Could Not Sleep on Account of Itching. Healed by Cuticura.

"I worked in the fields and my head was full of dust. Soon pimples began to appear which itched awfully. I could not sleep on account of the itching and burning. I scratched my head and sometimes the pimples would bleed and then cause sore eruptions. My hair fell out until I was almost bald.

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample of each. They proved to be good so I purchased more and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) John Romanchuk, Stry, Alberta.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE

MONTREAL, March 5—(By The Canadian Press)—Stocks failed to give a very impressive display during today's session of the Montreal Stock Exchange and moved along in the same rut that held changes last week to narrow amounts. A few stocks managed to gain enough support to break through the pressure of profit taking sales and surge forward to new highs. But in general the changes were of minor fractional dimensions. Volume was slightly lighter than normal, 20,000 shares changing hands during the day.

Hollinger, International Nickel and a few more were at record tops for the year and longer. Hollinger, the feature of trading last week when it recorded an advance for the six days of more than $2.00, advanced again to sell at 6.50, which constituted a net gain over last week's final quotations of 40 cents. Odd lot sales were made slightly above this level.

Nickel was in heavy demand especially in the latter part of the day, and after holding around 24.00 for the greater portion of the session, shot upward to 24.25, a new high and 25 cents higher than Saturday. Smleters sold at a record top of 60, up 3 points. B. C. Power was another strong issue, closing with a gain of a point at 3 although it was not in exceptionally heavy demand. Canadian Industrial Alcohol "B" firmed 1-8 at 15 3-4 and Canadian Bronze 1-2 at 25 1-2 while Howard Smith common was 1-4 higher at 9 1-2. Wabasso cotton rose 5 points at 35.

Dominion Coal preferred suffered a reaction to fall a point at 44 and many fractional losses were scattered over the list. General Steel Wares at 5 1-4 and Brazil'an at 1 3-4 both declined 1-4 while Bathurst was off 3-8 at 7 3-4. Losses ranging up to half a point and more were shown by Canada Cement, Foundation Company, B. C. Packers and many more.

Sales 20,124. Bonds $7,650.

PRODUCE

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, March 5—One of the broadest single day declines in several weeks was experienced by egg prices on the Montreal dairy and produce market today. Fresh eggs which fell five to six cents late last week plunged a similar amount today. Graded shipments in carlots or less became generally 34 cents a dozen for A-large, 32 cents for A medium and 31 cents for A pullets. Mild weather, heavier receipts and prospects of continued heavy arrivals forced prices lower.

The butter market was quiet and held unchanged at 29½ to 30 cents a pound for carlots or less.

Current Ontario cheese brought 11 to 11½ cents a pound. The potato market firmed slightly, Quebecs bringing $1.10 to $1.25 per 80 pound bag and New Brunswick mountains $1.15 to $1.25. Prince Edward Island mountains in 90 pound bags sold for $1.30 to $1.35.

GRAIN

(Canadian Press)

CHICAGO, March 5—In the absence of anything in President Roosevelt's NRA address today that seemed to apply directly to grain markets, wheat and other cereals underwent downturns.

A decrease of 2,575,000 bushels in the United States wheat visible supply total was of some effect toward imparting comparative firmness to prices toward the last. Today's reduction of the visible supply left the total supply at the lowest level since July 1929.

Washington announcement of the Supreme Court's refusal to review the court's decision against supension of the Chicago Board of Trade came too late to be a market factor.

Wheat closed easy, at the same as Saturday's finish to ¼ cent lower, corn 1-1⅝ down, oats ⅝-½ down and provisions unchanged to 7 cents decline.

WINNIPEG, March 5—Futures prices held comparatively firm on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today in response to strength at Liverpool and continued export sales of Canadian wheat. At the close the market was unchanged to ¼ cent ower.

May wheat wound up at 69½ with July option at 70⅝ cents. It was difficult to get confirmation of actual export sales but the pit trade suggested purchase of at least 500,000 bushels.

Buying in connection with the foreign sales was the main prop in the market and with the backing of strong Liverpool prices, quotations here held small gains most of the day. In the closing stages the distant option wavered a little.

Offerings were not heavy at any time and Chicago appeared to be the chief source of pressure. Volume of trade was not large.

Liverpool owed its firmness to smaller world shipments and closed ¼ to ⅝d higher. Chicago was off fractionally.

Cash grains trading was dull. Interest lagged in coarse grains and quotations softened fractionally.

IN MEMORIAM

BEATRICE CAMPBELL

On February 12, 1934, a feeling of sadness was cast on the people of Canoe Cove and surrounding districts when it was learned that Beatrice Campbell, the only and beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald N. Campbell, had passed away at the early age of twenty-four years. She was taken suddenly ill on November 7th with a nervous breakdown and was carefully nursed for almost three months at home, but owing to bad roads and a hard winter it was impossible to have a doctor at all times and they were advised by doctors and others to have her taken to a hospital, where she could have doctors and a nurse at all times, but God willed otherwise, and on the third day after her removal, she contracted congestion of the lungs and peacefully passed away.

The funeral service was from her home at Canoe Cove and was largely attended. The service was conducted by the Rev. G. C. Webster, of Zion Church, Charlottetown, who spoke comforting words to the bereaved. Belief in God brings us comfort today because the loved one who has been called home believed in God and lived up to that belief. We sorrow not as those without hope because we know what is our loss is her gain. That sweet life which we learned to love is not dead, but has passed on to the larger life beyond the vale. May the memory of her sweet life lead us all to set our affections on the things that are above where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Our young friend has gone to be with him in the home of many mansions.

Beatrice received her early education at Canoe Cove School and at the age of fifteen passed entrance to Prince of Wales College from where she graduated with honors in the year 1926. She went back to Prince of Wales College in the year 1927-1928, when she received first class license. She taught school at New Argyle and Cavendish for a short time. She was a member of Lady Patricia L. O. B. A. A beautiful wreath was laid on the casket from the Lodge. They also conducted part of the service.

Besides a sorowing father and mother she leaves to mourn, a brother Colin and a sister-in-law. The pall bearers were Everett MacKenzie, Archie Murley, John MacNevin, Hughie Darrach, J. O. MacNevin and Colin MacFadyen. Interment was at Canoe Cove Cemetery.

"Mama Loves Papa", Family Comedy, Here

Mary Boland-Charlie Ruggles Win Honors for Fun in Capital's Giggle-Dispenser; Built Around Home.

Mama will giggle—papa will roar—and the whole family will have a swell time seeing "Mama Loves Papa," a Paramount picture aimed at your funny-bone.

"Mama Loves Papa" opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre with a cast starring those two champion fun-makers, Charlie Ruggles and Mary Boland. Norman MacLeod, directed this giggle-riot which features George Barbier, Lilyan Tashman, Walter Catlett and Ruth Warren.

Right after their success as a very homespun-comedy team in the famous "Night of June 13," Paramount vowed to put this pair of cooing love-birds together again—and "Mama Loves Papa" is the hysterical result. Charlie Ruggles, of course, is hesitant "Papa", while Mary Boland plays a twittering "Mama."

"Mama Loves Papa" is a family farce—a glee-spree of married life, and it gives the low-down on the two head-men of every family.

The story tells of the misadventures of a papa who's afraid of his job and a mama who thinks he's the greatest man on earth. And just as sure as mama is riding in the clouds, papa put his foot into trouble and loses his job. A series of circumstances combine to make him bump into success, and mama thinks he's greater than ever.

"Mama" Loves Papa" is a perfect show for a couple who want to laugh. Without a serious moment, it draws a satirical picture of Mr. & Mrs. American Family—an uproarious comedy.

Lillian Harvey In "My Lips Betray" At Prince Edward

Lilian Harvey, star of a number of Continental photoplays, who has already taken America's motion picture audiences by storm with her role in "My Weakness," opened yesterday at the Prince Edward Theatre in "My Lips Betray", her second production for Fox Film. In this picture, specially adapted to her versatile talents, she has John Boles as her leading man.

The story is laid in a strange and mythical setting, and the principal characters are a romantic king and a charming cabaret entertainer. Through an error perpetrated by the royal, if tipsy, chauffeur, rumors begin flying about that this young girl who is on the verge of being evicted by her landlady for non-payment of rent is really the king's favorite. Things change with amazing rapidity. Instead of being a poverty-stricken entertainer, the girl becomes the centre of everyone's attention. She is dined and wined and feted and decorated and, entirely against her will, is forced into accepting the situation. She must play the part if only to keep the people around her happy.

The king finally hears about the rumor and decides to investigate for himself. He goes to see the young woman who is supposed to be his favorite and put a stop to her ruse. But he finds a girl who captivates him completely and makes him fall a victim to her indomitable charm. He finally decides to let rumor and romance take their courses.

The cast in support of Miss Harvey and Boles includes El Brendel Irene Browne." "My Lips Betray" is presented in co-operation with the local Knights of Pythias."

INFANT PRODIGY RECITES RHYMES

NEW YORK, March 5—(C.P.)—"Who are your favorite authors?" George S. Schuyler, Negro writer asked and turned to his two and one-half year old daughter.

"Nietzsche, Dostoievsky and Flaubert," Phillippa Duke Schuyler replied with no hesitation and a slight lisp. "Of course, that's just a joke," Mr. Schuyler explained. "She really hasn't read any of them."

But goldenbrown Phillippa, who was born August 2, 1931, passed the next hour in her home proving to newspaper folk that she could read and write, could spell hippopotamus, rhinoceros and Mississippi and recite verses from the "Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam."

In a bright apartment, perched on a bluff far above the shivering hunger of Harlem, the little Negro girl has been acquiring knowledge from the time she could walk. "When she was 20 months old she knew all the colors of the spectrum."

When one of her parents suggested that she should recite for the gathering Phillippa, without hesitation, swung into:

"Hello, five little toes on each foot
Five little fingers on each hand
Twelve little ribs on each side
Of each little girl in the land."

A newspaper woman, apparently not too impressed said "cute," but her eyes popped slightly when Phillippa went on:

"The moving finger writes; and having writ,
Moves on; nor all the piety and wit
Shall lure it back to cancel half a line
Nor all the tears wash out a word of it."

And to prove that she knew more of the rubayait, the little girl kept right on until her mother stopped her.
