ALEX. CAMPBELL, Manager. J. S. HINTON, Auditor.

We the directors of the P. E. I. Agricultural Mutual Fire Insurance Co. are pleased to present the policy-holders with the nineteenth annual statement. The business transacted during the past year, and the Financial Statement just presented, will, we are sure be satisfactory to all who desire the prosperity of our company. All matters that came before the Board, were dealt with to the best of our ability, and always in the interest of the company, so that we are able to report net profits for the year just closed of $2578.95 the largest in the history of our company. The amount of funds now on hand for the security of policy holders amounts to $19405.16.

Our business for the year was 1094 new policies and renewals representing 900,000. The experience of the past nineteen years, teaches us, that business capacity, and care in the selection of risks by agents and directors, are the necessary qualifications for continued success.
