FINANCE

By Frederick Gardner
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 26—(AP)—Shipping shares spurted to the front of the stock market today as the preceding recovery flattened out in most groups.

Canadian issues were generally steady. Fractional improvements showed for Distillers Seagram, International Nickel, Ford, Imperial Oil and Lake Shore Mines. Quebec Power lost one point to 8.

American Shipbuilding New York Shipbuilding, Bath Iron Works, International Mercantile Marine and American Hawaiian Steamship ended fractions to more than a point higher. In the curb Todd Shipyards rose 1 1-4.

Bethlehem Steel, the nation's leading shipbuilder, rallied with the shipping group from an early sell-off but was shadowed by the threat of a strike tie-up of its Lackawana, N.Y., plant. Bethlehem closed at 79 3-4, off 1-4, after having sold as low as 78 3-4.

Minor gains just about offset small losses in most issues. The Associated Press composite price of 60 stocks finished unchanged at 41.4. It had risen from 39.9 since mid-February.

Transactions amounted to 382,970 shares against 357,230 the preceding session

THE MARITIME TRUST COMPANY

In presenting the twelfth annual report on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Maritime Trust Company, President Howard P. Robinson stated: "It will be noted that in comparison with the previous year there was a growth and an increase in the Company's profits The Estates, Trusts and Agency Accounts Under Administration however, decreased under last year due to the fact that several large Estate had been distributed and wound-up. The Investments of the Company have been retained as in previous years, with the exception of a comparatively small amount in bank stocks to consist entirely of Dominion, Provincial, Provincial Guaranteed, and high-grade Municipal bonds. A Dividend of 5 per cent on the Capital Stock of the Company was paid to shareholders on March 1, 1940, and a Dividend of 2 1-2 per cent on the Capital Stock of the Company was paid on July 15, 1940, and a Dividend of 2 1-2 per cent was declared on November 15, 1940, payable on January 15, 1941, it being considered that, in view of the earning position of the Company, Dividens on the profits should be paid during the current year, and this procedure was followed whereas previously the Dividends were paid on the earnings after the same had been ascertained. The Board has maintained its policy of keeping its investments in a liquid condition, and has depended upon its income from sources strictly within the field of Trust Company operations."

The report shows a gross earning of $28,163.14, and a net profit after deducting expenses of management, rent, taxes, reserve for depreciation and Federal Income Tax, $8,266.19; total assets including cash on hand, investments, accounts receivable etc., $216,530.62: Estate, Trusts and Agency Account Funds, Investments and Properties, $2,623,594.19; total assets $2,840,-124. 81.

Tips From U. S. On Make-Overs For Overseas

OTTAWA, Feb. 26 —(CP) —Women's organizations in Canada have done wonders in making over garments for Britain's needy from the blitzkrieg but there may be some suggestions in the programs of the "Bundles for Britain" group in the United State.

A letter to Senator Cairine Wilson from the Columbus, Ohio group describes some of the make-overs effected.

FELT HATS: —Thick ones for men's slippers; thinner and bright colored for children's slippers.

MEN'S PANTS: —One pair will make one pair of shorts for a six-year-old and one pair for a two-year-old.

TUXEDO:—Pants give fine skirts for 10-year-olds and small scull cap from part between pockets. Some tuxedo jackets will make bolero or small jacket.

BLANKETS: —Best parts for baby blankets; otherwise make warm linings or interlinings for quilts.

TAILOR'S PATCHES: —Make what British call "Camouflage Blankets."

SAMPLE BOOKS: —Good for substantial quilts.

COTTON TOWELS OR UNDERWEAR: —Make eight inch double washcloths when squares are crocheted together.

SWEATERS: —Some can be unravelled and yarn washed rewound and knitted over into smaller garments or squares for afghans.

OUTING PAJAMAS OR GOWNS: —Good interlinings for making children's light weight clothing warmer.

COTTON HOUSE COATS: —Cut down into two or three dresses for children from two to six years.

LEATHER GLOVES: —Opened and sewn on flannel--make fine windbreakers.

"Bundles for Britain" has celebrated its first anniversary in New York with President Roosevelt's mother as honorary guest and president.

There now are 756 branches throughout the United States and more than 700,000 women and children are engaged in knitting. In the first year 3,00) cases and 284 bales of clothing including 1,200,000 knitted garments, and 350,000 surgical dressings were sent overseas.

Famed Baroness Shelter Queen

LONDON, Feb. 26 —(AAP) —The eldest daughter of the late Marquis Curzon of Kedleston, a baroness in her own right has a room in a swank hotel, but she doesn't sleep there much.

She's so busy in the slums, helping poor families during and after air raids, it's more convenient just to sleep at Paddy's Goose.

Dock workers call her the "Queen of the Shelters though her real name is Lady Mary Irene Ravensdale, and her father once was Viceroy of India.

Forty-five-year-old Lady Ravensdale moved to the dock district after her home was bombed early in the war.

Paddy's Goose, where she spends the nights except when there's no bombing, is a notorious public house. She spends plenty of her own money there on cocoa, tea and sandwiches for the homeless.

Twenty bombs have fallen within 50 yards of the "Goose" and the windows have been blasted out of rooms where Lady Ravensdale and her homeless friends were sleeping.

Lady Ravensdale shudders at the suggestion she is doing anything heroic. She explains: "It's just a job. After all, I've lost only a home. I know plenty who've lost whole families."

Lady Ravensdale knows hundreds of dock people by their first names. On a trip with her one sees she's just like one of them. She is never patronizing and never puts on a social worker air. Her food is the food she distributes among others. She is pretty, but she dresses simply.

When the poor complain about shelter conditions, she gets things done, because she knows where to go for remedial action.

U. S. Senate Ends eighth Day of debate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 —(AP)— As the United States Senate went through its eighth day of tense debate on the lease-lend bill today, the measure's advocates asserted it was the best way to keep America at peace, and Senator Burton Wheeler (Dem.-Mont.) hotly replied that a member of the British House of Commons had predicted the United States would enter the war soon.

The unnamed M. P. had said, Wheeler claimed, that the United States entry into the struggle would probably be "by way of the Orient." The Montanan added that he would no be "surprised any morning to learn that American troops had been sent to Singapore." Britain's far eastern bastion.

To back his statements, he said he could submit to the Senate later a pamphlet written by a member of the British House of Commons.

WORSE THAN WAR

Front line soldier: "If you don't mind, sir, I'd rather postpone my leave for a bit. I remember going about this time during the last war an' I dropped in for ten days' spring-cleaning."

One performance of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony by the New York Philharmonic orchestra costs about $300.

THEIR SON

"Our son comes home on leave, tonight."
And Father's voice is proud,
As he stands on the station platform
Not seeing the noisy crowd.

And Mother's heart is filled with love,
Her eyes with a tender light,
For this is their eldest son
Who is coming home tonight.

It is scarce six months since he went away,
And oh, they have missed him so,
His merry whittle, his jolly laugh,
It seems so long ago . . . .

But now he is here beside them,
Handsome and brave and true,
And Father and Mother see no one
Save this lad in the airforce blue.

No matter what the future holds,
Tonight they shall not grieve,
Their hearts are filled with happiness
For their son is home on leave.
