A good girl is wanted for housework at 208 Fitzroy Street.

Miss Annie McLean, North Wiltshire was in the City yesterday.

The tide will be high this afternoon at 4.14 and tomorrow afternoon at 5.47.

J. E. B. McCready, editor of The Guardian arrived last night from Moncton.

J. J. Hughes, M. P., arrived from Ottawa last night and is at the Victoria.

Cricketers are reminded of the game this afternoon. Stumps pitched at half past two sharp.

Mrs. W. T. Anderson of Morel leaves this morning to visit friends in Truro and Amherst, N. S.

This week Dr. Strickland and George Moore, City had a very successful fishing trip to Bay Fortune.

All matter of an advertising nature for next issue of The Guardian must reach this office early today to insure its insertion.

The May issue of Rod & Gun contains a nicely written article on Fox Hunting in P. E. Island by J. D. Jenkins, of this City.

Tomorrow Canon Simpson will keep the silver jubilee of his ordination and the collections during the day will be for the North West Missions.

The Victorias of this City play a football match with the New Glasgow team at New Glasgow on Victoria Day. Return fare to New Glasgow $1.25.

Any person desiring to purchase a strong second hand double seated carriage at a bargain should apply at this office at once. Rear seat can be removed, thus making it an excellent market wagon.

Mrs. (Rev.) John Corbin, of Joggins, N. S., daughter of W. Bears, of the Dominion Marine Dept., Charlottetown, accompanied by her two children, arrived by the str. Northumberland last night on a visit to her parents.

Remember the big excursion to Pictou and New Glasgow on the beautiful steamer Northumberland on Monday, Victoria Day. Steamer leaves Charlottetown at 8 o'clock and returning will leave Pictou at 5.30 and Pictou Landing at 6 o'clock.

E. L. Henry of Boston, who has been connected with the dairy and poultry business on P. E. Island for several years, has decided to establish a business of this kind in Sydney. His farm is situated on the Mira road, a short distance from the city.

There will be a cricket match at Victoria Park on Monday next beginning at half past one between married and single. It is pleasing to note how many devotees of the willow prefer a game at home to a country outing. An interesting match may be expected.

Advertisers are again reminded that their "business locals" as well as their "changes" must be received at this office not later than one o'clock sharp of each week day, exclusive of statutory holidays, to insure insertion in next issue. All received later than the above hours will also appear when they do not interfere with the setting in type of the regular news of the day.

THE RETURN OF THE YEAR.

Again the warm, bare earth, the noon
That hangs upon her healing scars,
The midnight round, the great red moon,
The mother with her brood of stars

The mist-rack and the wakening rain,
Blown soft in many a forest way,
The yellowing elm trees, and again
The blood-root in its sheath of gray.

The vesper-sparrow's song, the stress
Of yearning notes that gush and stream,
The lyric joy, the tenderness,
And once again the dream! the dream!

A touch of far-off joy and power,
A something it is life to learn,
Comes back to earth, and one short hour
The glamor of Gods' return.

This life's old mood and cult of care
Falls smitten by an older truth,
And the gray world wins back to her
The rapture of her vanished youth.

Dead thoughts revive, and he that heeds
Shall hear, as by a spirit led,
A song among the golden reeds:
"Thy gods are vanished, but not dead!"

For one short hour, unseen yet near,
They haunt us, a forgotten mood,
A glory upon mead and mere,
A magic in the lealless wood.

At morning we shall catch the glow
Of Pan's quiver on the hill,
And somewhere in the glades I know
That Pan is at his piping still.

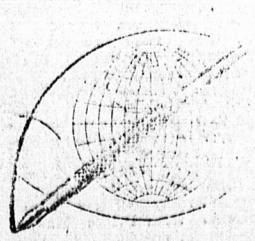
Appetite Gone--Nervous Badly Run Down

A Strong Moral Well Exemplified. In Mrs. Wilson's Case.

Like thousands of other people at this season of the year Mrs. E. P. Wilson was tired and worn out—winter sorely tried her health and vigor. But now she is robust and well, eats well, sleeps well, feels invigorated and braced. "For some years, writes Mrs. Wilson of Watmore, P. Q. I suffered from systematic weakness, biliousness and depressing headaches. I could take little nourishment and grew thin and pale. If I ate a hearty meal the result was dreadful. Pains started at my chest and spread all through my body going across my stomach, back and right side. I was discouraged till a friend insisted on me taking Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They made a new woman of me, and for the past eight months my health has been perfect. For a good cleansing, rejuvenating medicine I urge everyone to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

There is extraordinary and magic power in Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they bring vigor, tone, health and spirits,—are compounded from the most wonderful and healing juices and essences in vegetable life—are safe for young and old, and guaranteed to kindle renewed activity and strength in every system that is weak, sickly or run down from kidney, liver, stomach or bladder trouble. Get Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut—today—twenty-five cents at all dealers.



Waterman's Ideal

Fountain Pens are recognized as the standard of excellence everywhere.

We introduced these pens here a number of years ago, and as a testimony to their excellence practically every pen dealer in Charlottetown has now adopted them in preference to other makes.

NEW STOCK

We have just opened a new assortment. Come in and try the new points

G. F. Hutcheson

Jeweler—Optician

Tweed McFadyen, who a short time ago sold his larm in North Granville has purchased and moved to the farm formerly owned by Neil McLeod, Bradalbane.

Louis Gaudet who left Charlottetown over a year ago, has secured a position as chief electrician for the Ignace Electic Light Company of Ignace, Ontario. Frank who left at the same time, is now fireman on the Canadian Northern Railway on the regular run between Rainy River and Winnipeg.

The "merry widow" is coming in for a great deal of attention and some censure in the public press. Many people object to this species of ladies headgear, principally in cities where there is lack of space. It is not likely such complaints will be heard in Charlottetown. Here the streets are wide, and when a mere man meets four or five maidens abreast and topped with the m. w's the mere man can step off the sidewalk and walk in the mud.

Mrs. Hogan, who has spent the past year with her son, Rev. J. P. Hogan, in Georgetown, P. E. I., is expected this week to make a visit at "Maplewood.' Truro. She will be accompanied by her daughter, Miss Amy Hogan, who has recently come out from England.

Arriving by the train last night were a number of young fishermen who had spent the afternoon out at a near-by trout stream. The boys were all armed with jointed bamboos, and were happy in the possession of some trout which had succumbed to their prowess.

The visit of the Prince of Wales to Canada will be followed with the keenest possible interest by all in England and the Empire. The Pageant and the other tercentenary celebrations at Quebec are to be carried out on a magnificent scale. Comparatively few persons will be able to see even a portion of these; but both they and the far greater number not so privileged will welcome the pictorial record which is to appear in that excellent weekly illustrated, The Graphic (London, sixpence weekly). The special artist and photographers of The Graphic will furnish a complete pictorial record of the celebrations, and there can be no doubt that the illustrations will form a valuable historical record of a noteworthy event in British history.

PRESCRIPTION FOR CURING. HICCUPS AAD HEARTBURN.

Nothing brings such magical relief as slowly sipping a few drops of Nerviline in sweetened water. Nerviline cures the conditions that cause the hiccups, just as it does all other disorders of the stomach and bowels. For stomach pains, bloating, indigestion and cramps nothing can equal the sure cure of Polson's Nerviline.
