...IT PAYS to buy in this Province

...MORE LIGHT WANTED—The rate payers of Souris are rather indignant that street lamps are not lighted these dark moonless, starless, foggy nights. Will not Mayor McDonald stir up the City fathers?

...YOUNG CHILD DEAD—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Drake, St. Peter's Harbour, on May 2nd was saddened by the death of their infant son Roy Alfred after a very short illness. The funeral was conducted by their Pastor Rev. R. P. Murray on Friday May 4th interment took place at West St. Peter's cemetery.

...SCHOOL WORK—Following is the standing of Springfield school for the month of April: Grade VII.—1, Laura McDonald; 2, Elsie Nicholson; Grade VI.—1, Catherine McDonald; Grade V.—1, Blanche Nicholson; 2, Malcolm Munro; Grade IV.—1, Elsie McFarlane; 2, Frances Stuart; Grade III.—1, Colin McDonald; 2, Annetta Munro; Grade II.—1, George Stuart; 2, Lester McDonald. Perfect attendance.—Laura McDonald, Colin McDonald, Maria Stuart, Frances Stuart, Catherine McDonald, Lester McDonald, George Stuart.

...HIGHLY ESTEEMED MAN DEAD—It is said that loves a "shining mark" and it stood true to its motto when it struck down one of Rollo Bay's most enterprising, progressive and successful farmers. The writer refers to the death of Peter Vigneau, the news of which reached Souris Tuesday morning. The late Peter Vigneau was a splendid specimen of manhood and in the prime of life. The deceased sustained some injuries last fall, while assisting a neighbour in controlling some refractory cattle, and since which time he had been more or less confined to the house, but some hope of his recovery was entertained until the last few days. He was one of the foremost farmers in this vicinity in promoting exhibitions and improvement in stock. He will be sadly missed not only by his family but in the community. He is survived by his widow and stepson.—C.

...ANNANDALE.—The farmers are just beginning cropping as the land is quite firm.—Mr. John Howlett, planted some early potatoes on the 5th.—Mrs. Bertram Dugwell and Miss Maude have returned home from Boston where they spent the winter.—Mrs. John Banks who was sick, is slowly recovering.—There is quite a body of ice off here at present.—Mr. E. McFarlane has his new boat home. It appears to be a good one.—Mr. W. H. Underhay of Fortune was at the village on Saturday.—The Rev. Mr. Heran preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning.—There was quite a large congregation out to hear him.—There was prayer meeting in the Baptist church at 7 p. m., well attended.—Mr. H. N. Howlett is rushing the lumber through at his mill and expects to finish the heaviest of it this week.—Mr. McFarlane went East Monday morning. He is busy getting his fishermen to work.—D.

...A THING OF BEAUTY—Many long years ago a most successful and victorious King sat in his house and questioned the propriety of his living in a luxurious house of cedars while the ark of God abode in tents. Most promptly good old King David set about building the temple at Jerusalem and although not permitted to bring his intention to fruition was commended for his good intention. Like wise the trustees and managers of the St. James Presbyterian Church in Souris must have thought, for some time, walked down Church Street on Monday morning he espied a group of men among whom were discerned Messrs. J. G. Sterns, H. D. McLean, Postmaster Garret, Rev. A. McKay, and Station Master A. E. Clarke and Collector Currie, examining the Church and Manse property and learned later that notwithstanding the high cost of paint and other material it was their intention to paint the Church and Manse and put the building in first class repair, and at once to call for tenders to perform the work.—C.

...LITTLE POND NEWS.—On Thursday night May 2nd a basket social was held in Little Pond hall under the auspices of the Little Pond branch of the Red Cross Society. The night was fine and many were in attendance. The baskets, were auctioned by Mr. J. A. Steele, and the snug sum of sixty eight dollars was realized, which will be forwarded to the treasurer of the Red Cross immediately. Mr. Angus McKenzie who arrived here from Boston, Mass., a short time ago and purchased from Mr. Wm. Jenkins, Annandale, a commodious house and barn, have succeeded in removing it to his farm in Little Pond. The work was done under the skillful management of Mr. Angus McDonald of Primrose. The writer does not wish to particularize but cannot refrain from congratulating Mr. McDonald on the efficient manner in which he performed the work. Notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of the roads the buildings were taken three miles.—Mr. Feal McCormack spent the week end in Glenside the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Steele.—O.
