CROP REPORT

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 4 — Weather over the grain growing region has varied from extremely warm to heavy rains with some local hail. All grains however have progressed well. Cutting of barley and early wheat has commenced and most rye fields are now in stock according to the weekly crop report of the Department of Agriculture of the Canadian National Railways.

The first carload of new barley was threshed and shipped from Letellier on July 31st. Wheat cutting will be general in the more southerly districts within the next week or so, but in the north it will be a good three weeks before harvest will be in full swing. Some districts report moisture scarce while others have sufficient moisture to insure the complete heading and filling of crops. Some damage from sawfly is noted but no serious infestations are yet reported.

Draftees "Go Active"

HALIFAX, Aug. 3 — (CP) — Nearly 900 men called up for service with Canada's Home Defence Army have gone "active" in Military District No. 6 since the first of the year, Lieut.-Col. G. R. Saunders, District Recruiting Officer, said today. That the invasion spurred active army recruiting among N. R. M. A. personnel is indicated in Col. Saunders' report which shows 275 in June and 193 in July stepped out of Home Defence Army ranks for active service.

Most of the men were called up in other districts and were training in M. D. 2.

STUFFED FISH

As a change from fried fish, try stuffing and baking the fish instead. Or perhaps you might like to bake fish fillets in milk. Try broiling fish steaks, basting once or twice with melted margarine to which lemon juice and a little minced onions has been added.

THE GLORIA

On July 5th a large number of Boy Scouts from various parts of the province assembled at Camp Buchan for their annual camp. These Scouts represented the following groups: 1st Charlottetown Troop; 1st Summerside Troop; 1st Kensington Troop; 1st Freetown Troop; 2nd Summerside Troop; 3rd Summerside Troop; 6th Charlottetown Troop; 9th Charlottetown Troop.

This year the camp was under the capable leadership of W. J. Harper, Field Commissioner for the Boy Scouts of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. Other leaders at the camp included H. J. Pineau, Rev. J. A. McGowen, F. J. Costello, E. J. Trainor, L. A. MacDonald.

After having arrived at camp the Scouts were soon busy as little beavers, putting up their tents and making gadgets and doing one thing or another in order to make themselves as comfortable as possible in their new surroundings.

The weather for the camp this year was excellent and the program that was planned for each day went off very smoothly.

The tent sites were in very good shape this year and the boys showed very good Scout spirit all through the camp.

The competition among the various patrols in camp was very close. The Fox Patrol under the leadership of James Gauthier was very successful in winning the competition prize for the whole camp from the other patrols by a majority of seven points.

A very successful field day was held this year. Races and contests of all description were run off and many of the Scouts were lucky enough to win prizes for themselves in the different races and contests. A special attraction on field day was the chariot race in which the Owl Patrol under its Patrol Leader, James Saunders, came first place.

At camp the religious exercises of both the Roman Catholic and Protestant Scouts were well looked after by Rev. Charles McCarthy and Rev. J. A. McGowen respectively.

The council-fires, which were held nightly and which attracted large crowds of people from the surrounding countryside, were very good indeed. This year many new songs, plays, skits, and stunts were introduced at the council-fires and all the old ones were revived. A new play was introduced this year by that famous play-writer and producer, Stillitti Costello. The name of this year's new stage hit was "Murder At The Snodgrass Home." Other very enjoyable numbers that were put on at the council-fires were George Saunders' sweet singing Kier Guindon's fast dancing, Mike Dale's recitations, Harry Pineau's band selections and very many others.

Many people from various parts of the Island visited the Scout camp this year. Included among the visitors were R. S. P. Jardine, K. M. Martin, E. C. Johnson, Rev. S. J. Davies, J. R. Burnett, F. A. Driscoll These men are all members of the Provincial Boy Scout Council and are very much interested in scouting

During the camp the Scouts received very welcome gifts of ice cream, candy, plums, and gum from R. S. P. Jardine, President of the Boy Scouts Association on P. E. I., Albert Zakem, and F. N. Kays.

To these people we want to extend our heartfelt thanks for all their kindness.

During the camp there were many tests passed. A report of these tests passed at camp will appear in this paper one week from today.

Good Scouting to you all.

THE ROVER.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

WITH FORWARD FACE

Let me but live my life from year-to-year
With forward face and unreluctant soul;
Not hurrying to nor turning from the goal,
Not mourning for the things that disappear
In the dim past, nor holding back in fear
From what the future veils; but with a whole
And happy heart that pays its toll
To Youth and Age, and travels on with cheer.

—Henry Van Dyke.

YOUTH A STATE OF MIND
(Author Unknown)

It is not a matter of ripe cheeks, red lips and supple knees; it is a temper of the will, a quality of the imagination, a vigor of the emotions; it is a freshness of the deep springs of life.

Youth means a temperamental predominance of courage over timidity, of the appetite of adventure over the love of ease. This often exists in a man of fifty more than in a boy of twenty.

Nobody grows old by merely living a number of years; people grow old only by deserting their ideals. Years wrinkle the skin, but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul. Worry, doubt, self-distrust, fear and despair - - - these are the long, long years that bow the head and turn the growing spirit back to dust.

Whether seventy or sixteen, there is in every being's heart the love of wonder, the sweet amazement at the stars and the star-like things and thoughts, the undaunted challenge of events, the unfailing child-like appetite for what next, and the joy and the game of life.

You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt; as young as your self-confidence, as old as your fear; as young as your hope, as old as your despair.

In the central place of your heart there is a wireless station; so long as it received messages of beauty, hope, cheer, courage, grandeur and power from the earth, from men and from the Infinite, so long are you young.

When the wires are all down and the central place of your heart is covered with the snows of pessimism and the ice of cynicism, then you are grown old indeed, and may God have mercy on your soul.

From the Address of the Council of Bishops to the Second General Conference of the Methodist Church, Kansas City, Missouri, April 27, 1944:—

Alcohol is a narcotic poison injurious to man.

Traffic in it always has been allied with vice, poverty, and crime. In politics it has been a corrupting and debasing influence.

It stands as a barrier across the pathway of social progress.

It has been the relentless foe of the home, taking its fearful toll of the happiness of women and children.

It never has been willing to live within the laws established for its regulation.

Economically the evil of drink is an incubus and a parasite on legitimate trade.

Physically its results are disastrous.

Industrially, it is destructive of skill and efficiency.

Socially, it is a prolific source of poverty, unemployment, and crime.

Spiritually, it is the enemy of all that is good.

TO BETRAY THE HUMAN FAMILY

If it could be shown that such revenues (liquor) paid all the expenses of the government, it would remain a tragic spectacle for a Christian civilization to consent to derive its revenues from the vices of the people. For the church to come to any sort of terms with the beverage liquor traffic is to betray the human family.

VALUABLE RESULT

I believe that this war, with the immeasurable evil it has brought in its train, has done one good thing for us. It has restored our moral purpose, our belief in ourselves. We have learned, I hope, that peace is something that must be won and worked for and paid for. We have learned that past heroism is only valuable if linked to present courage, that ideas disregard frontiers, that unemployment or war in one country brings unemployment or war in others, that peace requires endurance, sacrifice, and vigilance as much as war. Even after the victory there can be no easy road from war to peace.—Anthony Eden, British Foreign Secretary.

A SEAMAN'S PSALM

The following 23rd Psalm by Captain J. Rogers, of the Merchant Marine, was in the Red Shield:
The Lord is my Pilot; I shall not drift.
He lighteth me across the dark waters.
He steereth me in the deep channels.
He keepeth my log.
He guideth me by the Star of Holiness for His Name's sake.
Yea, though I sail 'mid the thunders and tempests of life,
I shall dread no danger, for Thou art with me.
Thy love and Thy care, they shelter me.
Thou preparest a harbor before me in the Homeland of Eternity.
Thou annointest the waves with oil, so that my ship rideth calmly.
Surely sunlight and starlight shall favor me on the voyage I take, and I will rest in the Port of My God, Forever.
