On the 12th February, 1908, in the Anglican Church Cemetery, Rustico ville, there was laid to rest the remains of Mrs. Mary Bowen. Here surrounded by friends her body was laid in the earth alongside her husband who died many years ago. She was born at Wheatley River over 8(years ago, and has the oldest native of the place living in the vicinity She was the eldest of a family o eight children born to Kenneth Mac Kenzie and Eliza his wife. Her father dying 60 years ago she nobly did her part with her mother in caring for her younger brothers and sisters. What is now the beautiful and prosperous settlement of Wheatley River was then a mere fringe of huts along the margin of the River Nearly all of these were French. There were no roads and a dense forest covered the land in all directions. Early in life she was converted to God under the ministry of the Rev. Donald McDonald, and during a long life of great hardship and sorrow her faith in her Saviour never wavered. In her life work she appeared to be singularly unselfish to do for and help others seemed a part of her nature. She intensely loved her home and children. They in turn returned that love in an unusual degree. Her son William came from his home in distant Colorado, expecting to see her alive. This was denied him, but he was in time to see her body laid to rest. Her daughter Elizabeth devoted her life to her mother's care. She left three brothers and two sisters to mourn the loss of a loving sister,—Mrs. Flora Lawson in British Columbia; Mrs. Henry Murray in Fredericton, P. E. I.; Donald in Charlottetown; John in Boston and Fred in Hartford, Conn.

This Morning Starts

The Sale of Wall Paper Remnants

EVERY spring we have a clearing up of all our wall paper lines. All the lines of which we have too small a lot to include in our new samples we just discard, tie them up in bundles sufficient to do an average room, place enough border with each lot, then mark the price down one half or thereabout.

200 Lots Ready This Morning

Including all kinds of paper, paper for kitchens, bed rooms, parlours, dining rooms, halls, paper for every purpose, selling at prices that make home brightening a pleasure.

We would suggest that you come as early as you can the lots will be on sale at nine o'clock, and if you leave the buying too long you may meet our delivery man taking the very one you want, to your neighbours.

Hundreds of new patterns from France, the United States, and from Canadian factories are in and ready for you also.
