This is the same company that played Halifax, Moncton, St. John and broke all records for the "Spoken Drama" at His Majesty's Theatre, Montreal last season. Mr. Roddy is making a Summer tour, prior to opening in the fall in Montreal, hence the popular Summer prices of 50c, 80c, $1.10. A rare treat is in store for local playgoers and a welcome relief from the "Movies."

MISS KATIE B. MACINTYRE

Miss Katie B. MacIntyre, of Lorne Valley, died on Sunday morning, July 7. She had been quite ill for some months. Funeral services were held from her late home and from the Lorne Valley Presbyterian Church. They were conducted by the Rev. Quincy

A. McDowell. The large number attending was an evidence of the esteem in which the deceased was held. Miss MacIntyre is survived by three brothers, Alexander MacIntyre, of Lorne Valley; Daniel MacIntyre, of Martinville and Peter MacIntyre, of Lorne Valley, and by one nephew, Francis, also of Lorne Valley. -SERIOUSLY INJURED-Mr. Ludlow Sharp, of Summerside, met with a serious accident and in consequence is in the Prince County Hospital suffering from injuries to his neck and back. He was driving home from taking his cows to the pasture and was coming up Notre Dame Street. As he was about abreast of the jail, the jailor's dog and another canine jumped at him from the side of his wagon. Mr. Sharp was standing on the step of the wagon at the time and went to throw some stones at the dogs to drive them off, when he fell between the step and the wheel. He was dragged some distance causing serious injury. He was taken to the Prince County Hospital and is now resting comfortably. S.

-SENTENCED TO ONE MONTH IN JAIL-The adjourned case of John Fitzpatrick came up in the Police Court at Summerside before Stipendiary Wyatt on Thursday morning. The prisoner was arrested after returning to the island in connection with the hold up of a citizen, Mr. Jamieson, on the street at Summerside as he was on his way home at night. His confederate in the affair, Wadman, is now a prisoner under sentence in the Prince County Jail and as his evidence was therefore not available the charge against Fitzpatrick was reduced to one of common assault, of which he was found guilty and sentenced to one month's imprisonment with the option of a fine. Also on the same morning in the same Court a drunk was fined $10 and costs. He paid up. S.

-SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. LAURIE ENMAN-The sudden death at ten o'clock on Friday morning of Mrs. Laurie Enman at the home of her sister, Miss Cecelia Burrows, Summerside, came as a great shock to her relatives and friends. The deceased had been in falling health for some time and came home to her native town a short time ago in the hope that the change would be a benefit to her, but although at times somewhat better, her end came suddenly at the last. The late Mrs. Enman, before her marriage, was Miss Edna Burrows and was born in Summerside, where she lived until her marriage, and since then she has resided in the west, where her husband was on the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Mrs. Enman will be very kindly remembered by a host of girlhood friends at Summerside where she was known and greatly respected for her home loving qualities and cheerful disposition. She was a life long member of the Baptist Church at Summerside, having retained her membership during her life in the west. She leaves to mourn a devoted husband and three children, Margaret, Constance, and Billie; also the following brothers and sisters:-Mr. Arthur Burrows and Mr. Ashew Burrows of Kansas City; Mrs. Bruce Howatt, of Tryon, and Misses Constance, Cecelia, Amy, and Mr. Ewart; at home, to all of whom the deep sympathy of the community is extended. The regular monthly meeting of the Little Helpers Mission Band of Sea View, which was held at Mrs. Collin Donald, Friday afternoon July 5th was of especial nature. Rev. G. T. Spriggs of Kensington and the members of the W. M. auxiliary being in attendance. After the business routine was finished solos were given by Misses Pauline Coulson and Louise MacKay. Readings by Misses Marion MacLean and Jean MacKay. A chorus by the Mission Band and an address by Rev. Mr. Spriggs. An interesting feature of the programme was the presentation of a life membership certificate to Mr. Spriggs which was fittingly acknowledged. The following is the address: Sea View, P. E. I. July 5, 1929

Rev. G. T. Spriggs. Dear Sir: We, the members of the Little Helpers Mission Band of Darnley and Sea View have felt for a long time that we would like to express to you our thanks and appreciation for the help you have been to us in many ways. We realize that you are always a busy man, yet again and again you have come to our public gatherings and had always a kindly word of encouragement for us. It must have meant a great sacrifice to you to come so far in all kinds of roads. We would therefore ask you to accept this life membership certificate with the best of wishes of one and all of our members in acknowledgement of past kindnesses. This is the highest honor we as a band can confer on any one and we trust you will continue your good work among us as you have done in the past.

Signed on behalf of the members of The Little Helpers Mission Band. Miss Marion MacLean, New London, is spending some time with friends in Sea View and Baltic.
