EARLY SETTLEMENT NOW LOOKED FOR

(Canadian Press.) TORONTO, May 27.—Although the South American mediators and the American-Mexican delegates, accompanied by members of their party, came here today to be guests at a garden party in honor of the Duke of Connaught, developments of the last twenty-four hours called a short conference on the Mexican problem today between the mediators and the American delegates, both of whom received information since the meeting yesterday which they desired to communicate to each other.

As a result of the meeting some matters were cleared up on which there had been no actual agreement, but which might have brought about an impasse in the negotiations looking to a solution of the Mexican problem. Indications point to an early settlement between the United States and its southern neighbors.

ALL IS QUIET IN IRELAND

Disturbances Predicted on Passing of Home Rule Bill Have failed to Materialize Thanks to the Wise Counsels on Both Sides.

LONDON, May 27.—The passage of the Home Rule Bill has not yet led to the breaking of a single head in Ireland. The predictions made so freely by certain Unionists that its final adoption by the House of Commons would be followed by fierce outbreaks in Ulster and sanguinary conflicts between the Orangemen and the Nationalists have proved to be untrue up to the present.

"Belfast is as quiet as a well-ordered sewing meeting," is the admission of one of the Unionist newspapers. The authorities, civil and military, are said to be keeping a careful watch, and trains are held at stations with steam up in readiness to rush troops or armed police to wherever they might be needed to suppress riots which nearly everybody thought were bound to occur, but so far, the only conflicts have been verbal ones.

Meanwhile, many Unionists declare that it is only the calm which presages a fierce storm and that, falling the defeat of the Government at a general election, civil war looms ahead, not as a contingency, but as a certainty.

A curious feature of the situation is that the Unionist leaders are now setting up the claim that the Ulster volunteers are preserving peace in Ulster.

John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, is being inundated with telegrams of congratulations from the United States and all parts of the world on the passage of the Bill.

PACIFIC EFFORTS OF PARISH PRIESTS.

The parish priests are being given credit for the pacific conduct of the Nationalists during the past two days. Their warnings, pronounced in public on Sunday and in private to many of their people, have had the needed effect. "It was not a warning; it was an order," was the statement made by one Belfast priest to a journalist. Similarly Carson's strict orders were faithfully obeyed by the Ulster Protestants, who abstained from hostilities, as the vanquished party, is naturally more commendable even than the moderation of the Nationalists. There were no bonfires by the celebrating minority of Nationalists in Ulster, but in the south of Ireland there were numerous torchlight processions. The only disorder reported was at Millbrook, County Cork, where some laborers were under arrest on the charge of shooting.

ISLAND STUDENTS AT ACADIA AND MOUNT A.

P. E. I. students figure in the graduating and prize lists of both the Acadia (Wolfville) and Mount Allison (Sackville) Ladies Seminars, the closing exercises of which have just been held.

The report of the Acadia Seminary shows a total registration of 325. The work of the year was done excellently. Discipline was well maintained and self-government was assumed by the senior class. The religious life was quickened. A number united with the church, the result of Rev. P. J. Stachhouse's services.

The conservatory of music had seven teachers, 136 pupils in pianoforte alone; 71 in voice; 24 in violin; six in organ.

Among the graduates from the Wolfville Seminary was Miss Annie M. McKinnon, of Charlottetown, who graduated in the Vocal Course. In the prize list is twice mentioned Miss Hazel Morse, of Bedouque, who took part in the G. P. Payzant Prizes, and first place in the Amherst Alumnae Prizes, for the highest standing in the English Bible.

At the Mt. Allison Academy, the oldest of the institutions at Sackville, Dr. Palmer, Principal, in making his report reviewed briefly the work of the past twenty years, the time that he has been Principal of the Academy. When he took charge the institution was under a heavy burden of debt and the number in the residence was twenty. Now the Academy, though many improvements and additions had been made, was free of debt and last year seventy-four were in residence. The enrollment last year was 154. Good and faithful work had been done and the future looks bright. Dr. Palmer pointed out the urgent need of more residential and class room accommodation, and hoped that within a short time an annex could be built to meet these needs.

(Canadian Press.) MONTREAL, May 27.—1,000 carpenters will go on strike, Monday, June 1, unless in the meantime their wages are advanced from 42¢ to 45 cents an hour. GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT

Professor F. Shaw (Provincial Engineer) and Mr. L. B. McMillan, (Secretary of Public Works), who represented this province at the International Good Roads Congress which was held in Montreal last week, have returned to Charlottetown.

Seen by a Guardian representative yesterday, Prof. Shaw gave some interesting information concerning the work of the congress. The attendance, he said, was representative of the different provinces of this Dominion as far west as Manitoba, and the United States was also largely represented, while there were representatives from various cities. There were over two hundred delegates present at the opening meeting, and delegates were coming in all the time, the attendance perhaps reaching its
