were not disclosed by Keats.

Turns Down Boston Offer

PRINCE ALBERT, Oct. 19.—Feeling another year in amateur circles will be more valuable from a hockey standpoint than a jump to professional ranks this year, Phil Beeler, star forward of last year's Humboldt Indians, has turned down an invitation to try out with the Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League. The 21-year-old puckster will play with the Prince Albert Mintos this season.

Well Known Sportsman Dead

(Canadian Press)
SHERBROOKE, Oct. 19.—George A. Povey, 52, well known sportsman is dead here from the effects of an appendicitis operation he underwent last week. In his youth he was a baseball, lacrosse and hockey player of note, and in later years managed several Sherbrooke teams. Many years ago he starred on the Victoria hockey team of Moncton. He is survived by his widow, four brothers and three sisters.

THE BAUD SHOWS THE WAY TO BLUE NOSE

Light Wind Forces Nova Scotia Schooner to Get Tow From Rival.

LUNenburg, N. S., Oct. 19.—(C. P.)—Bluenose, Queen of North Atlantic fishing schooners, sailed through Gertrude L. Thebaud's wake all the way from Chicago to Windsor, Ont. To Lunenburg salts, proud of the big Nova Scotian banker's record of speed and seaworthiness, this came as pretty surprising news tonight. And they smiled in disbelief until Capt. Ben Pine went on to explain how his Gloucester schooner had shown her heels to the Atlantic Queen all the way through Lake Michigan and Lake Huron.

Bluenose and Thebaud, after their stay at the World Fair, were leaving Chicago together. There wasn't enough wind for Capt. Angus Walters, so he put a line aboard the auxiliary-equipped Thebaud and sailed behind Bluenose's American rival. And that's how Thebaud led her conqueror through the Lakes.

Skipper Pine told the story here tonight as his fleet vessel lay in harbor on her way home from the fair. He called her today to pay respects to Bluenose's homeport, and the townspeople met him and his men with a reception befitting his seaworthy record, proven on the Banks and against her Nova Scotian opponent.

Canadiens In Training

KINGSTON, Oct. 19.—Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League opened their pre-season training here Tuesday, when a squad of 24 men worked out at the Queen's University gymnasium. Basketball and light limbering-up exercises comprised most of the work of the Quebec team, and the same program will be repeated tomorrow, with golf in the afternoon at the Cataract Golf and Country Club. Yesterday the team took the ice at the Harty Arena and confined most of their work there, although there was an hour's physical training at the Richardson Stadium prior to the morning hockey practice.

Newly Lalonde, leader of the Canadiens, expressed himself today as delighted with the facilities for the training of his players offered by Queen's. He felt his men would be in better condition this season than last year, he said.

Lalonde announced the Canadiens would play New York Rangers in an exhibition game here Nov. 2. It is also planned to bring Ottawa Senators here for an exhibition game, but the date has not been arranged.

Patrick In Mt'l.

MONTREAL, Oct. 19.—Lester Patrick, grey-haired, keen-eyed mentor of the New York Rangers, arrived here Tuesday to direct training of the squad that holds the Stanley Cup, highest award in the National Hockey League campaign. Patrick has ordered his men to report at the Forum here on Friday, when he is expected to be ready. He will depend on practically the same team as last year, although he has added a number of rookies, including Jean Pusie, big defenceman, who made good in the West last year.

SPRINGHILL NINE WITHIN ONE GAME OF CHAMPIONSHIP

Allbon's Homer In The Seventh After A Sixth Innings Batting Rally Gave The N.S.P.E.I. Titlists A 5-3 Victory.

(Canadian Press)
SPRINGHILL, N. S., Oct. 19.—Back on home soil after their New Brunswick invasion, the hard-hitting Springhill Fencebusters outbatted St. Stephen Kiwanis today for a 5-3 victory that left them within a single game of the Maritime Baseball Championship.

A batting rally that netted a run in the sixth and Ackie Allbon's looping homer in the seventh after the New Brunswick titlists had tied the score provided Fencebusters with the winning margin and gave the Nova Scotia-Prince Edward Island champions a series advantage of 3-2 with two games to go on their home field.

Two Straight

Today's win made it two straight for the Fencebusters. They had dropped the first game at St. Stephen, but had come back with a strong attack to take the second encounter on the New Brunswick field. Tomorrow, the teams go into action here again, and a fifth game will be played here Saturday if Kiwanis manage to turn the tables and square up the series.

And anything may happen in this series. Today, 1,500 spectators witnessed a game that provided every variety of ball in the books. Brilliant plays mingled with errors as the championship teams contributed between them a total of nine bobbles.

Errors Costly

Three errors were marked up against the St. Stephen nine, and Springhill's fielders committed twice the number. Southpaw Cople LeBlanc, the Moncton, N. B., hurler, who pitched for Springhill, accounted for two of his team's errors, one of them a wild throw home that allowed a score.

LeBlanc was nervous in the first four innings, and he walked three men, hit three more and threw wildly about the bases. But he steadied down in the last half as his perside slants held the New Brunswick nine to a single hit in these frames.

In all, LeBlanc allowed a live sacrifice. But the Fencebusters walloped an even dozen off "Howdy" Clarke, who struck out five batters while LeBlanc was accounting for seven Kiwanians by way of the strokeout Kite.

POOR BASE RUNNING

Fencebusters, throw away several chances to score by poor base-running. Two Busters were caught at the plate by beautiful throws from centrefielder Coffey, who narrowly missed nailing Albion on his long drive in the seventh.

In the field, the Nova Scottians were weak also, and not one of St. Stephen's runs were earned. In the first, Coffey went to third on a stolen base and an error, and then came home on Moffatt's line drive to left. Mitchell scored from third in the next inning when first-baseman McDonald dropped the ball on an attempted double play. And again in the fourth, Godfrey scored from third when LeBlanc threw wild in an attempt to catch

Will Manage Buffalo Club

FORT WILLIAM, Oct. 19.—Notification of his transfer to the Buffalo club of the International Hockey League as playing manager was received Tuesday by Bob Davis, former Fort William defenceman. Davis played with Detroit Red Wings in the National League last season.

Schools Play Draw

(Canadian Press)
MONTON, Oct. 19.—Aberdeen High and Sackville High rugby teams battled to a 3-all draw in an exhibition game here this afternoon. Penalty kicks by White for the Moncton squad and Estabrocks for Sackville, composed the sum-total of the scoring.

Little Kenneth, three, had received a good scolding for being naughty. He stuck his hands in his pockets, rolled his big dark eyes, looked up at his mother, and said, "And I thought you loved me."

HEAVY SLUGGING

But what Fencebusters lacked in fielding they made up in slugging. After going scoreless for one inning they opened up with a rally that netted three runs in the second. McDonald was first man up, and he rapped out a single over second. He advanced a base when LeBlanc lashed out a hot grounder that got away from Clarke. Fowler lined a clean single to left, and the bases were filled.

Brown kept the rally going with a single into left that scored McDonald and LeBlanc, and Emberey's long holst to right field sent Fowler across the plate. O'Brien and Albion got on, but the side was retired without further scores.

BEATS OUT THROW

Then in the sixth, McDonald beat out a close throw to third on a hit to deep centre—the longest of the series. He scored when Moffatt took Fowler's grounder and forced him at second. Albion's homer in the seventh ended the scoring.

Fencebusters were weakened by the fact that big Hank O'Rourke, their first-string catcher and captain, was away off form. O'Rourke, always a tower of strength with the willow took himself out of the game in the first inning after making a wild throw to second and letting two balls pass him. He could not see the ball, he said, and he sent in young Art Crawford, who handled LeBlanc's shoots efficiently

England Dazzlers In Varied Colors Of Fall Flowers

(Canadian Press)
LONDON, Oct. 19.—Have you ever had a bird's-eye view of "a mile of flowers," the finest that England's gardens can produce, massed in dazzling splashes of orange, red and heliotrope? Such a spectacle, whose beauty has probably never been surpassed in this or any other country this season, was to be seen in the National Hall at Olympia, when the Royal Horticultural Society was holding its autumn show.

Words cannot do justice to the colors or to the perfection of the blooms. Naturally, there was michaelmas daisies in profusion; tall bushes and dwarf border plants. There were roses and dahlias, orchids and begonias. There was a wonderful selection of evergreen shrubs. Double-scented nasturtiums blazed from the centre of the floor. Incredible cacti bristled in enormous prickly beds. Choice

British Markets Show Advance

(Special to The Guardian)
MONTON, N. B., Oct. 19.—With the approach of the black fox pelting season buyers are beginning to reach the Maritime Provinces. The first to reach the provinces this season is Mr. C. Oley of London, England, who arrived in Moncton over the Canadian National R. W. He states that prices this year will be up from fifteen to twenty per cent over last year and it is anticipated there will be a big demand, principally for silver black fox pelts. He is also seeing much at and mink skins in any quantity. Fur farming is now a well established business and amounts to considerable money. Last season large numbers of pelts were shipped out of this section of the province state Canadian National express officials, representing a value of between a million and a million and a half dollars speaking with regard to business conditions in Great Britain. They remarked that there has been a wonderful improvement in the situation. Factories have been opened up by the score throughout the entire country and a great number of men have returned to work not only in the manufacturing plants but in many other industries. A great deal more money is in circulation and it is generally felt that Great Britain is well on the way to better times.

Inspiring Sermon Delivered At Church Service

The evangelistic service at the Central Christian Church last night was well attended. The address preached by Evangelist R. George Quiggin was based on Rom. 5: 1, 6, 7, 8, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. "But God commended His love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." The speaker trusted that his hearers were not finding his preaching on Christ's sacrifice wearisome. The theme of the discourse was "God's Love for Us." The sacrifice of Christ was advanced as the medium of God's love; the avenue of escape from punishment; the highway to peace. Men may be the unconscious enemies of God. Those who have not laid hold of the hand of God through Christ, are in an extremely perilous position. It is one thing to be a pardoned enemy, it is another thing to have access to God. Listen to the Gospel: "Now we have access into this grace wherein we stand." The indictment is taken away and we not only have peace now, but hope of the future. We look forward to glory. We shall be glorious in purity, in happiness, in Christ-likeness. And we may glory in tribulation here and now. The proofs of God's love is this: The Cross of Christ, "God commended His love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." The night has a thousand eyes And the day but one, Yet the light of a whole world dies With the setting sun. The mind has a thousand eyes And the heart but one; Yet the light of a whole world dies When love is done. The service this evening will be held at 7.30.

Superior Seed Encouragement To Provinces

The encouragement of the production of superior seeds in Canada is one of the many phases of the well-established, harmonious co-operation between the Dominion and the Provincial Departments of Agriculture. Represented in this work by the Seed Branch, the Dominion Department pays subvention money to the Provincial Departments in amounts equal to those expended by the province in accordance with the total amount prescribed for each project. The projects include seed crop and junior farmer competitions, seed fair assistance to seed-cleaning plants, freight on agricultural lime, the movement of improved seed to drought-stricken areas of Western Canada, and the distribution of forage crop seeds throughout the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. The following amounts were paid during the year ended March 31, 1933 as subvention money to the Provinces:—P. E. I., $973.19; Nova Scotia, $440.25; New Brunswick, $600; Quebec, $4,500; Ontario, $4,255.24; Manitoba, $15,859.53; Saskatchewan, $29,629.02; Alberta, $11,514.18; and British Columbia, $1,250. The larger amounts paid the three Prairie Provinces are attributable to expenditures made in connection with the distribution of forage crop seeds, and payment of freight on improved seed supplies to the drought-stricken areas, and were available from the unexpended balances on account of subventions that had been credited to these provinces during previous years. The minister met Tom, the village ne'er-do-well, said, much to the latter's surprise, shook him heartily by the hand. "I'm so glad you've turned over a new leaf, Thomas," said the good man. "Me?" returned Tom, looking at him dubiously. "Yes, I was pleased to see you at the prayer meeting last night." "Oh," said Tom, light breaking in on him; "so that's where I was, is it?"—Royal Arcanum Bulletin.

HELPING OUT SASKATCHEWAN

REGINA, Oct. 19.—(C. P.)—A noble response from the fertile areas of Canada to plead for aid from the parched areas of Saskatchewan was reported by the Saskatchewan Rural Voluntary Relief Committee. More than 130 carloads of fruit and vegetables for immediate distribution have been received. Ontario has donated 26 cars, British Columbia, 13, Saskatchewan, 80, Manitoba, 1 and Alberta, 1. In addition miners in the Bienville and Estevan sections of the province are repeating their generosity of last year by donating 45 carloads of coal to keep schools in operation in relief areas during the winter months. Fruits and awe-inspiring vegetables made the amateur gardener green with envy. Among the new plants was some bush honeysuckle grown from a weed brought from Russia during the war.
