Brigadier Price At Spring Valley

Mr. John H. Price, Progressive Conservative candidate for Prince County was enthusiastically welcomed in Spring Valley on Monday evening, May 30th.

Mr. Keith Harrington presided, and called upon Mr. Ernest Strong, M.O. K.C., who introduced Mr. Price, giving an outline of the candidate's record politically and internationally, and also in the two World Wars.

Mr. Price gave an outline of the issues involved, and the enthusiastic reception of his address was evidenced by the applause. He said it was time people chose between bureaucracy and democracy.

This address was followed by one delivered by Mr. Peter Gallant, Esq. Mr. Price's address was received with much applause.

Mrs. W. J. Harrington, in a brief address emphasized the importance of women's part in the campaign, stressing the political convictions of women, who have made notable contributions in their various spheres of activity.

In closing, she said it was an evident fact, that if personality were a large percent success, Mr. Price could be assured of his success in the coming election.

The ovation of the audience was an expression of appreciation to Mrs. Harrington for her interesting address.

26th Anniversary Of O'Leary United Church

—On Sunday, May 29, the twenty-sixth (26th) anniversary of O'Leary United Church was fittingly commemorated with three special services in the morning, afternoon and night. The special speaker at the morning and night services was Rev. Dr. Ross Flemington of Sackville, N.B., President of Mount Allison University, Rev. K. G. Sullivan of Summerside, and the special speaker in the afternoon and the Maie Choir of the church rendered special music. This was their first appearance in O'Leary and evening there was standing room and the congregation hopes to have the privilege of hearing them again in the not too distant future. The O'Leary Choir, under the fine leadership of Mrs. J. M. MacWilliams rendered special music at the morning and afternoon services which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated. In the evening, Miss Ina Phillips, teacher at Knutsford, sang a solo, which like the other special numbers of the choir, was a veritable sermon in song. In the afternoon and evening there was standing room and the large and spacious church was filled to overflowing with worshippers from O'Leary and the other three appointments, on the Pastoral Charge, Brae, West Devon and Bloomfield, besides visitors from Casumpeque, Alberton, Montrose, Elmsdale, Summerside, etc. In the morning there was also a large congregation. Both Dr. Flemington and Rev. Sullivan congratulated the congregation of having their lovely new pews as did Rev. E. Vessey of Murray Harbour, chairman of Presbytery and the former ministers, Rev. Robert Murray, now retired at Bedford, N.S.; Rev. S. B. Profit of Beaverton, Ont.; Rev. A. F. Baker of Avondale, N.S. and Rev. George Gough of Cavendish, P.E.I. The splendid sermons by the visiting speakers were inspiring, instructive and devotional and made a lasting impression upon the congregations. The minister of the church, Rev. W. G. Dickson presided and cordially welcomed the visiting speakers and singers.
