Brantford Windmills

Many of these mills are now in use in this Province and are pronounced a necessity in every well equipped barn as they furnish power free of cost to drive thresher, grain crusher, pulper, folder cutter saw, pump, etc.
They are under complete control of operator on the barn floor and are fitted with a new automatic governing device which gives an even speed in gusty winds, and regulates power—from half men to four horses in a twenty mile wind.
We also sell the celebrated FROST FENCE as well as the Maple Leaf Grain Crusher.

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

poor, half crazed clerk who will steal from his employer in order to bet on the races. I am not alluding to the poor servant girl who opens her mistress' pocketbook in order to take out a fifty cent piece to squander it in a policy shop, or to the bank president who, as trustee of an estate, criminally sinks in wildcat speculations the money intrusted to his care. They are criminals, and they know it.

Young man, you say that you own your own money and have a right to do with it as you will. No, you have not. Where did you get that money? "Oh," you say, "father left it to me in his will." For what did he leave it to you? Did he not leave it as a trust? Did he not leave it to you in order that you with it could continue to spread abroad his Christian influence? Money is a representative word. Money translated into the ordinary language of life means work and blood and sweat and exhausted energy. Money! Why, that represents the woman scrubbing at the tub and the bookkeeper compiling his figures and the nurse pouring out the medicines and the carpenter building houses and the flowers for the sick and the gospel for the ignorant and depraved. Do you mean to tell me, O man, that at the gambling table you have a right to squander your mother's and father's substance like that? And yet go into any one of the post-graduate schools and colleges to-day and you will find young men at the gaming table not more surely destroying themselves than squandering the money that was won by the self-denying sacrifices of parental lives.

"But," some one else says, "the money I have is mine. Why? I did not inherit it or have it given to me. I made it. Therefore I have a right to do with it as I please." Oh, no, my brother, you have not. That money which you made is not yours. It belongs to your children. When your little children came into the world they brought to you certain moral obligations. You had no right to become a father unless you were ready to the best of your ability to look after your babies. That money which you squander at the gaming table means more than money. It means your children's clothes, your children's schooling, your children's proper start in life. It would be infinitely more humane for me to gamble upon my mother's coffin lid than to gamble away my children's education and opportunities. The cold lips of my dead mother could not rebuke me, while the cracked, blistering tongue of the outraged and disgraced child of a heartless gambler might curse my soul into the black pit of eternal woe.

"But," says some one again, "it is not certain that I should lose. If I win at the gambling table I am guiltless of the wrongs against parents and children that you are denouncing." Well, my brother, with a gambling tendency you have no right to suppose any such case. All gamblers—shall I say all? Yes, practically all—ultimately lose every cent they ever win at Fortuna's altar. There are practically no exceptions to this rule. Fortuna's temple was built for the goddess of chance, but in gambling there is no chance; the devotee practically loses all. If this statement is not true how can you account for the fact that every year the annual expenditures to run Monte Carlo are $5,000,000, and yet each year the shareholders of that evil resort divide nearly $3,000,000 profits? If this statement is not true how can you account for the fact that the Louisiana lottery was able to expend millions upon millions of dollars every year for corruption and bribery and "public improvements" and taxes and yet was able to make its owners millionaires many times over? If this is not true how can the great gambling establishments of the large cities pay to the police departments thousands upon thousands of dollars as a sop for them to keep their hands off, for no gambling den is ever run in a large city without the connivance of the police, and also to furnish their patrons course dinners, with wine, all free of charge, and yet make hundreds of thousands of dollars besides?

All "systems" which have ever been devised to break the "bank of chance" were failures, and they are always sure to be failures. In a Chinese temple I have seen the poor invalids before a hideous idol of wood make a prayer to their "god of health" and then select at random an arrow out of a wampun, with a certain medicine marked upon it, and expect that that medicine would cure them of their disease. So I have seen poor dupes in Monte Carlo in the same foolish way trying to work out a "system" by which the god of chance would give to them unlimited wealth. As all such "systems" are failures and will always be failures I would to-day give you a "system" which if worked out, will bring a competency and eternal happiness, if not unlimited good. This is my system: Never in your life try to possess a dollar unless you are ready to give an equivalent in labor and sweat and toil. Never spend a dollar unless you have first earned it and have it in your possession. Never run into debt. Never by speculation or by progressive euchre party or by "prizes" at church fair or by "raffle" countenance in any way the development of the gambling spirit in others. Draw heavily from one bank only, and that the great bank of divine grace. Circulate in every way its bank notes of kindness and forgiveness and sympathy. Let your one great purpose be not "how can I make others serve me," but "how can I serve others." Let your faith, hope and peace be centred in Christ the Saviour of men and make him the Guide and King of your life. Such a "system" as I have marked out is a sure system. It is Christ's system. It will never bankrupt you this side of the grave except of your sinful meanness. And it is sure to bring you perfect peace beyond the grave and give to you all the limitless wealth of the treasure city of God. "In the sweat of thy brow shalt thou eat bread."

PARIS, October 20.—Former President Kruger has arrived at Mentone and occupies a rose covered villa in Caravan Bay which he rented last year. He celebrated his seventy-eighth birthday during the week and invited a few townspeople to dinner.

HAD TO TAKE TO HIS BED.

H. A. Coles' Stomach Trouble Reached the Serious Stage—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Cured it.

"I had Stomach Trouble for about five years. It got so bad I had to take to bed and call in the doctor, but he did me no good. Seven boxes of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cured me and I have had no return of the trouble since."

This is the statement of Henry A. Coles, a well-known resident of St. Mary's River, Guysboro Co., N. S. It is conclusive proof that Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure Stomach Troubles in their worst stages.

Nearly everybody has Stomach Trouble of some kind. The quick lunches and hurry up methods of the present day are the cause. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the cure. They relieve and cure those discomforts after eating that mark the first appearance of Indigestion.

It is easy to carry a few Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets in your pocket and take one after eating. It is hard to carry the aches and pains and depression of Dyspepsia in your person. The first safeguards against the second.

SHORT IN ACCOUNTS.

SYDNEY, October 21.—J. T. Mesny, who has been agent at North Sydney for some time past of the Reid Newfoundland Railway Company, was arrested to-day at the instance of the company for an alleged shortage in his accounts.

A REMARKABLE RECORD.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

THE CORNER STONE

of practical knowledge is a knowledge of one's own Country. When that country has a history that reaches back to the dawn of modern civilization, and embodies in its progress and developement every advance that has been made,—every discovery to the enlightenment of man,—up to the present moment. When that country itself is in the Van of civilization, with a future of glowing possibilities; then does that practical knowledge become a practical education,—a liberal education in every practical sense. There was no possibility of getting this practical education,—of fulfilling the first great duty of the citizen,—the patriot,—until the completion of our great work;

"Canada: An Encyclopædia."

A good deal of the knowledge contained in these six large volumes has existed hitherto only as matter of fact. Now for the first time, and for all time to come, it is matter of record,—easily accessible, and within the reach of the humblest understanding. It was the labor of years —a constant unremitting toil of the most strenuous kind—to gather this knowledge together. In accomplishing the task we have made a History of Canada—a Geography of Canada—a text-book of Canada—a library about Canada.—We have compressed into six volumes Canada itself, up to date. Whatever your knowledge of your own country may be —you are a practical man perhaps and think you know the Dominion pretty well,—here are whole topics about which you will find you know but little. Write us for full information and find out what Canada is from the soil to the skyline. The greatest minds in Great Britain and the Dominion have devoted many years to the task of gathering together the materials for this work.

The work is not expensive—indeed very low in price for an Encyclopædia—and the terms of payment place it within the ready reach of every man who earns wages. It will be delivered to you on approval at our expense on a deposit of $1.00 and you may pay the balance in little instalments, or the work may be returned, we paying all charges, and your deposit will be refunded.

Cut out the attached coupon and after filling in your name and address mail it to us to-day. We will send you full particulars with a complete list of the 228 authors and will also send at our own expense the Index Volume so that you can see with your own eyes the vast fields covered and know that "Canada" is an Encyclopædia in fact as well as in name. Our price and proposition will please you.

CUT THIS OUT, FILL IN AND MAIL TO-DAY.

The Linscott Publishing Co., Brantford, Canada. Please send without cost to me, the Index volume of "Canada: An Encyclopædia of the Country," also full particulars of your little payment proposition for a set of this work.
