BIG AERIAL BATTLE OVER GERMANY

Grand Jury Finds No Bill In Arson Case

Read of preparing for postwar rehabilitation was emphasized in the address by Mr. Justice A. E. Aeneas at the January term of the Supreme Court in Charlottetown yesterday, and strongly in his remarks were directed.

The Court opened for the January term at 11 a.m. and adjourned sine die at 5 o'clock.

No bill was found by the Grand Jury in the only indictment presented, that of the King vs. Earl Stanton Whitlock, charged with arson in connection with a fire in the Orville restaurant. On motion of Mr. R. R. Bell, the accused was discharged.

Another indictment docketed was against Wilfred Bradley, for robbery with violence. Attorney General M. R. McGulgan moved for an adjournment until the June term, on account of the absence of a material witness. He asked that the prisoner be released to appear on his own recognizance.

Mr. Lester O'Donnell, for the accused, objected on the ground that his client wished to be tried and return to his duties in the army without an indictment hanging over him. If the Crown was not prepared to proceed he would ask for a nolle prosequi. This was refused and the Attorney General's motion granted.

The Court: "I can't compel him to give his own recognizance, but I can grant the motion and if your client does not wish to get out he will have to stay in jail."

In the case of an appeal by William MacInnes, charged with driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated, the sentence was reduced by agreement from thirty ten days.

In an appeal from a conviction against Abbie Poulton under the Prohibition Act, Mr. O'Donnell applied for a reduction of the fine of $200 to $50, which he claimed was the amount imposed in similar cases. The Court, at the suggestion of the Attorney General, reduced the fine to $100.

Day And Night Assault Is Opened On Sofia

British And U. S. Bombers Operate From Airdromes In Southern Italy.

ALGIERS, Jan. 11—(AP)—British and United States bombers, operating from a network of airdromes in southern Italy, have opened a day and night onslaught on Sofia, capital of Bulgaria, in what may be a calculated campaign to knock that Nazi satellite nation out of the war and start a collapse of Hitler's unsteady empire.

Wellington bombers, "work horses" of the R. A. F., left Bulgaria's only important city a mass of blazing wreckage last night when they showered it with tons of explosives a few hours after fighter-escorted American heavyweights fought off between 40 and 50 Nazi fighters and blasted the capital with as great a load of bombs as struck London in any night of the 1940-41 German blitz.

The assault on Sofia opened the possibility that the Balkan capital, only 400 miles from new Allied bases, might be marked for obliteration unless the Bulgarians quickly retire from the war.

Allied ground forces, fighting steadily toward Rome and air bases even nearer, the enemy's heart, closed to within three miles of the German stronghold of Cassino today from the east and the south after

MONTREAL, Jan. 11—(CP)—Striking municipal white collar workers have met in a mass meeting tonight to continue their 22-day strike for higher wages.

Nazi Propaganda Chiefs Confer

LONDON, Jan. 11—(CP)—Nazi propaganda chiefs from all over Germany have met in Berlin to discuss the political and military situation with representatives of the government and the armed forces, the Berlin radio said today.

The broadcast said propaganda minister Goebbels delivered the final speech and that the conference also heard such important Nazis as Prof. Albert Speer, production chief, Admiral Karl Doenitz, Supreme Commander of the Navy, and Field Marshal Erhard Milch.

Declares Reserve Army Still Has Vital Role

OTTAWA, Jan. 11—(CP)—Major Gen. P. R. Phelan, director-general of Canada's Reserve Army who is back from a coast-to-coast tour of Reserve units, said today the need and importance of the Reserve still is "very great."

"And the enthusiasm, training schedules and turnouts I saw from Vancouver to Halifax convinced me the officers and men realize this fact," he said in an interview.

Gen. Phelan, stocky and with iron-grey hair and a quick decisive way of speaking, swung his legs under his chair as he answered questions about his 100,000 part-time soldiers administered by a nucleus of full-time paid personnel. There had been reports the Reserve army had lost its objective and was planning a modification of training schedules and makeup. These reports arose from the fact the threat of action against Canadian soil had been removed and from the reduction and reorganization of three active army divisions in Canada.

Youths in Reserve army ranks trained by veteran officers who a week's sustained offensive. American infantry stormed Mt. Di Piera about 1,500 yards from the village of Pervaro, four miles east of Cassino, and today were pushing down into the strong defenses of Cervaro itself.

Closing in from the southeast and south, British troops advanced another mile and completed capture of Mount Pecro, overlooking Cassino and the Garigliano river. Front reports said they still were going forward.

Patrol Activity

Action on the 8th Army front again was confined to patrol activity. Canadian troops on the Adriatic coastal road have advanced little more than three miles toward Pescara since they captured Ortona two weeks ago.

American two-engine bombers hit San Benedetto, 35 miles north of Pescara on the Adriatic coast, while dive-bombers destroyed six German vehicles, an ammunition truck, a tank and a locomotive north of Rome. Other strong Allied formations operated over the battle area and ranged far into northern Italy and southern France to attack enemy communications.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11—(CP)—President Roosevelt today asked congress to enact "a national service law which, for the duration of the war will prevent strikes, and make available additional quotas for essential war tasks.

The request, contained in his annual message to congress, was not unexpected. He said he had negotiated for three years before asking for such a law.

Now, he said, he was convinced that national service was necessary, not to win the war but to hasten victory and save American lives.

The President reiterated the existence of national service laws in Canada, Britain, Australia and New Zealand, and urged congress to make use of compulsory power.

He did not go into details of the law he proposed, but said he hopes to prevent strikes in the United States.

The President warned that "over-confidence and complacency are our greatest enemies." There could be no relaxation of effort based on any belief that the war was virtually won.

In addition to the national service law his specific requests for legislation called for:

1. A "realistic law" which will "all unreasonable profits."

2. Continuation of the Renegotiation Law now under fire in congress which enables the government to revise agreements with contractors found to be making undue war profits.

3. A floor under farm products to protect the consumer, applicable to all necessities.

4. Early re-enactment of the Stabilization Law which expedites the revision of contracts with the President said, "the country might just as well expect price chaos."

Germans Report Ciano Executed

BERNE, Switzerland, Jan. 11—(AP)—The German News Agency DNB reported from Verona today that Mussolini's son in law, Count Emilio De Bono and three other former members of the Fascist Grand Council were executed for "treason" shortly after 9 o'clock this morning.

The others executed were listed as Carlo Pareschi, Giovanni Marinelli and Luciano Gottardi.

The Lugano Gazette, was given a 30 year prisoner term.

Thirteen other members of the council who voted for Mussolini's ouster last July 23 were sentenced to death in absentia. All are believed to have escaped from the German occupied portion of Italy.

Ciano, who would have been 41 years old in March, was a relatively obscure diplomat until he married Mussolini's daughter, Edia, in 1939. He then rose rapidly, becoming his father in law's right-hand man and one of the wealthiest persons in Italy.

The DNB broadcast was the only report of the executions. Frontier accounts were vague and confused. One said Pope Pius had asked clemency for the condemned men; another said Ciano had been shot while attempting to escape. The latter was generally discounted, however.

The Lugano paper Corriere Del Ticino said the trial was a mockery, held secretly and attended only by a few close supporters of Mussolini.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11—(AP)—A Japanese authority, claiming to be "wonder" at the Allies' strategy in the South Pacific, says the best way to attack Japan is from the north.

ALLIES HAVE New Fighter

LONDON, Jan. 11—(CP)—A new type United States fighter plane, possibly capable of scoring bombers on the way to Berlin and back and believed to be the longest-range jet-engine plane in the world, now is in operation in the European theatre.

It presumably is a variety of the P-51 Mustang.

The Mustang first gained attention Aug. 19, 1942, in supporting the Dieppe raid where Canadian troops provided the main ground force. It since has been used successfully in R. C. sweeps over the continent and has mowed down scores of Axis planes in the Mediterranean and Pacific. It was first built by North American Aviation in 1940.

N. B. Announces Record Surplus

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 11—(CP)—All-time record surplus for New Brunswick was produced in the fiscal year ending Oct. 31, 1943. Hon. J. J. Hayes, provincial secretary-treasurer, announced today. The 1943 surplus was $1,742,950, being the fourth consecutive surplus by the Liberal government headed by Premier J. B. McNeil, K.C., and exceeded the previous year's record surplus by nearly $584,000. Actual revenue last year totalled $12,230,777, and expenditures $10,487,776.

Enemy Claims 123 Raiders Are Shot Down

Nazi claims are not confirmed by Allies; Three-hour running fight.

LONDON, Jan. 12—(Wednesday)—(AP)—Powerful formations of United States heavy bombers, escorted by Thunderbolts, Lightnings and new type long range fighters, battled through stormy weather and terrific German fighter opposition Tuesday to pound targets deep in Germany.

A special communique early today from Hitler's headquarters which was not confirmed by Allied sources claimed that 123 of the raiders were shot down. The German international information bureau claimed in a broadcast earlier that 80 of the four engine bombers were destroyed. A preliminary United States Army communique said the Americans encountered "strong fighter opposition" but made no mention of either American or German losses.

Later it was announced that another United States communique was expected about 9 a. m. today (4 a. m. E. D. T.)—considerably later than communique have been issued on most occasions in the past.

The United States bulletin said the attack was made on "northwest Germany" but Germans said the Americans struck at "central Germany." Neither identified the specific objectives.

Later it was announced that the Americans encountered "the loss of only nine planes."

A supplementary American bulletin described the mission as a three-hour running battle in which the great armada of bombers was subjected to continuous attack during the entire time it was over Germany.

Japs "Wonder" At Allies Strategy

NEW YORK, Jan. 11—(AP)—A Japanese authority, claiming to be "wonder" at the Allies' strategy in the South Pacific, says the best way to attack Japan is from the north.

An English-language broadcast from the Tokyo radio recorded today by the U. S. foreign broadcast intelligence service credited the suggestion to Admiral Ryozo Nakamura, one-time commander of the Japanese combined fleets.

War Situation Last Night

By Kirke L. Simpson, Associated Press War Analyst

A new threat to an all but trapped Nazi host in the lower Ukraine is developing rapidly with Russian advance guards already reported on or beyond the upper reaches of the Bug River southeast of Zhitomirka Junction.

At that point the last direct rail link for the Nazis, with Poland or Germany is virtually in sight of Soviet patrols. It lies less than 20 miles from any of four or five upper Bug crossings at which the Russians are striking on an indicated 40 mile front.

It began to look as though the Russian southwestward thrust has by-passed Vinnytsa and Zhitomirka to strike and cross the Odessa-Warsaw trunk line and push on to outflank the Dniester as well as the Bug in a single bold, sustained drive.

The last Russian advance points in that most critical sector are reported by Moscow were Voronovitsa and Nemirov. Both lie within 10 miles or less of the crossings of the upper Bug.

In strategic importance, the Russian-trumpeted success at Sarny Junction, nearly 40 miles deep in old Poland, is of less consequence. It completes the splitting up of German north and south fronts in Russia north and south of the Pripiet marshes, but a lull in the Russian attack still seems probable there while the vast annihilation battle to the south is fought out.

If the Russian drive by-passing Vinnytsa is in fact headed for the Dniester, it means that even that river line, marking the Ukrainian-Bessarabian border, is in immediate danger of being turned in the north. And at that point, Russian advance guards are not more than 300 miles from the Ploesti fields in Rumania, main Nazi source of high grade natural oil.

That is easy shuttle-bombing distance for Russian planes. The Rumanian oil fields on the east flank of the Carpathian range north of Ploesti are even closer to Russian air fields in the Kiev bulge.

It is a grim prospect for Rumanian oil and communications centres vital to the Nazi war effort. In all probability, such plans for two-way air attacks were laid at Teheran.

L.-Cpl. E. Cameron Killed In Italy

The sad news was received by Mrs. Angus Cameron yesterday morning that her son Lance Corporal Edson Cameron was killed in Italy. This is the second time in two months that his family has received sad news, another son, Gordon having been killed in Italy on November 8th.

He leaves to mourn his mother, two sisters and four brothers, Margaret, Mrs. Cyril Wood, Charlotte, Mrs. William Monaghan, of Ottawa, James, assistant station agent at Borden; Lester with the C.N.R., Charlottetown; Corporal Robert Cameron with the Signals in England, and Lloyd at home.

Proposes Unique College In Montreal

TORONTO, Jan. 11—(CP)—In a brief address today to the Canadian club, Sir William Mackenzie, chancellor of the University of Toronto, proposed that the club elect a committee which would enlarge itself to become a representative Canadian for the purpose of financing a college in Montreal to teach English, French-speaking Canadians, and French to English-speaking Canadians.

Such a college, he said, apart from classes already existing at McGill University, would improve racial harmony in Canada and give French-Canadians a better chance in the nation's business life. He also suggested that scholarships for the University of Toronto be provided for the students of such a college.

The meeting endorsed the proposal and left the establishment of such a college to the hands of the Canadian club executive.

Sir William, who shortly will mark his 100th birthday anniversary, had proposed encouragement of large-scale immigration to Canada and rehabilitation of Canadian farm communities.

Nazi Resistance In Sarny Area Completely Broken

By JUDSON O'QUINN

LONDON, Jan. 11—(AP)—Red Army forces, in a simultaneous attack with Rovno region guerrillas, tore through bewildered Germans 35 miles inside old Poland, forcing the Sluch River near Sarny today while Moscow announced that 15,000 Germans were killed in last week's smashing victory at Kirovograd.

The Russians completely broke German resistance in the Sarny area, said the late Moscow-broadcast bulletin, recorded by the Soviet Monitor. After forcing the river valley to attack, Stryak, seven miles north of Sarny, they also took in swift attack the railway station of Nenovich, seven miles south of Sarny. Eight-hundred Germans were reported killed in the area as the Russians widened their front to 14 miles.

Sarny itself was expected to fall shortly to attacks from the north and east as the Russians converged on the strategic rail town.

No new details were given of the push toward the Rumanian frontier where the Russians were less than 60 miles from the Dniester-pre-war border of Rumania.
