A GOOD TIME.—The entertainment and banquet social held at Dunsmuir on Friday evening was well attended. It was previously announced that Rev. Mr. Westmoreland of York would deliver a lecture but a surprise was sprung upon the audience by the news that a few hours before the time for opening the entertainment he had sent word that he would not come. However a few of the young folks got busy and a program was got into shape consisting of short addresses, readings and recitations and best of all musical selections and Miss Crosby and Miss Blanche McBeth of Marshfield, all of which were heartily enjoyed. The sale of baskets brought a snug sum. The thanks of the audience was moved to Miss McBeth and Miss Crosby for their splendid help.

—CHRISTMAS CONCERT.—The Methodist Sunday School of Hampton held their annual Christmas tree and entertainment in the hall at Hampton on Dec. 17th. The hall was nicely decorated for the occasion and much impatience was shown by the large audience assembled until the curtain rose. Then the lights were lowered and the three well lighted with electric sparklers showed in all its beauty and brilliancy. Rev. G. M. Young acted as chairman. A short but well prepared program was rendered every number of which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The Santa Claus appeared and greeting the children distributed the gifts and candy in a way that all enjoyed. Home made candy, ice cream and cake were sold during the evening. All went home well satisfied having spent a very enjoyable evening.

GOOD SERVICES.—Large congregations gathered on Sunday, Dec 29th at the Methodist Church, Cornwall, morning and evening to hear Alfred Thorpe of Mount Allison University. His services were greatly appreciated, the morning text being Mark 7-24 and the evening 1 Cor. 14-8. Mr Thorpe is also a singer of considerable ability. He sang on the previous Sunday evening and is expected to do so Sunday evening next, Jan 5th. Considerable interest was also imparted to the evening service on Sunday 29th, by the presence on the platform and participation in the singing by a number of the dear young people who took part in the concert on Monday, Dec 23. At this concert a very pleasing quartette was given entitled "From all that dwell below the Skies" and also Matheson's "O Love that will not let me go," both of which were thoroughly appreciated. Regrettably the name in this program of Mrs Wm Howard was misprinted, her singing being a feature of the quartette.

J. ... —A HAPPY EVENT.—A very pretty wedding took place on the evening of New Year's Day at the home of Alexander Henderson, Lower Bedeque, when his daughter, Augusta G. was united in marriage to W. Vernon Craig of Middleton. The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ethel Henderson while the groom was ably supported by his brother, Earl M. Craig. The bride, daintily attired in a gown of cream satin with pearl trimmings, wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was becomingly gowned in pink and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alex McKay of North Bedeque. The groom's present to the bride was a pearl necklace and to the bridesmaid a ring set with pearls. Miss Hazel Farrow of Bedeque played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Craig will reside in Middleton. J. ... —WEDDING BELLS.—A very enjoyable and rather unusual event took place at the home of Robt Harding, of Darnley on the 19th inst, when his daughter Mary I. Harding was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Charles B. Woodside of Malpeque, and also Teresa B. Harding to Neil B. Matthews of Bideford. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. J. Bate of Malpeque in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives from the surrounding country. The brides and their attendants were handsomely attired in costly but not gaudy gowns, that went to show their good sense. The wedding is familiar to every one that fine feathers make fine birds, be that as it may, there are other qualifications that nullify that and they are the proud possessors. After the ceremony and the usual formalities gone through all sat down to the festive board which was everything that could be desired by the most fastidious epicure and the writer is speaking as one that participated. Everyone did justice to the inner man. The presents were many and some costly and went to show the high esteem in which the couples were held in the community in which they dwell. After the tables were cleared away the remainder of the night was spent in tripping the light fantastic till the wee sma' hours, and every one repaired to their respective homes well pleased with the night's enjoyment and with hearty good wishes for the future. —Com.

Since you have come amongst us we have learned to love you and our studies, instead of being a task, have become a pleasure. Although we have oftentimes been disobedient and careless, yet you have always dealt with us kindly and patiently, far more so than we have at many times deserved. How to Cure Horse Distemper. An Experienced Horseman Solemnly Declares Nothing is So Satisfactory as Nerviline. Says Nerviline is Fine Linctum. "After fifty years' experience in raising horses I can safely testify that no remedy gives such good results for an all-round stable linctum as Nerviline." Thus opens the very earnest letter of J. J. Evanston, who lives near Wellington. "I had a very valuable horse that took distemper a month ago, and was afraid I was going to lose him. His throat swelled and hard lumps developed. His nostrils ran and he had a terrible cough. I tried different remedies, but was unable to relieve my horse of his pain and suffering till I started to use Nerviline. I mixed a bottle of Nerviline and sweet oil and rubbed the mixture on the throat and chest three times a day, and you would scarcely believe the way that horse picked up. Nerviline cured him, I had heard of Nerviline for colic in horses and cows, and earnestly recommend it to every man that is raising stock."

For strains, sprains, swellings, colic, distemper, coughs, and colds, no linctum will prove so efficacious in the stable as "Nerviline"—it's a good for man or beast, for internal or external use. Wherever there is pain, Nerviline will cure it. Refuse substitutes. Large size bottle, 50c; trial size, 25c. Dealers, or the Cataractons at all places. Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Ont.

LACK OF EXERCISE. Brings on Troubles which are Best Corrected by Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

Man was induced to live an active, outdoor life, and his digestive system was modelled accordingly. Indoor work with hands or head, long hours sitting or standing still, especially in air that's none too good, slow down the healthy activities of stomach, liver, kidneys and the millions of tiny skin glands.

Constipation, headaches, indigestion, biliousness, rheumatism and similar troubles follow. Then the worth of that good old reliable family medicine, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, is appreciated. Though it has been in use for over half a century, modern science has not been able to devise a safer or better cleanser for the whole system.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are largely vegetable in composition, free from any harmful drug, and mild yet most effective in their action. They are "Mother's standby" in hundreds of homes because they nip in the bud so many of the common ailments.

Made since 1857 by W. H. Comstock Co., Limited, Brockville, Ont., and sold everywhere at 25c. a box.

GET A TEN CENT BOX OF CASCARETS. Keep your liver and bowels active and you feel bully for months.

Put aside—just once—the Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oils or purgative waters which merely force a passage through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage or alimentary organs, and leave no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your inside organs pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated, waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never grip, sicken and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have headache, biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, sour stomach or constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.
