CORNWALL CIRCUIT.—Arrangements for services on the Cornwall circuit for Sunday, January 5th are: Cornwall morning and evening, Fred N. Sanden of Mt. Allison University conducting the services. Morning, North Wiltshire; afternoon, Kingston, and evening at Hampton, Rev. George Orman preaching.

GOOD SERVICES.—Large congregations gathered on Sunday, Dec. 29th at the Methodist Church, Cornwall, morning and evening, to hear Alfred Thorpe of Mount Allison University. His services were greatly appreciated, the morning text being Mark 7-24 and the evening 1 Cor. 14-8. Mr. Thorpe is also a singer of considerable ability. He sang on the previous Sunday evening and is expected to do so Sunday evening next, Jan. 5th. Considerable interest was also imparted to the evening service on Sunday 29th, by the presence on the platform and participation in the singing by a number of the dear young people who took part in the concert on Monday, Dec. 23. At this concert a very pleasing quartette was given entitled "From all that dwell below the Skies" and also Matheson's "O Love that will not let me go," both of which were thoroughly appreciated. Regrettably the name in this program of Mrs. Wm. Howard was misprinted, her singing being a feature of the quartette.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.—The closing exercises of Cross Road's school, Lot 48, took place on Tuesday afternoon last and was conducted by the teacher, in the presence of a number of interested visitors. The manner in which the pupils in the various classes, from the primary class to that of Mathematics, responded to their questioning showed that they were well taught. After the exam a well prepared program consisting of readings, recitations and dialogues was delivered, much to the enjoyment of those present. The Christmas tree was then broken into. This part of the entertainment was of much amusement to the little ones and consisted of bags of candy, presents from the teacher to each of the scholars and presents from the scholars to their teacher. The meeting closed with "God Save the King." Much credit is due to H. D. Balderston, the young and promising teacher, for his effort in making the entertainment so successful and to the mothers for their presence and interest, also to S. R. and Mrs. Lane for the basket of fruit.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The semi-annual examination of Springfield School took place on Friday, Dec. 20th. A large number of parents and others interested in education were in attendance. The school-rooms were beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion. The various classes were thoroughly examined by Benj. Haslam, G. L. McKenzie and others. The pupils by their prompt replies to the most difficult questions gave ample evidence of the careful training received under the present management of Miss Luella Beairto, who has already proved herself to be a capable and efficient teacher. At the conclusion of the examination the visitors were entertained with a program which was well rendered, and reflects much credit to both teacher and pupils. All present were treated by the teacher to a beautiful supply of choice confectionery, after which Angus Mathieson was appointed chairman and short but appropriate speeches were given by Benj. Haslam, G. L. Haslam, M. Lamb, P. Sinclair, J. E. Haslam and others, all speaking in glowing terms of the rapid progress which was perceptible in all branches of the work. A vote of thanks was then tendered the teacher for the generous treat, who, in a few well chosen words, made a suitable reply. The meeting was then brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

DR. PRINGLE A CANDIDATE.—In the last issue of the Canadian Commonwealth, a strong editorial appeared suggesting that the Rev. Dr. Pringle, Sydney, well known in this Province, upon his return from the west be selected as a candidate for the office of mayor of Sydney. The article pointed out the advantages the city would obtain by having such a strong temperance worker at the head of the council.

DEATH IN CALIFORNIA.—The Guardian regrets to learn of the death of Margaret A. Cantilo, formerly of Glenfanning, P. E. I. The deceased was a trained nurse and had resided in California for the past twenty years, having taken a prominent part in relief work during the earthquake there a few years ago. She leaves to mourn her mother Mrs. John S. Cantilo and several brothers including D. P. Cantilo, Glenfanning and Mrs. Catherine Lamont, formerly of Montague, but now of Winnipeg, Manitoba.

TALENTED SINGER.—During his visit to his parents Prof and Mrs. Earle, Charlottetown, Charles Earle, whose magnificent voice and pleasing manner have won for him a wide circle of friends, had a very busy time giving pleasure to many people. Besides singing in St. James and First Methodist Churches on Sunday, Dec. 29th, as reported, he also delighted the congregation of the Baptist Church with a choice solo, his sister Miss Earle being the talented organist.

WORDS OF PRAISE.—Rev. Dr. Roche, writing to the Toronto Catholic Register, from Charlottetown, according to a St. John exchange, says he met many priests returning from the consecration of Bishop LeBlanc in St. John, and adds: "There appeared to be a great deal of warm feeling for the new Bishop. He is a gentle, sensible, kindly prelate, by all accounts, and everyone has a good word to say of him. Father Savage, of Moncton, gave him an automobile last week. The reputation that that city was truly a notable affair, and St. John mustered in great shape to do him honor. St. John is all fussed up these days. It turned out when its former Bishop left for the West. It turned out when the new Bishop arrived. The arrival of His Excellency (the Apostolic Delegate) on Monday last was the occasion for another demonstration; but the people seem to enjoy it."—A large number of the Catholic clergy from this province attended the consecration.
