DUPUY & FERGUSON 28-42 Jacques Cartier street, Montreal, P. Q.

There was one incident during the day, however, when Mr. Meighen and Mr. King curiously found themselves in harmony. This was when the Opposition leader rose and protested against an article in the London Outlook charging the Canadian Government with fraud in its treatment of the Grand Trunk Railway. The Outlook is a British weekly review which changed fortunes last year, when it found itself upon evil days it was purchased by Sir Mackay Edgar, one of the many Canadians who have gone to London in unsuccessful endeavor to imitate Lord Beaverbrook. Sir Mackay Edgar is a former Motorist, with big financial connections there, and it is not without significance that the Outlook's violent outburst synchronizes with a Montreal propaganda to hand the Grand Trunk back to private ownership. Mr. Meighen very properly objected to the Outlook's charges of dishonesty and Mr. King, to his credit, agreed with him. "There is no action," he said, "that can be taken against such publications but I wish to associate myself with the Opposition Leader's statement that there was nothing dishonorable in the country's treatment of the Grand Trunk."

Leaders in Accord.

Ministry Abandons Third Position

Again later in the evening, the Ministry was compelled to abandon another position. During the debate on the address Mr. King promised that Mr. Kennedy, the Minister of Railways, would make a statement on the railway situation. The debate ended without the statement being made, and when Mr. Meighen drew attention to the oversight, Mr. King promised that it would be forthcoming when the railway estimates were introduced without the promised speech, and once again against the Government was brought to book. Mr. Meighen emphasized that he had no desire to obstruct. "The last thing I want to do is to imitate the tactics of the opposition of last year"—but the Government was pursuing a policy or disregard for pledges against which it was his duty to protest. He would not sit here and be rode over roughshod by a Ministry which said one thing when it meant another, and whose word could not be relied upon from day to day.

Mr. King again plainly in an indefensible position, yielded and the railway estimates were withdrawn. The Opposition, by clever swordsmanship, had won its third not unimportant victory for the rights of the House within as many hours.

Being authorized by Alfred Roberts we will sell on his farm, Windsor Road on Monday, April 2nd commencing at 1 o'clock p.m. all his stock: 1 Mare, 8 years old; 1 Mare, 5 years old, driver; 1 Horse, 5 years old; 1 Colt, 2 years old; 15 Head Cattle, comprising 2 Cows to freshen in April, 2 Cows to freshen in June, 2 Heifers, 2 Cows now freshened, 2 Farrow Cows, 1 Bull, 3 year old, 3 Calves, 3 Geese, Implements—1 Hay Mower, new; 1 Hay Rake, 1 Gang Plow, 1 Single Plow, 1 Tooth Harrow, 1 combined Sled, 1 Spike Harrow, 1 Cart, 1 Truck Wagon, 1 Wood Sleigh, 1 Team Sleigh, 1 Grain Crusher, 1 Set Express Harness, lot heavy Harness, and other articles not mentioned.

THE EVANGELICAL MEETINGS in Central Christian Church are increasing in interest. The subject last night was "Redemption and its Price." A forceful and heart-searching sermon by Dr. Genge portrayed the life and mission of Jesus, culminating in the sacrifice of Calvary. The meetings will begin at 7.45 with song service and are invited to attend.

Another son who was ordered into the living room escaped by throwing himself under a lounge and was uninjured, although two shots were fired at him.

An ambulance attendant collapsed after helping carry the bodies into the hospital, although hardened with scenes of bloodshed.

The son who crawled under the lounge, was a six year old child, who was taken from his bed at the same time as the other members of the family.

Mrs. MacMahon wept tearfully but in vain with the assassins to spare the family. Then she screamed from the window to a nursing home adjoining to summon estimates having been discussed, Mr. Fielding got up in the House and solemnly asked the Opposition to give the Government not a sixteenth, but a one-fourth interim supply bill. The request, having regard to the obstructive tactics of last year, the protests against the alleged Prussianism, and the end, they plainly told the Government that they would have to give more notice; that there would have to be more study and consideration of the estimates before a supply bill would be granted. The Government realized that its position was an impossible one so it put its supply bill on the shelf and proceeded to take up estimates bill by bill.
