KINSMEN DANCE — A large crowd attended the dance at the New Dome, Friday night, Jan. 17. This was the first in a series of monthly dances sponsored by the Kinsmen Club at this popular ballroom. The snappy music, the novel tunes, and the songs of a well-known local fasetto singer, were all very much enjoyed. This young and energetic club is leaving no stones unturned in their efforts to raise funds for their service work which is ever increasing in public approval.

His Majesty King George (LEFT), takes a long step in boarding one of the landing craft from which troops and equipment were later landed on Norway's coast. Secretly trained British "commando" shock troops were used in the raid which wiped out two German garrisons, destroyed nine ships. Black, oily smoke swirls round after the British raiders, shown as they left, had put oil plants out of action and burned stocks on hand. This shot (RIGHT), was made on the Lofoten Islands. Large parties of Norwegian volunteers were brought back to serve in the Allied forces and nine Quislings captured
