A Dollar's Worth for Every Dollar In New Clothes For Men

In The Newspapers To-day you will find page after page of men's clothing advertisements from stores of the good and not so good. They read much alike.

Almost without exception each store has for sale (according to its own story) the best clothing in Canada.

Sincere or no, somebody must be making a mistake. Not everybody can be best. So whom are you going to believe? And where are you going to buy YOUR spring outfit?

Suppose you let THE CLOTHING ITSELF and not newspaper talk decide you.

We have The largest stock of clothing on P. E. Island. If not, we will make you a present of a new spring suit.

It is in every way as good as we could get it—and a long experience in buying, a large purchasing power, and our "one price cash system" have given us great advantage over the small dealer who does a credit business.
