The Rev. William Harman Van Allen, S. T. D., L. H. D., who preached at both services in St. Peter's Cathedral on Sunday, will remain in Charlottetown for some days. He is accompanied by his father, Rev. Dr. Van Allen is the well known rector of the Church of the Advent, Boston, his predecessors in which office included two who became bishops, Bishop Scoufalgate, for some time missionary bishop in Constantinople, and Bishop Grafton, of Fond du Lac. He is a leading representative of the high church school in the United States Church, and his church is well known for its full ritual. He is an interesting speaker, much in demand at congresses and elsewhere.

On Tuesday afternoon, Sept 6th the residents of North Tryon School District held a reopening to celebrate the remodeling of their school. Among those present were Rev. Wm. A. Thompson, Wilfred Boutler, school inspector, the rate payers of the district and a number of ladies. The Board of Trustees, namely, A. Lefurgey, Jas Chisholm and G. H. Callbeck were present. The last named being secretary opened the meeting with a few well-chosen remarks. He then called upon the Rev. Mr. Thompson, who addressed those present complimenting them on the beautiful room they had provided for their children to study in. He also spoke of the advantages gained in various ways by a good education and the necessity of the children and their books being agreed. He then closed his remarks by telling the children an amusing story. Mr. Boutler next spoke, referring to the great change which had been made in the school-room since his last visit and he said that it was equal to the best room he had seen in his inspectorate. He spoke of the great responsibility teachers hold in training the minds and the various dispositions they meet. Mr. Delaney, M. L. A., Geo Ives and others gave short addresses comparing the great educational advantages of the present with those of their schooldays. Much credit and thanks are due to Ives for the splendid way in which he has carried out his contract, also to J. Herbert Thomas, designer and superintendent; The Messrs Boutler Bros, who did the work, and Messrs Chisholm & Son, who furnished a beautiful desk and chair. Special mention should be made of the painting, which was done by D. Mackenzie but when "Dan" took the brush the trustees left him to do the rest and when one looks into the bright room; with its ceiling in beautiful light shades of blue the wains coating and border of hardwood; the soft wood sheathing in light harmonising colors; the beautiful hyloplate black board; the hardwood floor; the finish, such as; window caps and cornices in dark shades, one almost wishes to be a boy or girl once more and have that pleasant room to study in. A vote of thanks was tendered Rev. Mr. Thompson and Mr. Boutler for their helpful remarks. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem by the children.

The service of praise in the Cherry Valley Methodist church Sunday evening, under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society was attended by a large congregation, every seat being filled, and a great many being compelled to stand. Rev. Mr. Orman presided. The program was one of the best the congregation ever listened to, and the one regret of the audience as they left the sacred edifice was that enjoyable services are not more frequently held. The excellent program consisted of:—Solos by Mrs W. J. McEachern, Mrs Giles Jenkins, Miss Marguerite McEachern, Miss Isabel McLeod and Milton Furness. Reading, Miss Delight Jenkins; Trio, Mrs Will McEachern, Mrs Will Jenkins and Mrs Truman Jenkins. Quartette, Miss Pansy Irvine; Mrs (Dr.) Rogerson, G. and A. Ross. Sir:

If the "happy-go-lucky-slap-it-on-a press-and-let-'er-go" kind of advertising you are using is doing you some good doesn't it seem reasonable to suppose that "something different"—bright, convincing, thought-out and mailed regularly "direct" to your list will prove of much greater value.
