Don't Bother with "Special Pastry Flour"

You can get the same flaky lightness in your Pie Crusts, Tarts and Cookies, with

BEAVER FLOUR

as you can with any pastry flour.

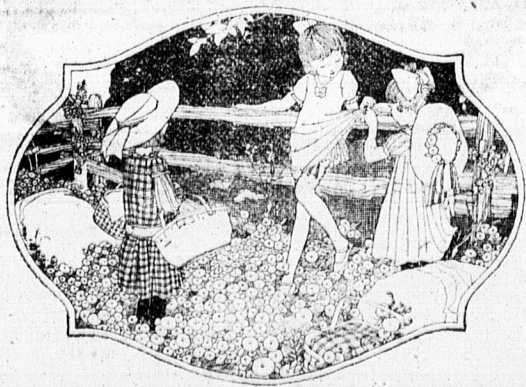

Beaver Flour is milled of the famous Ontario fall wheat, strengthened with western spring wheat.

And more than that—Beaver Flour makes a loaf of bread that is a joy to eat—with fine, even texture and a delicious, "honey" nutlike flavor, unknown to those who still use the tough, tasteless, western spring wheat flour. Make the change today—order a barrel of Beaver Flour at your grocer's and have really delicious Bread and Pastry.

THURSDAY

PLACING BUOYS.—The Stanley arrived at Charlottetown from Halifax on Monday evening and left yesterday at 1 o'clock to place the buoys around the island coast. The work will occupy some days.

FIRE.—The firemen were called out Tuesday for a fire on the roof of the building on Queen Street occupied by Mr. Peter Benoit. The firemen made a quick response and no great damage resulted.

SERIOUS FIRE.—A fire occurred at Bonshaw on May 22nd by which Mr. Daniel McPhail's dwelling house and contents were destroyed. The fire it is understood was from an overturned lamp.

ATTENDING CONVENTION.—Miss Elizabeth Drummond, Springfield and Mrs. Isaac Sharpe, Pleasant Valley, were passengers on the Car Ferry Tuesday morning en route to Moncton where they will attend the Mission Band and Ladies Aid Convention there.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.—Rev. H. R. Bell will begin a series of Evangelistic services in the Long Creek Baptist Church, beginning on June 11th. A card with the subjects to be dealt with during these meetings may be had at the services on next Lord's Day.

THE WRECK AT TRYON.—The wrecked schooner Josephine Swanton, which ran ashore on Tryon shoals several days ago is reported to have drifted off the reef yesterday and at last report the hull was drifting towards the Nova Scotia shore. It is understood that a considerable part of the deckload of lumber which was consigned to L. M. Poole & Co., Charlottetown has been saved.

ANOTHER WRECK.—The schooner Dwina, which arrived at Charlottetown yesterday morning with a cargo of lumber for L. M. Poole & Co., reports sighting a wreck off the Tryon Shoals. Only the ends of the spars were visible. The vessel previously reported ashore here, the Josephine Swanton is reported to have drifted off the shoal and heading towards the mainland shore, so that the inference is that this must be another wreck.

TRANSFERRED.—Mr. Paul R. Murphy, officer in charge of the Laboratory of Plant Pathology at the Experimental Station here has left temporarily to take charge of the Laboratory at St. Catharines, Ont. Mr. Murphy's new work will consist of investigations of diseases of potatoes, fruit trees and white pine. The work of the Charlottetown Laboratory will be continued as usual, including the inspection of potatoes for seed purposes.

FUNERAL SERVICES.—The funeral of the late Mr. Charles Thorne Brehaut left the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Leith Cowan, Lower Montague, on Tuesday afternoon for burial in the Murray Harbor cemetery. The deceased formerly lived in Murray Harbor, but eight years ago he left that place to take up his home with his daughter, the late Mrs. Leith Cowan, Lower Montague, where he has since lived. He leaves to mourn one son and three daughters, to whom the sincerest sympathy is extended.

WEDDING BELLS.—An event of much interest took place at St. Mary's Church Summerside Tuesday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock when Miss Emma G. Holland of Bedeque and Mr. James R. Forbes, of Tyne Valley were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. White. The bride looked very attractive in a dark blue silk with hat to match. The happy couple left by auto for Borden on a trip to Montreal and other Canadian cities accompanied by the best wishes of all.

DEATH REGRETTED.—The remains of the late Charles Fraser, of Georgetown were laid to rest in St. James R. C. cemetery on Tuesday morning, June 3rd. The death of Mr. Fraser, at the early age of 42 years, comes as a shock as his illness was of only two days' duration, and the sincerest sympathy is felt for the bereaved family. The deceased was in his usual state of health on Thursday morning, performing his regular duties as mail courier of the Georgetown Rural Route. The same day he was taken ill with a severe attack of meningitis, and he passed away Saturday afternoon. To the bereaved family we extend the sincerest sympathy for their heavy and bitter loss.

THE BRANT.—The C. G. S. Brant arrived in Charlottetown last evening from Cape Breton.

BREAKING THE LAW.—Auto owners who run their cars in the vicinity of Montague contrary to law on Tuesdays and Fridays are reminded that they will be prosecuted accordingly.

HOME FROM WEST.—Mr. Joseph J. Wedge, who spent the last three months at Fort William, Ont., returned home on Monday evening. He reports labor trouble throughout that province has become so critical and cost of living so high that many people are leaving for other places.

KING'S BIRTHDAY.—The King's Birthday was marked by beautiful weather and all in town who could do so hid them to the country by carriage, train or motor car, to enjoy the day at their favorite fishing haunts. The holiday was widely observed throughout the Dominion. The King's Birthday is now a statutory holiday the same as Christmas or July 1st and should be observed in a thoroughly whole hearted and loyal manner. The citizens as a whole are evidently strongly in favor of this holiday being thus observed, as the stores in Charlottetown which were open all morning received a very slim patronage and decided about noon to "put up the shutters."

WEDDING BELLS.—A pretty wedding was celebrated in St. Dunstan's Cathedral yesterday morning at 5:15 when Katherine E. Rundstrom, daughter of Mrs. Leslie Williams, 78 Douglas Street, was united in marriage to Mr. Stephen T. Doyle of New Glasgow, N. S., quite a number of friends being present to witness the ceremony performed by Rev. Father McQuaid. The bride who was charmingly gowned in a tailored suit of blue silk wore a black Mary Pickford hat and maribou fur and was attended by Miss Ada Parkman, wearing a blue tailored suit and becoming hat. The groom was attended by Mr. Fred Duffy. The happy young couple left by the Car ferry on a honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia before taking up their residence in New Glasgow. The bride who was a valued employee of the Guardian Office received many lovely gifts including a china tea set from her fellow workers with whom she was a favorite. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was gold set ring and to the groomsmen an engraved gold pocket knife. The best wishes of a host of friends follow Mr. and Mrs. Doyle to their new home.

Corp. Hughes has been notified that the following soldiers arrived in Quebec yesterday and will likely arrive in Charlottetown tonight

E. McKenzie, Canoe Cove
J. D. McKinnon, 209 Water Street
Jack Morrison, Malpeque
R. E. Leard, Pisquid Mills
L. F. Buote, Summerside
John Gaudin, St. Louis
H. M. Henderson, Fernwood
J. E. Purchase, Mount Vernon
M. Rose, Souris

A number of Island soldiers, who have been serving overseas, returned during the past few nights.

Among the number were the following: Messrs. J. T. Ross, Flat River; M. Acorn, Dundas, and C. B. Watts, Pleasant Grove, who reached Charlottetown Saturday night; G. W. Ross, Vernon River, and M. McCarthy, of Souris, who arrived Monday night, W. W. Myers, Mount Albion, Lot 48, who arrived last night.

One of the above is a bad hospital case, Pte. Ross, of Vernon River, whose face was terribly injured by a bursting shell.

Another recent arrival was Lieut. Neil M. Rattee, son of Rev. E. J. Rattee, former Presbyterian pastor at Malpeque.

Lieut. Rattee left here with the 105th, and just returned from Matapedia, Que., where his parents now reside.

Many will learn with regret of the death of Mr. William P. Hunt, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Montreal, which occurred yesterday morning. He was the eldest son of the late Mr. Richard Hunt, of Summerside, and was widely and favorably known in banking and commercial circles. He entered the Bank of Nova Scotia in 1881 at Halifax, and rose very rapidly, becoming in a few years manager at Woodstock, N. B. Later he was appointed manager at Kingston, Jamaica, and after eight years' service there was transferred to the management in Montreal in 1902, a position which he filled with marked ability. About six months ago he was taken seriously ill, and was obliged to retire, it was hoped, but temporarily, from active duty. Lately his condition improved and he had hopes of making a visit to his former home in Summerside, a hope fondly shared by his sisters and brother, until suddenly dispelled by a telegram yesterday morning announcing a turn for the worse and his death.

The late Mr. Hunt was a general favorite wherever known. In Montreal he had a wide circle of very warm friends, both in commercial and social circles, and his death at the comparatively early age of 57, in the prime of life and usefulness, will be widely regretted. There are left to mourn one brother, Mr. Louis B. Postmaster at Summerside, and four sisters, Mrs. James B. Hegan, Charlottetown; Mrs. R. P. Mussen, Ontario and the Misses Mary E. and Flora in Summerside, to all of whom The Guardian tenders sincere sympathy in the loss of a worthily loved brother.

This afternoon, after a funeral service at the home of Mr. D. S. Walker, where he resided, the body accompanied by Mr. R. H. Hegan, nephew of the deceased, will be forwarded to Summerside by the Ocean Limited, and will arrive Friday evening. Arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.
