P. E. I. SCHOOL FAIRS.—The last issue of the Agricultural Gazette gives an excellent write up of P. E. I. School Fairs by Mr. W. Reid, B. S. A. Director of Agricultural Instruction for the province, showing the origin, development, and aims of the movement. The article includes a view of the Bicycle parade in Charlottetown on the occasion of the last school fair; a photo of the school executives (teacher and three pupils from each participating school) of the Tyne Valley school fair, and a photo of the prize calves exhibited at the Banker's competition at Kinkora. The article is most interesting and makes excellent publicity abroad of what is being done in agricultural education in P. E. Island.

SCHOOL CONCERT.—The semi-annual examination and entertainment took place in South Melville school on Friday evening December 21st. The school was crowded with ratepayers and visitors from surrounding districts. On entering the school cryoche was attracted by the artistic decorations which were nicely arranged. The pupils were examined in the various branches by their teacher Miss Minnie Dunford, assisted by Miss Sadie Gorman, Miss Brown, Miss Murchison and Mr. Louis Costello, and showed by their prompt and ready answer that they received splendid instructions during the term. A literary program given by the pupils displayed unusual talents and was greatly enjoyed by all present. The following is the program: Chorus by school Canada's answer to England's call. Recitation by Charlie Trainor. Monologue, Family Troubles by Ruth Dunford. Song by five girls. Hang up the Holly we'll be Jolly. Recitation by Charlie Bradley. Recitation by Howard McKinnon. Dialogue, Good bye Hilda MacKinnon and Kathleen Bradley. Recitation by Bertha Cutcliffe. Duet by Della Trainor and Hilda Dunford. Recitation by Hilda McKinnon. Monologue, The Aspiring Dishwasher by Hilda Dunford. Dialogue, The Irish Philosopher by Howard Cameron and Charles MacKinnon. Recitation by Eileen Trainor. Monologue, Thanksgiving Reminders by Cella Trainor. Dialogue, Farm for Sale, Eileen Trainor, Jimmy Beer and Cecil Bradley. Recitation by Ruth Cutcliffe and Mary Bradley. Closing Chor-us, Jingle Bells. Santa Claus then appeared in his happy manner and distributed gifts to the pupils from a tree well laden for the occasion. The visitors were then treated to coffee and cake by the teacher which was enjoyed by all. The singing of the National Anthem brought this pleasant entertainment to a close. The district is to be congratulated in securing the services of Miss Dunford as a most successful teacher.

She was a stately and important-looking dame, quite accustomed to holding a high hand; he was a customs inspector, who refused to have any of his rights and duties abrogated. She—"Just wearing apparel in these bags; nothing dutiable, sir." He (tumbling about silk dressing sacks, toilet articles and travelling accessories, brings out a bottle of cognac)—"You said wearing apparel!" She (with a withering look)—"My husband's nightcap, sir!"
