Discharged From Army; Opens Office At S'side

Among the Prince Edward Island soldiers discharged from the army recently is Major J. S. DesRoches who has just opened a law office on Water Street, Summerside.

Major DesRoches volunteered at the outbreak of hostilities and served at home and overseas until a few weeks ago. At one period during this service he was with the Prince Edward Island Highlanders. He is also a veteran of the First Great War, having served in France with the 85th Battalion.

He studied law at the University of Toronto and was called to the bar in 1928. He was admitted at the bar from 1928 to 1930 he practised in Charlottetown.

Major DesRoches was born in Miscouche, the son of William J. DesRoches and Mrs. DesRoches. He attended Prince of Wales College and St. Dunstan's University, graduating in 1922 with a bachelor of arts degree.

He is married to Florence, the elder daughter of the late Mr. J. J. DesRoches, of Charlottetown, and has two sons.

Bracken Critical Of Proposed Family Allowance Scheme

OTTAWA, June 27 (CP) - John Bracken, National Progressive Conservative Leader, said in a prepared statement that he was opposed to the introduction of a family allowance scheme.

Mr. Bracken's statement: "I think the Canadian people ought to examine the Government's proposal very carefully. Two hundred million dollars in additional taxes to put on the people in addition to the present tax burden, the Government brings forward a proposal to give away $200,000,000 a year."
