IN MEMORIAM

MR. HARRY E. GILL
The death of Harry E. Gill, lifelong resident of Picton, who formerly prominent in athletic circles, occurred at his home, Old Road, at 4 o'clock this morning. He had been in ill health for the past three years, and a change for the worse took place about two weeks ago, since when he gradually weakened.
Mr. Gill was born 59 years ago at Picton, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Gill of Picton. He learned the trade of carpenter at Barry's Mill, Haliburton, and from there went to D. Fullerton & Son, Limited, with whom he worked for the past thirty years, until forced by ill health to give up work about two years ago. Mr. Gill was noted as a good workman, and he will be missed by a host of friends, his qualities of character, and his genial and friendly nature. He was a noted athlete in his younger days, and played on the Picton football team in days when the game flourished locally. He also competed in shot and hammer throws and in walking races.
Besides his wife who cared for him tenderly during his long illness, he is survived by two daughters and two sons: Dorothy, R. N. of the staff of the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax; Jean, at home; Ernest, of the Dominion Stores, Moncton, N.B.; and William L. Gill, both of Picton; and one sister, Mrs. Rosemond Murray, of Clonville, N.B.
The funeral will be held from his residence, Old Road, on Saturday at 2 p.m., with Rev. Gerald Rogers of Picton, United Church officiating. Interment will be made in Haliburton cemetery.

Almost Crippled With Rheumatism

Improved Greatly When He Tried Kruschen

There has just come to our notice a case of grand relief from severe rheumatic pains. The seriousness of the man's condition and the step that led to his ultimate recovery, are described in the following letter:

"For several years I suffered from rheumatism. I had all my teeth out, and still suffered. A year ago I lay in hospital for fourteen weeks, almost crippled. When I got home I continued to take medicine, but began to go down again. A friend of mine asked me to try Kruschen Salts, and I am very pleased to be able to say I have been on the mend ever since."

Two of the salts in Kruschen are the most effective solvents of uric acid known to medical science. They swiftly dull the sharp edges of the crystals—the cause of pain and stiffness—and often convert them into a harmless solution, which is then expelled through the natural channels.

FIGHT LOOMS OVER PROPOSED TRIP TO TORONTO ARMS PLANT

OTTAWA, March 14.—(C.P.)—The fight in the Public Accounts Committee over a proposed trip by the 50-man committee to Toronto to inspect the John Inglis Co. plant, will be continued in the House of Commons tomorrow when opposition will be raised against the committee report of Chairman W. A. Fraser (Lib. Northumberland).

Mr. Fraser today failed to obtain unanimous concurrence of the House in his report. The issue will be raised again tomorrow, requisite notice having been given.

Hon. H. A. Stewart (Con. Leeds) opposed the motion of concurrence and an amendment will be proposed by Grant MacNeill (C.C.F., Vancouver North) to strike from the report the section recommending the trip to Toronto.

That amendment is expected to precipitate a resumption of the warm debate in the committee which preceded a 27-11 vote on the resolution proposing the trip.

MOLLY KOOL WANTS MASTER'S CERTIFICATE

YARMOUTH, N. S., March 14.—Molly Kool, 28, has ambitions. Already holder of a mate's ticket for coastal sailing, she is attending a navigation school here for her Master's certificate.

Her father, Paul Kool, the schooner runs between Saint John, N.B., and Alma.

Molly has been going to sea for four years now and can swab a deck or make fast a line with the best of them. Various instructors have said she is one of the best of sailors.

She attends the school attired in regulation sailor pants and jacket with brass buttons and a white cap.

Molly considered one of the best navigators on the Bay of Fundy, but her ambition right now is to obtain a master's certificate.

SMILES FAINTLY

The President smiled faintly as Meisner, followed by other officials and the military commander of Berlin, Ernst Steier, extended greetings.

Hacha and his party then were driven directly to Hitler's Chancellery.

He arrived there for a midnight conference, accompanied by Chvalatkovsky and the Czechoslovak Minister to Berlin, Vojtech Mastny.

The German Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop and the German Air Minister, Marshall Hermann Wilhelm Goerring, were reported to be present.

As they conferred, German troops were reported moving eastward through Slovakia toward Carpatho-Ukraine from Moravia-Ostava, in a move that might be expected to block possible Polish participation in occupation of that eastern province.

ROMANIA TO ACT?

(In Warsaw, Poland, rumors spread after a series of diplomatic conferences there that Rumania was preparing to occupy the eastern part of that province for herself.)

(With Hungarian troops already half-way across Carpatho-Ukraine, Czech troops evacuating westward across Slovakia and Poland forces on the northern Carpatho-Ukraine border the area appeared to be a growing danger spot.)

The proclamation of an independent Carpatho-Ukraine in eastern Czechoslovakia by Premier Augustin Volosin appeared to be a slight balk in Hungary's plans to seize that remnant of the country which her troops were occupying.

HOLMAN'S SUMMERSIDE

HITLER HOLDS

These detachments included artillery and cavalry. As Hacha arrived, informed sources said that as a result of his capitulation to German wishes, Hitler might order a "token" occupation of Czech areas and of Slovakia tomorrow.

Prague, which was the capital of the Bohemian Kingdom and since 1918 the capital of the Czechoslovak Republic, was expected to be taken over by German troops, along with towns having a preponderant German population such as Brno and Olomouc.

Bratislava, 34 miles east of Vienna and capital of the newly independent Republic of Slovakia, was expected to be policed by the German Army.

President Hacha, accompanied by his daughter, arrived in Berlin at 10:40 p.m. An honor company of the German Army with a group of government dignitaries were at the station to greet him. The military commander gave him a salute.

Otto Meisner, chief of the presidential chancellery, gave him an official greeting.

With President Hacha also were his Foreign Minister Frantisek Chvalatkovsky, and several secretaries.

NEW SOLUTION FOR SCIENTIFIC MYSTERY

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

NEW YORK, March 13.—(AP)—A NEW SOLUTION of one of the greatest mysteries of science, a single law to explain all the phenomena of the material universe, has been found by Professor Albert Einstein.

He announced this today in an interview, on the eve of his 60th birthday, with his friend, L. E. Leveck, New York newspaperman and member of the National Association of Science Writers.

Einstein calls the mystery the unified field theory. It aims to bring together gravitation, magnetism and matter under the "unifying mathematical concept."

For four years, since leaving Germany a voluntary exile, he has been working on this problem at the Institute for Advanced Study, which is housed in Princeton University. The study began 20 years ago, when "relativity" was first announced.

He did not make public the nature of his announced discovery. But its main outlines are known to science generally.

The mathematical constructions for a unified field theory devised by him heretofore have not stood the test of experience," he said. "At present I am now engaged with two collaborators in developing the results to a point where they could be checked with experimental facts."

Einstein a year ago, with Leopold Infeld, published a book which he called "The Evolution of Physics." In it he said that scientists have believed of late in two realities in the material universe. These he said meant the field of gravitation, magnetism and electricity.

In the book he asserted that now "field is the only reality left. Matter is found in physical experiments indicating that solid matter may be only radiation in a changed form. He said that all matter is made of particles which seem to be nothing but bits of electricity, and a few experiments where rays have been deflected, changing themselves from radiation into solid particles.

In the attempt to unify these "fields" which seem to permeate the universe, gravitation has been a chief missing link. It has not yet measurable waves like electricity; it does not come and go like magnetism and light. The link between relativity and quantum theory, the latter shows that immaterial things like energy and light are really made up of separate particles.

Science has been compelled to accept as a fact an incredible situation. Another gap in the universe are sometimes particles, and where apparently real particles are sometimes waves. Experiments proved this contradiction. A "unified" theory might explain.

If the "law" Einstein seeks is found it may also supply a better understanding of the relation between mind and matter. For it deals with a non-material world as much as with the material.

FARM HOME DESTROYED AT NEW ANNAN

A farm dwelling house owned by Mr. Robert Williams of New Annan was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, it was learned here.

The blaze, discovered about 1 o'clock in the afternoon, on the second story of the building spread rapidly and was extinguished by a snow storm raging at the time. A few neighbors and a few gathered to fight the flames. Practically no furniture was saved. Loss was partially covered by insurance. Origin of the blaze was unknown.

The house burned yesterday was on property formerly owned by the late John Haggerty, where Mr. Williams lived alone, it was said.

NEW CBC STATIONS OPEN THIS SUMMER

(By The Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, March 14.—The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation hopes to have both its new high powered stations, at Sackville, N.B., and Watrous, Sask., operating even on an experimental basis at the time of the King's visit to this country. L.V. Brockington, C.B.C. chairman, told the House of Commons Radio Committee today.

The Maritime station was expected to be in operation April 8 and the Prairie station June 1, he said. Efforts would be made, however, to have the Prairie station operating on some basis for the royal visit.

MISSIONARY FUND EXCEEDS BUDGET

(By The Canadian Press)
TORONTO, March 14.—Rev. Robert Laird, treasurer of the United Church of Canada, announced today that the Church's Missionary and Maintenance Fund totaled $1,482,650 when the books closed recently. The sum is $6,130 more than the 1938-39 budget, set last May, called for.

Funds are for the general maintenance of the United Church of Canada and its missionary work in Canada and abroad. Newfoundland, London, Manitoba and Alberta conferences of the Church reported an increase in giving over the previous year. Fifty presbyteries of 116 showed increases in their giving to the church.

ISLAND'S OLDEST

An incident occurred on that evening which bore out his youthful appearance. Among the guests was a lady who had not previously known the Bernard family. She remarked on the absence of the old gentleman whom she had come to see. "The absent one" had just passed in front of her, the better to see and hear the musicians in the adjoining room.

When seen with one of his sons, John, 80, of Hunter River, N.S., Bernard had often been taken to be John's son or brother, rather than his father.

He walked with a keen, alert step. Much to his disgust, he said he had a cane although he said he never did have any use for the thing.

Within the last six years he had a hardwood floor in one of the rooms of his aged house. He never was careful of his diet, eating the same meals as the rest of his family. According to his children, the old gentleman used to say he "never had any rheumatism."

He had been sick a day.
