Athletic Sports

The Abegweit Club have a large and interesting list of athletic events for the Confederation Sports at their grounds on Saturday July 2nd.

The track is now in first class shape and the older and younger athletes are out nightly getting in shape for the different events.

There is some good promising material on hand, who, with the proper handling and the right kind of encouragement will develop fast into first place athletes.

The encouragement most needed now is to have a good audience to watch them perform. It will not only make them show up better but will give each one taking part the spirit of trying again and trying harder.
