The Sydney Post of Tuesday says: "At 6.15 this morning the wedding was solemnized at the residence, George St., of Miss B. Blanche Taylor, eldest daughter of the late George W. Taylor, formerly of Da Bert, Colchester County, to H. A. Wellington McCoubrey, of New Glasgow, P. E. I., senior member of the firm of McCoubrey & Bulmar, of this city. Rev. O. N. Cho, pastor of Pitt St. Baptist Church, tied the nuptial knot. The bride wore a charming going away gown of brown panama, cloth, with hat to match, a costume that looked exceedingly becoming. Both the principals were unattended. The happy couple were the recipients of a large number of handsome souvenirs from their host of friends, suited to the occasion. Mr. McCoubrey's fellow guests of Alton Hotel tendered their departing bachelor friends a timely gift in the shape of a finely finished chocolate set. After the wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. McCoubrey left by the early train on a month's visit to Prince Edward Island, and arrived in this City on Tuesday evening.
