Mr. Nicholson officiating, of Miss Jenny Hogg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hogg, of Wilmot, to Mr. James Clark of North Bedeque. CAME SAFE THROUGH HURRICANE.—A telegram has been received by Councillor John T. Phillips of Summerside, conveying the good news that his son, Mr. Roy Phillips, who is on the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia at San Juan, Porto Rico, came safely through the great hurricane that devastated the island a few days ago. The telegram from Mr. Phillips also states that all other members of the staff of the bank are safe.—S.

COOKE - CAMERON WEDDING.—A very pretty wedding took place at the bride's home at 5.30 a.m. on Thursday, when Miss Terrie Adeline Cameron, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Keith Cameron of Kirk Street, Sided, became the wife of Mr. Ellwood L. Cooke, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cooke, of Windsor, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Ven. Archdeacon White in the presence of only the immediate relations, both the bride and groom being unattended. The wedding took place under an arch, prettily decorated with pink and white flowers, the color scheme of drawing room and diningroom being pink and white. Miss Bessie Smallman beautifully rendered the Wedding March as the bride appeared on the arm of her father, looking very charming in a dress of honey beige, trimming with cut embroidery, with hat and shoes to match and carrying a beautiful bouquet of pink and white roses. During the signing of the register Mr. Ewen Nicholson sang very effectively 'O Perfect Love'. Immediately after a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip, calling at Niagara Falls and Chicago and thence to the groom's home in Windsor Ont., where a reception will be given in their honor before they depart for Detroit, Mich., where they will reside in future. Both the bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful presents, including cheques, cut glass and silverware. A handsome pair of silver vases was the gift of the Junior W. A. of St. Mary's Church, of which the bride was a popular member. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl and crystal necklace. The Guardian joins a host of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Cooke all prosperity and happiness. S.
