The Worst Is Over

(Winnipeg Tribune)

Officially substantiated figures from Ottawa show that some 13,000 more persons were at work in Canada on June 1st than on May 1.

Payroll lists of 7,865 firms afforded the following employment figures: June 1, 940,879 employees; May 1, 927,437 employees.

This increase in employment may make little apparent difference to the situation. There may be many communities in which this alleviation of conditions may not have been experienced at all. There may, in fact, be communities in which conditions are considerably worse than they were a month ago.

But what these figures do show is the tendency towards a gradual and natural decrease in unemployment throughout the Dominion. They prove definitely that the situation is improving, that Canada is decidedly better off than she was last month.

They show, beyond doubt, that the worst is over and that recovery is in sight.

A Liberal Tribute

The Toronto Globe's staff correspondent at Ottawa pays this wholehearted tribute to the Prime Minister for the heavy load of work he is carrying in Parliament:

"Whatever political views one may hold of Premier Bennett, he earns his salary.

"Through all this week's sweltering heat he has carried on in the Commons, not only the onerous duties of Prime Minister, but the equally onerous duties of Minister of Finance.

"Hour after hour in the House he carries the brunt of Opposition questions and criticisms, answering them at outset as Prime Minister, and then continuing all through the afternoon and evening piloting his taxation legislation through the various stages. He literally talks hours on end each day.

"Today was but a repetition of yesterday and several days previous, when, after dealing as Prime Minister with important matters coming up on the orders, he had to continue on and on through committee. In Hansard of the last few days the words and thoughts of one man—Premier Bennett—must occupy half the space in the many hundreds of columns."

BUSINESS MEN

for our products which will prove of untold benefit and value to the farmers of this Province.

FINAL APPEAL

There is a lot more, Ladies and Gentlemen, that I would like to say to you but I am not going to take up your time any longer. Just let me remind you that tomorrow is the day of opportunity for you. If you want to see this country run by a Government capable of conducting the affairs of this Province on good sound business principles, vote for Mr. J. D. Stewart and his candidates who have promised to give you a sound, progressive government, and let me tell you that by electing the Stewart Government you will be making the greatest contribution to your country that it is possible for you to make.

Just one word for the two candidates for Charlottetown-Royalty, although they do not need any words from me. The unanimous vote given to these gentlemen on Monday day was a worthy tribute and one worthily deserved. The name of Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan is a household word in this Province, and I will go as far as to say that there is no man in Prince Edward Island who gives more of his time in public service and for the welfare of the community as a whole, than does our friend Dr. MacMillan, and without any thought of remuneration. He never thinks of himself. His chief thought is to develop the work and to promote the helpful influences of good Societies as the Red Cross, the Children's Aid, Crippled Children and many others.

Mr. Allan Stewart also stands high in the estimation of the people of this community. He is one of our leading citizens and a successful business man, and I consider he is well qualified for the position of honor he is seeking, and I know you will make no mistake in placing your trust and confidence in both these gentlemen. Prince Edward Island needs Mr. J. D. Stewart, Prince Edward is and needs men of the calibre that are running as Conservative candidates, and I have enough faith in your judgment and intelligence to believe that tomorrow you will mark your ballots for the Conservative candidates making J. D. Stewart Premier of this Province.

REUNION
2nd. OVERSEAS CAN. SEIGE BATTERY

Armouries in Charlottetown, on Thursday, August 26th at 9 P. M. Everybody on parade! Eat, drink and be merry!
