Big Prizes go to Massachusetts at Waterville Races

WATERVILLE, Me., Aug. 29.—The new England fair circuit races started here today on a slightly heavy track. Massachusetts entries took the big end of the purses. Lester Dore, of Boston, landed his own mare, San Verona, a winner in the 2:18 trot after dropping a heat to Billy Fleming's The Nitimate, Merlyn, the favorite failing to reach. In the 2:20 pace Arrow Tranby, owned by S. B. Hastings, of Boston, who was beaten by the Portland mare, Wilvena C., at Bangor cleaned her up in three straight. The colt races were something of a novelty as all five starters were the get of Diamond Q., 2:12 1-4. Summary: 2:18 Trot, Purse $500.

San Verona, b m, by (San Francisco (Dore) 1 1 1 1 The Ultimate, b g, by (The Exponent (Fleming) 4 2 1 4 Bedyln, b m, (Pottle) 3 2 3 2 Peggy Peters, bm (Day) 2 7 4 3 Sister Azoff McDonald and Adelle Echo also started. Time—2:15 1-4, 2:15 1-2, 2:15 1-2.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Harry Wills, New Orleans heavyweight, tonight knocked out "Tut" Jackson, of Washington Court House, Ohio, after two minutes and five seconds of fighting in the third round of their scheduled fifteen-round match at Eubel's Field, Brooklyn.

A hard swinging right to the kidney sent Jackson to the canvas. He tried hard at the count of eight to rise, then fell on his face and was carried to his corner by Wills. Jackson had not landed more than three hard punches in the contest, while the New Orleans man had pounded Jackson's head and body continually. It was the first time that Jackson in his short pugilistic career had been knocked out. Jackson became known after knocking out some forty odd lesser lights in the heavyweight division. Most notable of these knockouts was that of Sam Langford, the "Boston tar baby," who several years ago was one of the leading heavyweights of the world. 14.

In the other two matches, Robert T. Jones and Jessa Sweetzer vanquished W. B. Torrance and C. V. L. Hooman three up and two to play, and Max R. Merston and W. C. Fownes, Jr., beat the British combination of John Caven and W. Willis MacKenzie, two and one.
