GEN. KUROPATKIN REPORTS ADVANCE

The Manchurian Towns Occupied and Some Japanese Pursued Southward—A Counter Attack of the Japs Repulsed—Russians Occupy an Important Defile.

St. PETERSBURG, 27.—(Special).—Kuropatkin, under date of the twenty-fifth reports: "The advance has commenced of our right flank against the enemy.

"We have occupied Khatlotosa and Kheigoutaya. No details have been received of our losses.

"Our troops occupied Khatlotosa without firing, the Japanese being bayoneted. Kheigoutaya was bravely defended but we finally occupied it at ten o'clock at night and our cavalry pursued two regiments of Japanese Dragoons which fled southward.

"On our left flank a detachment repulsed the Japanese and occupied the defile between Khandiansan and Expan-san and other detachments sent against the enemy's flank forced the Japanese to retire."

St. PETERSBURG, Jan. 28.—(Special).—Kuropatkin further reports that on Thursday after a desperate fight the Russian troops occupied the village of Sandepas which had been strongly fortified by the Japanese.

Military experts here believe that a general engagement with artillery is now in progress along the whole front, though they cannot see that a frontal attack by either army can successfully be made.

COUNTESS GREY.

THE NEW MISTRESS OF RIDEAU HALL

With all the grace and charm of gentle and lovable nature, her Excellency the Countess Grey is rapidly winning her way into the hearts of the people of Ottawa.

Her manner has the winning sympathy and unaffected graciousness of the ideal English gentlewoman—that natural charm which manifests itself in tactful and thoughtful kindness.

Lady Grey has a very happy nature. She is absolutely unaffected, simple and natural, is a kind and clever companion, is intensely sympathetic and tactful, and has a keen sense of humor.

Of a family noted for artistic genius, she herself is an artist of no mean ability. Mrs. Holford, her mother, who was a Miss Lindsay, was an extremely clever artist, and was as well noted for her great personal charm and sympathy.

Much of Mrs. Holford's artistic skill has descended upon her youngest daughter, whose talent in that direction has been well cultivated. She draws and sketches well, and has made some excellent copies of the old masters.

She has brought with her some beautiful old family portraits, and in the drawing-room there is a fine study of the Lady Evelyn, at the age of five years, done in colors by Ellis Roberts.

Her Excellency also emanates beautifully, a talent which she utilizes in the making of pretty bits of jewellery. A dainty butterfly, which the Lady Sybil Grey sometimes wears, is a specimen of her talent in this art.

Her greatest hobby, however, is gardening, and the Howick gardens are famed all over the kingdom for the beauty of their herbageous borderings and their brilliant masses of color.

With her many other accomplishments, her Excellency is also an excellent sick nurse. During the illness of the servant who died at Rideau Hall the other day, Lady Grey took a deep personal interest in the case, and herself superintended the nursing, having frequent conferences with the trained nurses in attendance, and being kept constantly informed of the state of the patient.

She has excellent business ability, and takes a deep interest in charitable organizations. Already she has become Honorary President of the Victorian Order of Nurses, and of the Ottawa Maternity Hospital Board. Yet the present mistress of Rideau Hall, like her predecessor, exercises a personal oversight over the affairs of the household, and thinks no detail unworthy of her care and attention.

Lady Grey has a very happy nature. She is absolutely unaffected, simple and natural, is a kind and clever companion, is intensely sympathetic and tactful, and has a keen sense of humor.

Her Excellency had an interesting, or rather, exciting, experience when she and her daughter, the Lady Victoria, were with Lord Grey in South Africa during the Matabele rebellion. Lord Grey was then Administrator of Rhodesia, and his wife and daughter remained with him during all the trouble, going with him as far as Bulawayo, to Cecil Rhodes' camp, and being present at several indabas, or conferences, between Rhodes and the Matabeles.

This fearlessness characterizes the whole family, as does also a remarkable physical energy, which is evidenced by their keen enthusiasm for all out-door sports, and also in social entertainments.

Lady Sybil and Lady Evelyn Grey are both delightful girls, charmingly simple and natural, always bright, and always taking the kindest view of everything, and giving everyone credit for the best possible motives.

It is probable that the entertainments at Rideau Hall during the present regime of the former Governors-General, and with so charming a family as entertainers, the functions are sure to be delightful.

AS A CONValesCENT FOOD. Mr. Wyman N. Thomas, Omaha, Addington Co., Ont., writes: "My wife had congestion of the lungs along with other troubles, and became very weak and run down. By the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food she was made as strong and well as ever. Of course I had a doctor, but she was weak, and it was Dr. Chase's Nerve Food which built her up."

POLICE OFFICER FOUND TROUBLE

Insisted on Searching a Maternity Hospital Without a Warrant and May be Dismissed.

MONTREAL, Jan. 27.—(Special).—Constable Lambert is in trouble. He was searching for a girl wanted in a seduction case and today went to the Maternity Hospital in spite of declarations from the attendants that the girl was not in the Hospital.

Lambert insisted upon entering every ward and private room. He had no search warrant and although ordered out refused to go.

The governors of the Hospital, who are among the most prominent Montreal citizens, have demanded from the Attorney General that Lambert be immediately dismissed.

THE WEATHER THE PROBABILITIES. TORONTO, Jan. 28.—(Special).—Strong breezes to moderate gales, southerly to westerly, light snowfalls.

Making Four Goals in Almost a Minute—Hard Fought Game, Desperately Contested, for three Ten Minute Periods over time—Best Game Ever Played Here the Opinion of Many.

In a magnificently contested game, fast from start to finish and lasting till almost midnight, before the deciding goals were scored the Abegweits last night in a whirlwind finish defeated the Victorias by a score of five to one.

When it is stated that the teams played for two full periods of thirty minutes and each only scored one goal and that almost thirty minutes of extra time culminated in a sensational close for the Abegweits who scored four times in less than a minute, the sensational and hair raising nature of the game to the hockey enthusiast may be seen in a moment.

Never for a moment from start to finish did the pace slacken and it was only during the delays for broken skates and injured men that the spectators were relieved from the general suspense.

The game was late in starting but this was owing to the inability of the previously chosen referee H. M. Baker to reach the city the train having been delayed by the snow. Harry McKee took his place and performed his duty impartially.

The teams were the same as in the previous match, where the Victorias won by a score of 3 to 0, with the exception of Cushing who replaced Sullivan on the Abegweit forward line.

Many of his stops were phenomenal. The same may be said of Rattenbury for the Victorias and indeed the entire defence of the latter was almost stonewall.

Lightner, the Abegweit point and Toly, McMILLAN, the cover, did admirable work and the rushes down the ice by the latter was a prominent feature of the game.

Among the forwards Gregory and Cushing were conspicuous but the latter did not quite live up to his reputation as the fastest Island hockeyist. It was only a temporary off night however.

Hughes, Gormley, and Doyle for the Abegweits and Pound Rice and McLeod also did themselves credit. Doyle especially showed a great improvement over last game.

The Victoria forwards were superior in combination work but their playing was offset by their opponents who usually were able to break the combination play.

A gretable feature of the game was the ill feeling frequently manifested by opposing players. On several occasions this Upper Canadian feature, which has on occasion ended in the police court, was very palpable and was punished by the officers being sent to the promenade for short periods. In this matter the referee was entirely too lax and many glaring instances of hacking, tripping and cross checking not to speak of more gross violations of hockey law were allowed to pass unnoticed. If hockey here is not to degenerate into such exhibitions as were given for the first time here last night those who referee will have to act with more severity than in the past and severely penalize such infractions of the rules. In last night's game the majority of the contestants were clean in their play but the actions of a few others were entirely at variance with the spirit of clean and gentlemanly sport.

The second game was not finished till nearly one o'clock. It resulted in a walk over for the Abegweits. The score was 7 to 0. The referee was Charles McQuillan who performed his work impartially and well.

From The Promenade. The Abegweits appeared last night in handsome new uniforms. The body of the sweater was black with blue collar and cuffs. This was decked with a wide blue sash, initialed in well worked silk lettering with "A. C. A. C." The Abbie Crest occupied a conspicuous place.

The Abegweits' senior team enjoyed an oyster supper after the game at Armour's restaurant. Gormley's shots on goal from all parts of the rink were like cannon balls.

Charlotteville's oldest hockeyist says he has never seen a faster or a more scientific game played there. The teams now tie for the trophy. A play off is necessary but this may not take place till after the Maritime Tour of the Abegweits.

Many small boys watched the game from roosts in the rafters. Broken skates, injured men and lost puck made many delays. The Abegweits seem to have suffered most as a number of the players are badly disfigured.

The services of Police Officer Walker were only called in requisition to restore order among the players once during the game. The referee at times also did good police service when players became entangled.

The Umpires John Collings and Thomas Howatt met with universal praise for impartial decisions. Cushing showed all his old time skill in effectually blocking his opponents' lifts. The following was the line up:

Other delayed trains also arrived, the second one bringing Mr. and Mrs. John Collins and Angus A. McLean, M. P., returning to Charlottetown. They went to Pictou today.

Two very heavy snow-drifts between St. John and McAdam were the cause of the delay to the trains but the line is now clear.

The Intercolonial from St. John to Halifax was cleared on Thursday night. Warnings have been issued along the Atlantic coast for another storm.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient, disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectually cleans and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.
