UPPER MONTAGUE
CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The annual Christmas concert was held in Upper Montague School on December 23rd. The school and tree were nicely decorated for the occasion by the pupils and the teacher. Mr. Raymond Nicholson acted as chairman and at the close spoke a few words complimenting the teacher and pupils on the program. Santa arrived and distributed gifts to pupils and teacher. At the close the Women's Institute sold pies. Mr. Eugene Dunn capably acted as auctioneer. Following is the program presented by pupils under the guidance of their teacher, Alena MacDonald. Opening Chorus: Away In A Manger, School.

SOURIS & VICINITY

Mr. Ronald Norman was a business visitor to Souris on Monday.

Due to the heavy snowfall late Sunday evening the highway from Charlottetown to Souris was impassable again Monday. —So.

The Grade Eleven students of St. Mary's Convent held a lottery during the Christmas holidays of a Parker "51" pen and pencil set for class improvements. Many tickets were sold with the winner being Mr. Addison MacDonald, Souris.

SOURIS LINE ROAD SOUTH WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The ladies of the Souris Line Road South Women's Institute held their first regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Donald MacDonald on Jan. 7. Eleven members and one visitor were present. The meeting opened with the members repeating the "Collect" in unison. The president, Mrs. Lawrence Keays, presided. Minutes of the organization meeting held in November 1947, were read and adopted.

A paper on citizenship was read by one of the members. The following sick committee was appointed: Mrs. Alphonse Clinton and Mrs. Daniel Bushey. It was decided to play bingo at the next meeting. Prizes for same will be donated by three members.

Mrs. Cyril MacDonald invited the members to her home for the February meeting. There being no further business the meeting was adjourned by singing the "National Anthem." A dainty lunch was then served by the hostess and a social hour spent.

Recitation: Blanche MacPhee. Welcome: Ralph MacKenzie. Recitation: His Letter, Bobby MacPhee. Dialogue: Painting A Chair, Blanche, Bruce, Kimble and John MacDonald.

Recitation: Ivan MacPhee. Solo: Linda Lu, Alvina Dunn. Encored: Barney McCoy. Recitation: Ian MacKenzie. Duet: Make Room in Your Heart for a Friend, Bobby and Ivan MacPhee, (encored), Five Minute: More.

Dialogue: Zachery's Hired Man, Blanche, Annie, Bruce, Willard, John MacDonald and John Nicholson.

Instrumental Music: Alex, Dorothy and Alvina. Recitation: A Christmas Dilemma, June MacDonald.

Intermission—Sale of Candy—Music. Recitation: The Birthday, Dorothy Rogers.

Dialogue: Advice To The Lovelorn. Solo: John Nicholson, "The F. E. I. Express" (encored) "The Cowboy's Dream."

Recitation: "The Story of The Star", Bruce Nicholson. Duet: "Billy Boy", Kimble MacPhee and Dorothy Rogers, (encored) "Two Little Orphans".

Instrumental music: William Troy, Alvina Dunn. Dialogue: Upper Montague Gentlemen's Aid.

Recitation: Kimble MacPhee, "Choosing The Stocking". Reading: "How We Hunted A Mouse", Wilson MacLean. Drill: "The Christmas Tree", 10 pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacGregor, Montague, were week end visitors to Charlottetown where they visited their many friends.

Miss Jennie MacLaren, who is taking a short course in Home Economics at Prince of Wales College, spent the week end in Brudenell at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira MacLaren.

Messrs. Lee Steirs and Charles MacKay, Georgetown, N. B., spent a few days in Montague and vicinity where they have been purchasing cattle from local dealers. The cattle are to be shipped by rail to New Brunswick.

On Saturday afternoon the first game for the kiddies took place at the Montague rink when the Murray Harbour Tuxas Rangers defeated the Montague Boy Scouts 4 to 1 in a hard-fought contest. For three periods the youngsters skated at pell-mell pace, checking, and shooting, giving an exhibition worthy of much older boys. It is a pleasure to watch the enthusiasm of these youngsters, and since they are the foundation of the future teams, it looks as if there will be some good teams in this vicinity in a few years.

On Thursday, January 15th, the regular meeting of the Montague Branch No. 8, Canadian Legion, P. E. I., was held at the Legion Hall with the president, C. H. Kydd, presiding. The meeting, which was attended by a large number of veterans from Montague and vicinity, conducted various important business matters. At the conclusion of the business the election of officers took place. The following is the slate of new officers: President, Comrade Doug MacGowan; 1st vice president, Comrade Les MacDonald; 2nd vice president, Comrade G. H. Kydd; Secretary, Comrade J. W. Ladner; assistant secretary, Comrade B. N. Hoolley.

A very lovely wedding was solemnized on Monday evening, January 12th, at the United Church, Mansel, Hantsport, N. E., when Shirley Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Dunning, Montague, was united in marriage to Duncan Deimar Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lester Robinson, Cambridge, N. S. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are students of Acadia University where Mr. Robinson will obtain his Bachelor of Arts degree this year. It is understood that he will return next year to obtain his Bachelor of Education degree. He will then follow the teaching profession. Mrs. Robinson is a student in the Home Economics department, having completed her high school course in Montague in 1946. The many friends of the young couple wish them every happiness in the years to come.

At the regular meeting of Acme Robekah Lodge, Montague, the officers for the ensuing term were installed by District Deputy President, Mrs. Elsie Waterworth, and District Deputy Marshall, Miss Thelma Larter, assisted by

Bristol
And Vicinity

Mr. Peter Whalen, Morell, East spent the week-end in the city.

Mrs. Roddie O'Hanley, Cable Head, spent a few days at her old home here last week.

Mr. Ed Byrne has returned home after spending some time with his family in the city.

The going is pretty tough here for wild game birds and everyone is lending a helping hand clearing away snow and putting out feed.

Mrs. Stannis Lapierre, is spending some time in the city with her daughter, Mrs. Lester McVarish Upper Queen Street.

Miss Ruby Sanderson, Charlottetown, spent the New Year's holidays with her sister here Mrs. C. B. MacEwen.

Mrs. James A. O'Brien, spent a few days in the city last week where her daughter-in-law is very ill.

Miss Eunice MacDonald who has been home for several months expects to leave next week for Montreal where she will spend a few months with friends.

Best wishes are extended to a good young friend in Montreal, Vera Drake, who was married a short time ago and will make her home in that city.

Mr. P. A. MacDonald, one of our young men who returned from the army, plans to take up blacksmith work as his trade and will begin the long term of learning the trade from all angles this month.

Her friends regret the very serious illness of Mrs. Reginald O'Brien, the Charlottetown Hospital. She was Miss Carter, from Forty Eight road, before her marriage.

The Morell Hockey team has been whipped into shape in their new rink and now they are hanging out their shingle for games. It has been reported here that a game between Morell and Holman's Victors may be put on shortly if plans work out.

Britol rink has died the death of a forgotten rink. The walls are partly down and there are not enough young fellows here now to get it up again. Of course if a few did put the rink in condition there would be plenty to skate in it and play hockey.

The great amount of rain that fell last week in this vicinity did little or nothing to lower the huge snow banks as the weather was not mild enough. Nothing has been done in the woods owing to the great amount of snow, as even the trees on the soft woods are loaded with snow making chopping impossible.

Past Noble Grands Mrs. Nellie Fraser, Mrs. Florence Stewart, Mrs. Addie Dewar, Mrs. Frances Shaw and Mrs. Ruth MacLeod. The following is the new slate of officers: Noble Grand, Mrs. George Hume; Vice-Grand, Mrs. Effie Bruce; Treasurer, Mrs. Winnifred Vickerson; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Hilda E.
