Mt. Stewart Notes

Picking raspberries and pulling cherries are the chief topics of the day for the ladies' class. (The men are—it is hard to find the correct term, but they're about as per usual.)

The Scotchfest Celebration luckily fell on a fine day this year. (It mostly rains on that particular day, you know) but this proved to be an exception. And any and all who went certainly enjoyed themselves, but who wouldn't when they would hear the skirl o' McDougall's pipes.

An impressive ceremony was held in the People's Cemetery here Thursday evening at seven o'clock when the unveiling of the Soldiers Monument took place. A large number were present, for the Monument just erected, commemorated a common cause, a great cause, for which the loved ones of many of those present went forth and paid the price to uphold.

Rev. M. K. Charman very capably acted as chairman and also gave a short introductory address, then introduced Hon. Walter M. Lea, who spoke eloquently on what the Monument represented. Following this a short but eloquent address was given by Hon. Judge Hazard, who explained many points of interest as well as spoke very touchingly of our fallen heroes.

Mention need not be made of the Reverend M. Scott Fulton's address as the many who have heard him both personally and by radio will understand, and it is also beyond my pen to tell.

Following the introductory remarks all joined in singing that grand old hymn "Rock of Ages," then following the second speaker a male quartette: Messrs. McLeod, Douglas, Henry Coffin, Roland Jay and Roland Phillipson, sang "Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground, Scripture reading and a prayer was offered up by J. C. Martin (a former pastor here.) Following the service the Monument was unveiled by Mrs. P. A. Farquharson, Charlottetown, and Mrs. Frank Warmwell, Pisquid. After which Mr. George Clark on behalf of the women trustees, in a few well chosen words thanked the speakers.

Then followed the National Anthem and the Last Post was sounded by Bugler Smith of Charlottetown.

Misses Jennie and Cora Douglas, Charlottetown, are spending a vacation at their home here.

Another of R. C. Clark's genial and obliging clerks, Mr. Winston Birt, has just finished his weeks vacation and the general public are quite glad to have him back again.

In Memoriam

MRS. RODERICK MORRISON

At the old homestead in South Granville, Mrs. Roderick Morrison passed from this turbulent world of care and sorrow into the boundless realm of Eternity and with Christian patience and sustaining hope she maintained up to a brief space before her death a patient vigor conformable with a person that had seen only half her years. She was a daughter of the late Hector Falcozner, and was born in the year 1828, hence she died in her hundredth year. She died in the full possession of her mental faculties, and perfectly resigned to the Will of God.

She was buried in South Granville on July 25, Rev. Mr. Fleck and Rev. Mr. Coburn conducting the services. The former performed the solemn services and preached a sermon in conformity with the solemnity of the occasion.

Few human beings in this epoch of strenuous existence reach the good old age at which she died, but she had the consolation of knowing that her life was a continued succession of meritorious deeds, terminated only by the impotency of those faculties that sustain natural activity.

The funeral was composed of a large concourse of sorrowing neighbors and friends, who highly esteemed this venerable old lady and who sympathized with the bereaved family.

The pallbearers were the six sons of the deceased: William, Frederick, George, Moncton, John Lincoln, Maine; Hector F. Kensington; Daniel, Milwicket, Maine; and Peter, Granville, P. E. I. Mrs. Morrison was a woman of spotless integrity, and discharged the duties of wife and mother with an exactitude that proved the existence of a character of sterling quality. Her own cares she made the last consideration, always being solicitous for the comfort of family and friends.

The good works that she performed and the superior example that she showed will extend an influence far, far into the future.

Her daughters are: Flora, Mrs. Charles McLean, Verdun, Manitoba; Hanna, Mrs. McKenzie, Stanley; Annie, Mrs. John McPherson, Quincy, Mass.

All Night With Asthma. Every one knows how attacks of asthma often keep their victims awake the whole night long. Morning finds him wholly unfitting for a day of business, and yet, business must still be carried through. All this night suffering and lack of rest can be avoided by the prompt use of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, which positively does drive away the attacks.

MacDougall minister.

CHURCH SERVICES APPRECIATED.—On July 29, at 3 o'clock, the Rev. M. Scott Fulton, pastor of Zion Church, preached at the Presbyterian Church, Bradalbane, taking for his text Romans 8:28:29, verse. His discourse was very instructive and inspiring, showing the inseparableness of the Believer of the Love of God, which is in Christ Jesus, our Lord. Mr. Harry Craswell sang beautiful solos which were very much appreciated.

DR. MACKINNON IN KOREA.—The climate and above all, the progress of the missions, are most exhilarating, is the message conveyed in a personal letter from Rev. Dr. Clarence MacKinnon, Principal of Pine Hill Divinity Hall, Halifax, who with Mrs. MacKinnon, is at present in Japan. "We have been on the wing" three weeks in Japan and three in Korea, and have covered the mission fields. We go to Karuzina in Japan next week, and will remain there until the end of August." Dr. MacKinnon will be one of the principal speakers at the general missionary gathering in Japan, when he will give several addresses. He has been invited to tell of the formation and progress of the United Church in Canada. Since going to Japan and Korea, Dr. MacKinnon has been giving two addresses daily, and has been kept very busy. His letter was written from Wonsan Beach, Korea, well known as an important part of the mission field manned by Canadians.

DR. M. E. GENGE CLOSES PASTORATE.—Dr. Genge preached his farewell sermon Sunday to the three churches under his charge, Lorne Valley, Cardigan and Montague. The morning service at Lorne Valley was well attended and deep regret felt, as the Church has been ably ministered to, and even though the winter was rough and at times the roads impassable only one appointment was missed. At Cardigan the three o'clock service was a touching one, and many tearful eyes bore testimony to the close bond between pastor and people. At 7.30 p. m. a full house greeted Dr. Genge at Montague, St. Andrews Church, of all classes, the Christian Church congregation was well represented and the pastor Rev. Mr. Stiff led in the opening prayer. The subject of the evening's discourse was "The Apostolic Commendation" from Acts 20:Verse 32. Reviewing the past of the Church, its faith, its struggles, and the splendid progress made, Dr. Genge led his people to heights sublime with the splendid vision of future glories. Deep was the impression made, and deeper still the sorrow of a people who had learned to love the pastor for his work sake. Dr. Genge has left a memorial on that field that will remain long after his ministerial work has finished. Dr. Genge intended going to California, had he sold his splendid property at Southport, but not having sold, will make his headquarters at his home, Southport, and do supply work through the winter.

INSIDIOUS EYE STRAIN

We use this adjective advisedly.

Sufferers from Eye-strain may have perfect vision and therefore do not suspect the presence of any eye defect.

The motive power of the entire human organism is Nerve Energy.

Normal eyes, it is computed utilize about 20% of this Nerve Energy, but when Eye-strain is present, a much larger proportion is required. Hence defective eyes, through their consumption of an excessive amount of Nerve Energy may seriously affect the functioning of other organs of the body and produce ill health.
