PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Branch Offices in Summerside and Alberton.

—Miss Mary Schuman, Bedouin, left yesterday on a short visit to Alberton, N. S.
 —For Sale—A good barn, 5x20 feet. Apply at Guardian, Summerside.
 —The funeral of the late Mrs. Hibbert will take place Thursday afternoon at two o'clock to St. Eleonor's.
 —Ask for G. W. Robinson's White Rose flour, 100 per cent Manitoba. Gives the best satisfaction every time. 5-2414.
 —The Guardian regrets to say that Mrs. Angus McSwain, Summerside, is seriously ill. Last night her conditions were considered serious.
 —There was an exhibition in the window of the Owl Drugstore, Kensington, last night, a speckled beauty weighing three and a half pounds. The lucky owner was Dr. Fred A. Lefurgey, Summerside.
 —Let us show you our assortment of art requisites in Brushes, Vases and Tapestry, sizes 2x3, 3x3, 3x4, and 3x4, priced from $5.00 to $24.00 each.—R. J. Holmes, Limited, 5-2247.
 —The S. S. Dagoid of the Dobbell Line, made her first call at Summerside yesterday morning with a full freight from Montreal. The Dagoid is a fine steamer and one of the largest that visit this port. She took away for St. John's, Nfld., 25 tons hay and 200 bags oats and potatoes.
 —Rev. Mr. Crowell who ministered with much acceptance to the Baptist congregations of Summerside and Bedouin for the past two Sundays, left yesterday morning on a return to his home in Liverpool, N. S. There is a hope as pressed among those who heard him here, that Mr. Crowell may be persuaded to accept the pastorate of this congregation.
 —The death of Humphrey Gorrell, of Glenwood, L. S., which occurred on the 21st of last month, will be learned with regret by his friends and acquaintances. He left behind him a family consisting of a widow, and seven sons, and four daughters—these being Alfred, Simeon, Irving, Amos, Garfield, Lincoln, and Thomas; and the daughters Mrs. Thomas Boulton, Grand Digue; Mrs. Daniel Morhead, Sydney, C. B.; Mrs. George Houlton of the North West; and Eleanor, unmarried.
 —A very pretty wedding took place May 15, at the residence of James Stewart, Uplandville, O'Leary, when his daughter, Maggi E. was united in marriage with George Oldfield Webb, Woodstock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. M. Fenton of St. Peter's Episcopal church, Alberton. The bride was prettily attired in a gown of white crepe de chine and was accompanied by the near relatives and friends. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Winnie Crutcher. Many hearty expressions of good will were extended to the bride and groom. The contracting parties are held by all who know them.
 —The body of Noah Laird who died a few days ago in Boston, was brought over by the Empress last night and is waiting to O'Leary.
 —How much money did you lose? I have been calling on liver out for 30 years a pilot all winter.—John F. McNelly, 5-1838.
 —The Empress returned last night from Point du Chene at about 11 o'clock with about fifty passengers. She had forty passengers going.
 —The outward cargo of the Empress yesterday included twenty horses and 600 bags of quinine, besides several cars of sundries.
 —The remains of Eugene Gully who died in Boston, were brought over by the Empress last night and forwarded to St. Peter's Bay.
 —Miss Margie Massey returned to Summerside last night from Montreal, where she had been attending McGill University during the winter.
 —Barge for hatching, Bull and white Leghorns, Barred Plymouth Rocks, Pekin Ducks, 50 cents per 15. Brewer Robinson, 5-2038.
 —The commission of the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island, which met on the 20th at West Cape and O'Leary, adjourned its meeting in the hall of the church at Summerside on Monday the 27th inst. at 10 a. m. Members of said commission will please accept this the only notice. It is important that all should be present.—T. F. Falkner, chairman.
 —Stanley Compton, St. Eleonor's, had fifteen sheep killed by dogs a few nights ago. Ernest Compton of the same place, also had five or six killed. The owner of the dog or dogs is so far unknown; but under the circumstances, and considering the relative value of sheep and dogs, would it not be advisable to make the dog population a little less numerous than it is?
 —Mrs. Hibbert, widow of the late Richard Hibbert, Summerside, passed away yesterday evening after an illness of about six weeks. Deceased who was about 60 years of age, was an estimable lady and had resided in Summerside about 40 years. She leaves many friends who will sincerely mourn her death. Two sons survive, Bradford W. in San Francisco and Willard in Sydney.
 —Heath Strong who was admitted as an attorney-at-law at the Easter term of the Supreme Court, has entered into partnership with J. E. Wyatt, Summerside. Mr. Strong has served his term as student, first in the office of Neil McLeod, and for the past two years in the office of J. E. Wyatt. He is a young man of excellent character and of undoubted ability and will no doubt make a success of his chosen profession. The Guardian wishes him every success.
 —The water works commission's statement as to the cost of waterworks and sewerage system, will be in the hands of the city today. In all thirty six tenders, have been received. From these the total cost of installation, including land, damages, commissioners' salaries and all other incidental expenses, is placed at $95,081. The yearly revenues from all sources are estimated at $2070, while the operating expenses, including fuel, interest, office salaries and depreciation are placed at 7153.48. This would leave a deficit on the yearly operating expenses of only 488.45.
