ON SOUTHERN VISIT—Mrs. Mary MacMillan, mother of Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan of Charlottetown and sister Miss Margaret Hogan of Hope River, left recently on an extended trip via Montreal and Chicago to Wichita Falls, Texas, to visit Mrs. MacMillan's daughter, Mrs. Moulder. From Wichita they will go to Saskatoon, Sask., to visit Mrs. MacMillan's other daughter, Mrs. Charles Hynes. They expect to return sometime early in the summer.

WOOD—DINNIS NUPTIALS.—An event of more than ordinary interest was solemnized at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the evening of February 5th, 1925, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Hartman precisely at seven o'clock when Miss Lisle E. Wood, eldest daughter of M. W. and Mrs. Wood of Highland Farm became the bride of Mr. J. Goldsmith Dennis, son of J. R. and Mrs. Dennis, Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Elmer I. Goshen of this city. The young bride looked charming in a gown of pale blue silk georgette heavily embroidered with crystal beads and carried a beautiful bouquet of pale pink roses. The little flower girl Miss Annalee Fansworth in a dainty blue gown with ribbons and lace carried baskets of flowers and looked exceedingly cunning. Following the ceremony dinner was served in Mrs. Hartman's well known style, after which the bridal party left for their honeymoon through the Southern States. This couple will be greatly missed in the home community as they filled a valued place in the church choirs. The bride who is one of Charlottetown's most talented musicians, having spent two years in music at Acadia Ladies College was always ready to help when called upon to do her part. The groom is one of Charlottetown's progressive fox ranchers and needs no further introduction to our readers. The high esteem in which this couple are held was fully evidenced in the array of numerous and costly presents including silverware, cut glass, linen, money and cheques, the parents gift to the bride was a cheque for a substantial sum and a pair of beautiful silver black foxes. The Guardian joins with a host of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Dennis, Congratulations.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place at St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus, on February 11, 1925 when Ida Mae daughter of Mr. Augustus Walker of Johnston's River, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Patrick Clarkin of Ruskin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. MacDonald in presence of a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was becomingly attired in a navy blue suit with hat to match and was attended by Gertrude Smith while the groom was supported by Mr. Ryan of Ruskin. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. William Hughes, Fort Augustus, where a sumptuous dinner was served to upwards of twenty guests. After a pleasant afternoon spent in music and conversation, the party drove to the home of the groom in Ruskin, where a dainty supper awaited them. At night a large number of guests entered to do honor to the newly married couple and a very pleasant night was spent in dancing and music, after which the guests departed to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Clarkin many years of wedded bliss.—(Patriot please copy.)

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.—On the evening of Jan. 21st a large number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Wood, Highland Farm, to tender a miscellaneous shower to their daughter Miss Lisle one of the community's popular young ladies. Shortly after the friends arrived Miss Ruth Wood escorted Miss Wood to the drawing room and seated her in an arm chair which was decorated for the occasion, then Miss Myra Wood and Miss Ruth Wood who were in charge of the shower, brought in the beautiful trimmed basket overflowing with useful gifts and waited upon the young bride to be. Miss Myra Wood cutting the strings and opening the parcels while Miss Ruth Wood read the verses attached and presented her with the many beautiful and useful gifts by the numerous friends. Miss Wood in a few well chosen words thanked her friends for their thoughtfulness, after which all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow". The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent until the wee sma hours, when all went their way wishing Miss Wood many years of future happiness.

AT ROTARY.—At the Rotary Luncheon yesterday Rotarian Percy Pope was in the chair. The speaker was Rotarian J. A. Clark, who reviewed the organization and the development of Rotary in Charlottetown. The first meeting was on September 6, 1917. Of the charter members W. H. Tidmarsh, Walter S. Grant, H. M. VanBuskirk, W. Allan Stewart, may be called the original members of the club. Rotarian Grant told how the original list was arrived at. Continuing his address then Rotarian Clark spoke of the progress of International Rotary since 1917. In that year there were 340 clubs in five countries and 33,000 members. Today there are 1066 clubs in twenty eight countries and 105,000 members. The speaker then read extracts from the weekly letters that have been sent out to the members dealing with the club's activities. A resolution of sympathy to Rotarian Dunbar on the death of his sister, Mrs. Williams was passed on a standing vote. As the next monthly meeting on March 5th, occurs during Farmers' Week, there will be a special program for farmers, and the officers of the various organizations will be the guests of the club.

PERSONALS Miss Helen MacLeod, Dunstaff-ange has returned home after visiting friends in Emerald and Cra-paud. Capt. W. S. Gordon of the firm of Gordon & Co., left yesterday for Moncton. Mrs. Elizabeth MacDonald of Georgetown has arrived in the city on a visit to her son, Mr. Reuben MacDonald and Mrs. MacDonald. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Douglas who returned home yesterday afternoon.

"I'm always so proud of my snowy bed linen" —says Mrs. Experience

"When guests come, especially! My sheets and pillow cases are so snowy-white, and have that fresh, sweet smell of perfect cleanliness. "And I change them often, too, because they're really easy to wash—the way I wash them —with Sunlight Soap. "The pure Sunlight suds quickly search the dirt right out, and leave every single thread sweet and clean. Only a light rubbing may perhaps be necessary at times. Then a good rinse and everything is as spotlessly white as your heart could wish. "For clothes, dishes and general housework I always use Sunlight. Every bit of Sunlight is pure, cleansing soap, and so it is really economical—and my, how it does clean! Sunlight is so easy on the hands, too!" Lever Brothers Limited, the largest soap firm in the world, make Sunlight.
