KRYPTOK

Kryptok glasses give to the eyes the natural eyesight of youth—enables you to see both near and far objects with equal-keen vision. Yet in appearance they are just like single vision glasses. That is why they are universally known as "the invisible bifocals." Do you fuss with two pairs of glasses—one pair for near vision, the other pair for far vision? If you do—you need KRYPTOK glasses.

RECEPTION FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS.

Although the weather and roads were most unfavorable, the Uigg Hall was crowded on Saturday evening, when the returned soldiers from the Uigg and Lyndale School districts were given a public reception by their friends. Dr. McEwen acted as chairman and an interesting program consisting of choruses, readings and speeches was greatly enjoyed. Chorus by members of the Orwell choir were rendered in the usual acceptable way. A reading by Miss Toombs and a speech and well read appropriate poems by the resourceful entertainer Mr. Milton Furness deserve special mention.

Pleasant impromptu speeches complimentary to the returned heroes, and expressing gratitude for the return of so many were made by Messrs J.S. Martin, M.L.A., Mr. W.D. Ross, and A.A. McLeod.

The address of welcome was read by D.A. McPherson and at the close the Miss Florence McPherson on behalf of the friends presented a silver ring to each soldier.

Mr. H.S. McLeod replied in behalf of the soldiers and proved himself as capable and pleasing a speaker, as he was a brave and loyal soldier.

The ladies whose culinary skill is unsurpassed served a supper which was bountiful and delicious. The National Anthem was sung at the close and thus a pleasant evening ended. Mr. J.W. Martin was too ill to be present and J.J. McDonald was unavoidably absent, committees were appointed to convey a ring to each of them later.

The address follows:— Messrs Edward Hackett, H.S. McLeod, J.M. McDonald, Jas. McDonald, Murchison, J.J. McDonald, J.A. McPherson, J.W. Martin, Dear Friends.
