KELLY AND ROSS ADVANCE TO GOLF FINAL McDiarmid Ousts Rainville In Hard-fought Match

Rangy Ottawan Displays Brilliant Tennis In Upset As Play Reaches Semi-finals

Rangy Don McDiarmid of Ottawa, matching the canny court strategy of the veteran French star Marcel Rainville, pounded his way through five hard-fought sets into the semi-finals of the Eastern Canada tournament yesterday along with three other Upper Canadians, Laird Watt and Roger Durivage of Montreal and Toronto's Ross Wilson.

McDiarmid playing steadily throughout the three and a half hour duel won points by volleying for sensational angles and also lured Rainville to the forecourt for the "kill" with a puzzling assortment of drop shots. It was not so much the brilliance of attack that defeated the Montreal veteran, for both players played the baseline with monotonous perseverance, as the cold calculating, waiting-for-errors game adopted by the cagey McDiarmid.

The after time Rainville flashed the form which carried him to the heights when he defeated Edie Murphy of Ottawa 6-3, 6-4, 6-1. McDiarmid, on the other hand, evaded confidence by playing the careless as he needed his racket with reckless abandon to nip the baseline with clever placements for crucial points.

Watt and Mrs. Harold Jones of Halifax struck hard fighting ten in Stuart Dickson and Miss Eleanor Bourke of Charlottetown and won only after a keen battle. Mrs. F. V. Woodbury of Halifax and Ross Wilson also found difficulty with William Shakespeare of Halifax and Miss Jean Wright of Petite Riviere, N.S.

Watt ousted Raper in the second set by Garnet Roper of John, N.B., as he attacked the net behind a strong forehand p to the New Brunswickers' hand.

Wilson continued his smashing attack that attracted the spectators' attention as he blasted out a 6-1, 6-1 win over Eddie Murdoch of Ottawa. The Capital City veteran stood up and slugged it out Canada's No. 2 ranking star could not gain the points in critical moments.

Rainville's expressionless visage, came from behind in first and third sets to eliminate Harry Roper, a left-hander of Halifax. The machine-like play of the 19-year-old Frenchman kept Roper on the move and he was hit by drop-shots at point after point for the who has victories over Watt is credit already this year.

McDiarmid and Wilson attempted to upset Durivage's game with a smoking hand, one of the best overhead smashes in the Dominion and in the other position in the finals. Ross Harrington of Bridgewater, N.S., defeated Miss Mary Currie of Halifax 6-3, 6-6, 6-4. Darcy Keating and Gertrude Keating defeated D. Gass and Miss E. Sinclair of Charlottetown 6-1, 6-3.

W. Shakespeare and Miss Wright defeated D. M. Wiswell and Jean D. Robertson of Ottawa 10-8, 6-1. V. Harrington and Miss Matheson defeated G. Neary of Kentville, N.S., and Miss H. Edgett of Charlottetown, 6-3, 6-1.

Don Sanderson and Miss McFairidge defeated Jack Weir of Rowan of Fredericton, 6-0, 6-2.

Harry Roper and Gordon Bauld of Halifax defeated V. Topping and D. Robertson of Toronto by default. Charles Peters of Montreal and Kea Farmer of Ottawa defeated Mill Musgrave of Moncton and W. Shakespeare of Halifax 6-3, 6-6.

Don Sanderson and Miss McFairidge defeated Jack Weir of Rowan of Fredericton, 6-0, 6-2.

Royal Hamilton Light Infantry took second place with 777 points, five more than the Governor General's Foot Guards of Ottawa.

10-1 Shot Winner Of Hambletonian

BY ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
GOSHEN, N.Y., Aug. 12—Shirley Hanover, a chip off the old block, turned in the most brilliant speed exhibition in the 12-year history of the Hambletonian today as she whipped 11 other great three-year-old trotters in the blue ribbon event of light harness racing.

Stunning a crowd of 35,000, in the case of her triumph, the light waisted filly from Lawrence E. Sheppard's Hanover, Pa., farms carried on in the ways of her parents. She won in straight heats and established a new time record for a winner of the rich stake.

With Henry Thomas handling the reins, the daughter of Mr. McEwlyn and Hanover Bertha travelled the first mile in 2:01 1/2, and then came back to take the second in 2:03 3/4. Only she had the time for the first heat been beaten and that was in 1932 when Hollywood Dennis won one heat in 2:01 1/4.

But when it came to racing for $19,916.92, the winners share of the purse of $37,912.58, the Hanover filly left little to be desired. She stepped home a half length in front of Farr of E. Roland Harriman's Arden Homestead of Goshen in the first heat and then came back to breeze to the finish line with four lengths to spare over DeSota in the second. Sheppard won an additional $600 as nominator of the winner.

The race, run off on a fast track after rain yesterday had soaked the triangular shaped strip, was marred by the setting down of two well known drivers delaying the start of the first heat.

After Steve Phillips spent nearly 30 minutes attempting to get the horses away, Dunbar Bostwick, owner and driver of Hollywood Audrey, and R. H. W. Parrshall, of Urbana, Ohio, pilot of Delphia Hanover, were ordered off their sulks.

Junior Tennis Tournament Underway

A junior tennis tournament being staged in connection with the Eastern Canadian championships opened on the courts of the Holy Redeemer Tennis Club yesterday. With men's and ladies' singles and men's doubles matches being on the program, the tournament has attracted a large entry list and yesterday's matches although won in straight sets in both singles division produced some sparkling tennis between players representing the three provinces.

Finals in the three events will be reached after today's matches are concluded, with the finals being scheduled for Saturday.

Shoot Steady Golf To Enter Final 36 Holes For Maritime Amateur Crown

Shooting the brand of golf that marked his victory in the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island tournament and saw him make a fine showing in the Dominion championships at Ottawa, red-headed Pete Kelly of Charlottetown yesterday advanced to the 36-hole final for the Maritime Provinces' title against Nesbit "Nip" Ross of New Glasgow with a 5 and 3 victory over youthful Hal Connor of Halifax, the player who had eliminated medalist "Gint" Cain in a second round match Wednesday.

Playing near-par golf throughout the match that ended at the sixteenth hole, Pete won the first five holes in a row to amass a lead that his opponent never seriously threatened. Connor steadied after his disastrous start to have the next three and win the ninth but there was no overtaking his steady-going opponent. As the match became dormie four Connor earned another hole by sinking a 10-footer for a birdie on the 15th but the match ended on the next hole.

While Kelly was advancing easily to the finals the other semi-final match between Ross and Don Rainnie, a club-mate of Connor, was much closer although there was little doubt about who would win out. Ross' lead mounted steadily despite the fact that both players were playing near par golf going out with medal scores of 37 and 39 respectively over the par-35 distance. Ross won the first, fifth, seventh, tenth, twelfth and fourteenth holes while Rainnie was capturing the second and ninth with the rest being halved.

The final between Kelly and Ross promises to be a close duel between a pair that have shot steady, near-par golf the last two days and the consensus of opinion at Belvedere tonight was that it was an even bet just which one would possess the crown after tomorrow's 36-hole final.

SHOWERS SPRINKLE COURSE
Light showers fell on the sun-baked course yesterday afternoon as the big tournament, premier golfing meet in Canada's three eastern-most provinces, drew near a close. All six divisions and five consolation groups reached their final stage also during the day.

In morning rounds, Kelly, New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island champion, eliminated Arnold Taylor of Charlottetown, five and four, while Ross defeated G. P. Rodger of Charlottetown six and four. Both Connor and Rainnie played their second round matches yesterday, the former winning from Cain on the 19th hole and Rainnie defeating R. L. Davison of Saint John, N.B.

Galbraith Leads Pros
Early yesterday 12 professionals set out on a 72-hole medal play contest of their own for the Maritime Professional Golf Championship, eliminated J. Foster, Saint John, in the final round, while G. Hughes of Charlottetown won the consolation prize over the Halifax golfer.

Rimmer had the best score of the opening round yesterday morning when he carded a smooth 75 while Galbraith was getting 76, but the Haligonian slipped back in the afternoon with a 79 while the Charlottetown pro had 75.

Driving, approaching and putting competitions were begun late yesterday afternoon, but they were not to be concluded until today.

Consolations Concluded
Several consolation divisions were concluded. W. Crawford of Saint John won the second division consolation, defeating J. Foster, Saint John, in the final round, while G. Hughes of Charlottetown won the consolation prize in the third division. S. G. Merriam, Summerside, in the fourth, and W. P. Noonan, Summerside, in the fifth.

N. Allan of Edmundston, N.B., and R. C. Duchemin of Halifax reached the finals in the first division consolation group. Graham Murray of Dartmouth, defeating L. D. Murray of Charlottetown on the 19th hole, won the fifth division prize.

Other division finalists to meet today are J. A. Saunders, Charlottetown, and J. A. Likely, Saint John, in the second; D. S. Church, Saint John, and R. F. McLellan, Truro, in the third; T. F. Whitley, Halifax, and W. Graham, Saint John, in the fourth; and J. C. Laing, Dartmouth, and A. R. McInnis, Charlottetown, in the fifth.
