ENGAGEMENT. - Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MacIntyre of Bedford, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter Norma Patricia to Leo Ignatius, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mullen also of Bedford. Marriage to take place the last of this month.

REEVES - EVANS WEDDING. A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the United Church Manse, North Bedeque, August 26th, 1948, when Edna Evelyn, only daughter of Mr. Stanley Evans and the late Mrs. Evans, became the bride of Lorne Everett, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reeves, Lower Freetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ralph L. Wagner. The bride was becomingly attired in aqua with black accessories, and wore a corsage of roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Dorothy Reeves, sister of the groom, wore turquoise with black accessories and a corsage of roses. Ensor Oatway, cousin of the bride, acted as best man. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to Summerside, where they had supper at Leo Coyle's new restaurant, after which they left on the late boat for a honeymoon trip to St. John and Maine.

SHOWER - On Thursday, September 2nd, 1948, about two hundred friends and relatives gathered at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reeves, Lower Freetown, to tender a shower to their son Lorne and his bride, the former Miss Edna Evans of Freetown. When all had assembled the bride and groom were escorted to a seat of honor by Miss Dorothy Reeves and Mr. Ensor Oatway. The well filled baskets were carried in by Misses Ernestine Taylor, Joyce Reeves, Marlon Taylor and Mrs. Roger Reeves. The many gifts were opened by Misses Ruth Wright and Catherine Auld while Miss Kathleen MacCallum read the accompanying verses. The gifts were passed to the bride and groom by Miss Wanda Francis and arranged on the table by Miss Jennie Reeves. The groom in his usual jovial manner thanked one and all for the many beautiful gifts. All joined in singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the ladies of the district. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, music by Walter Reeves, Donald Profit, Frank Burgess, and Edward Ferry.

CLOTHING EXCHANGE A BOON TO MOTHERS

HALIFAX, Oct. 4 - (CP) - A Halifax woman has come up with a new twist in beating the high cost of living. Mrs. V. A. Newcomb is providing a great assistance to Halifax mothers trying to stretch the family budget around new clothing for their children. Mrs. Newcomb - a mother herself - has set up a clothing exchange, where for a small fee, she will exchange clothing one child has outgrown for larger sizes.

Since the business was opened in May, more than 1,000 children have been provided with clothing, dry-cleaned and in good condition.

Mrs. Newcomb may have to change the name of her establishment - Treasure Hunt. Several persons have phoned for assistance in locating prizes' treasure.

MISHAP ON TRACTOR

TILSTON, Man. - (CP) - Pat Cairns was wounded in the hand when a .22 rifle he was carrying on his tractor slipped to the ground and accidentally discharged. The impact of the rifle striking the ground fired his Cairns reached for it, and the bullet passed through his hand.

Immediate families and friends. Rev. Mr. MacPherson proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom. The bride was the recipient of many useful and lovely gifts. The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to the United States Upon their return a shower in honor of the bride was held at the home of Mrs. D.W. MacPherson. The best wishes of a host of friends go to them for a happy wedded life.

DINGWELL-MACKINNON WEDDING

A very pretty wedding took place in St. Peter's Bay United Church on Wednesday afternoon, August 26th, when Clara Christina, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacKinnon of Forest Hill was united in marriage to Ernest Darling, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dingwell of Souris. Rev. D. Wallace MacPherson was the officiating clergyman. Mr. Jack MacCallum very beautifully rendered the selection "I love you truly."

To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by the organist, Miss Beatrice Battersby the bride entered the church on the arms of her father who gave her in marriage. The bride looked lovely gowned in blue satin with shoulder tip veil and accessories to match. She carried a nosegay of white carnations. She was assisted by her sister, Winnie, who was dressed in Rose Canton Crepe with accessories to match. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. The groom was supported by his brother, Leith.

The church was beautifully decorated with summer flowers and the guest seats were marked with sweet peas tied in a bouquet of white ribbon. A reception was held at the groom's home in Souris for the
