-There are several boys in Summerside who are evidently longing for a night or two in jail and present indications are that their longings will be gratified in the very near future. Sunday night they made the east end of the town hideous with yelling and tearing up and down the streets to the annoyance of peaceful residents. It is pretty well known what these boys are and so far punishment has been deferred out of respect to the feelings of their parents but even this will not shield them much longer. We would strongly advise them to take warning and quit. -Exc.

It must be stopped and no doubt the second offence, if there is one, will be serious. Another danger, a very grave one is, that in every gang of boys there are usually one or two very risky proposition they do is chargeable to their companions whether active participants or not. Therefore boys should not go in gangs. -Exc.
