Notable Fur Coat Values

"Why should a woman buy a fur coat now?" said the advertising man to the fur buyer.

"Because these coats I have here were bought when prices were away below present values; because we had choice then of the best skins in the market, because if I were buying to-day—the price would be 20 to 30 per cent higher."

"There's a bunch of good reasons" said the advertising man.

"More than that" said the fur man" I do not believe there is in P. E. I. as fine a range of fur coats as this one—I'd just like to have a chance to show how good this line is".

Officers Tribute

The following letter has been received by Mrs. Robert Robertson, Kingsboro, in connection with the death of her boy "Somewhere in France."

Oct. 15, 1916.

Dear Madam,—

Owing to the continued activity, during the past month, I have been unable to write you concerning the sacrifice of your son, Copl. Herbert Ray on the field of battle. In my experience of a good many months here. I have had very few as promising men under me. He was a national leader and his promotion the Huns always seem to get the best as they are ever in the front when the scrap is on. I am glad to say that your son suffered no pain as he was killed instantly by a bullet from a machine gun during a charge we were making on Sept. 16th last. You have the sincerest sympathy of all his comrades in your trial, but you may rest assured that your son died nobly and with his face to the foe.

Yours sincerely,
T. S. RAWLSTON, Major,
B. Coy., 60th Bat.
France.

Replace Empire By Great Brotherhood

OTTAWA, Nov. 13— The British War Office evidently does not look for an end of the war for at least another year, as orders are being placed to keep every munitions factory in Canada busy until June 30, 1917. It was announced by the Imperial Munitions Board today that the orders placed or authorized for all classes of shells will keep all munitions plants in the Dominion busy until this date.

Orders placed with some manufacturers will expire December 31st, and those with others on March 31. It is stated officially by the Munitions Board that when these dates arrive the character of the delivery by these manufacturers will be an important factor in deciding as to renewal orders.

The Board states in a memorandum issued today that all necessary raw materials to maintain the deliveries required are contracted for well ahead and particular mention is made of the very favorable position the Board is in in respect to steel supply. The present reported shortage of steel in the United States is not causing the Board any uneasiness in view of the purchase of steel the Board made last spring and summer.

The policy adopted some time ago, whereby Canadian manufacturers would supply fuses, primers, brass discs, cartridge cases and the many smaller components is now well established and supplies of this nature which came from the United States in larger quantities in the past will be obtained in Canada to a very great extent hereafter. It is stated many of the parts, heretofore, either purchased entirely or in part from the United States, will now be secured exclusively from Canada, and Canadian manufacturers are showing every disposition and bending their best energies to give the board the deliveries required to enable the board to carry out the important programme it has undertaken.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13—The Tribune this morning publishes the following:

LONDON, Nov. 13.—In modern warfare the question of casualties is the foremost problem of the rival commanders-in-chief. But all losses in an engagement must be weighed relatively, and there are as many standards as there are armies.

The battle of the Marne, one of the decisive battles of all times, set a high standard in casualties. Before the present war, which has made all past conflicts pygmean in comparison, losses were viewed in an entirely different light.

During the fiercest of the Somme fighting the casualties in one week undoubtedly exceeded the total losses in the entire Franco-Prussian war, but the allies considered the price they paid for their gains reasonable. Against their losses they balanced their territorial gains, their capture of prisoners, guns and ammunition and German casualties. On the other hand, Prince Rupprecht had to seek satisfaction in the thought that the allies' casualties exceeded his own.

If the allies had decided to push right on to the Bapaume-Peronne road in the first three weeks of the Somme offensive they probably could have done so. Nothing would have pleased the German General Staff more than to have had Sir Douglas Haig and General Foch try it. The cost of the success would have been enormous compared even with present standards.

In August there was much bloody fighting at High Wood. The British wanted it, and the Germans considered it worth a great many of their soldiers lives. Undoubtedly more British than Germans died there, but General Haig got it at a price which was not unreasonable considered in relation to its importance.

Thiepval was a fortress of immense strength; it represented the acme of German engineering skill and was valued as the British value Gibraltar. If the British had fought on in the first days of the offensive until it was in their hands, their casualty list would have been out of all proportion to Thiepval's value to them, but when they took it on September 26, it cost them fewer men than it did to carry Montauban in July. For every three casualties in the carrying of Thiepval in September they took two German prisoners.

Nuxated Iron to Make New Age of Beautiful Women and Vigorous Iron Men

SAY PHYSICIANS— QUICKLY PUTS ROSES INTO THE CHEEKS OF WOMEN AND MOST ASTONISHING YOUTHFUL POWER INTO THE VEINS OF MEN— IT OFTEN INCREASES THE STRENGTH AND ENDURANCE OF DELICATE, NERVOUS, "RUNDOWN" FOLKS 200 PER CENT IN TWO WEEKS' TIME.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY WHICH PROMISES TO MARK A NEW ERA IN MEDICAL SCIENCE.

NEW YORK, N. Y.— Since the remarkable discovery of organic iron, Nuxated Iron or "Fer Nuxate," as the French call it, has taken the country by storm. It is conservatively estimated that over five million persons daily are taking it in this country alone. Most astonishing results are reported from its use by both physicians and laymen. So much so that doctors predict that we shall soon have a new age of far more beautiful, resy-cheeked women and vigorous men.

Dr. King, an New York physician and author, when interviewed on the subject, said: "There can be no vigorous iron men without iron. Pallor means anemia. Anemia means iron deficiency. The skin of anemic men and women is pale. The flesh flabby. The muscles lack tone; the brain fags and the memory fails and often they become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melancholy. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks.

"In the most common foods of America, the starches, sugars, table, syrups, candies polished rice white bread soda crackers, biscuits, macaroni, spaghetti, taploca, sago farina, degerminated cornmeal, no longer is iron to be found. Refining processes have removed the iron of Mother Earth from these impoverished foods, and silly methods of home cookery, by throwing down the waste pipe the water in which our vegetables are cooked, are responsible for another grave iron loss.

"Therefore, if you wish to preserve your youthful vim and vigor to a ripe old age, you must supply the iron deficiency in your food by using some form or organic iron, just as you would use salt when your food has not enough salt."

Dr. Sauer, who has studied abroad in great European medical institutions, said: "As I have said a hundred times over, organic iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away patent medicines and nauseous concoctions and take simple nuxated iron, I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney, liver, heart trouble etc. The real and true cause which started their disease was nothing more nor less than a weakened condition brought on by a lack of iron in the blood.

"Not long ago a man come to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with a blood pressure of a boy of twenty and as full of vigor vim and vitality as a young man; in fact, a young man he really was, notwithstanding his age. The secret, he said, was taking iron— Nuxated Iron had filled him with renewed life. At thirty he was in bad health; at forty-six he was care worn and nearly all in. Now at fifty a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while doubling their strength and endurance and entirely rid themselves of all symptoms of dyspepsia liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this, after they had in some cases been dectoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate, or tincture of iron demanded by Mother Nature for the red coloring matter in the blood of her children is, alas! not that kind of iron. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete and prize-fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the affray; while many another has gone down in ignorance defeat simply for the lack of iron."

Dr. Schuyler C. Jacques another New York physician, said: "I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication, as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But in the case of Nuxated Iron I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising and satisfactory results. And those who wish quickly to increase their strength, power and endurance will find it a most remarkable and wonderfully effective remedy."

NOTE.— Nuxated Iron, which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians in such a great variety of cases, is not patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians both in Europe and America. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy in nearly, it is a most indigestion as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufactures have such great confidence in nuxated iron, that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron, and increase their strength 200 per cent or over in four weeks' time. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Geo. E. Hughes, Apothecaries Hall. E. A. Foster, Central Drug Store and all good druggists.
