BLACK & CO. SUNNYSIDE

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

A jolly gathering of friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Macdonald, of Orwell Cove, recently to give them a "housewarming" in their pretty new home just recently occupied. A jolly evening was spent in music and dancing, everyone having a real good time. The following address accompanied by a suitable gift was presented to the host and hostess after which many wishes for future years of good health and happiness. During the evening a toothsome lunch was enjoyed by the visitors. To H. A. Mrs. Macdonald and family. For days, nay weeks, we have been waiting for this night. The night is here—we are here. We are here to help you give this your new home the home-feeling. We are here to show you in some way the esteem in which you are held by us all. We are here, we may as well confess it, to enjoy ourselves. The point—it is needless for us to state what point. Should anyone be so unfortunate as not to know, he suffers sufficiently as with the "what other point is there" expression he receives the reply "Why Hector The Points." Well, this point has always been noted for its hospitality. Whatever the hour, friend or stranger, is thrice welcome to its doors. The atmosphere at all times is "Help yourself and make yourself at home." For seventeen years as host and hostess, you have extended the glad hand to all. Throughout these years you have been ever-ready to help neighbor, friend or stranger. This year you have taken upon yourselves new duties, new responsibilities. That you will be successful goes without saying.

Finally, we ask you, on behalf of the people of this and the surrounding districts, to accept this gift as a mark of the regard with which you are held by your many friends, and we trust that prosperity and good health attend you and yours. Signed on behalf of your friends, J. M. Donald, J. M. Gillis, J. A. McLeod.
