Looking 'Em Over

(BY TEC) Tonight's Game Abegweit leave by special train at 4.15 this afternoon for Summerside where they meet Crystals in the sixth and last game of the first section of the Prince Edward Island Hockey League.

Although Boston, New York Rangers, Chicago, Detroit and Maroons have provided as thrilling and as exciting hockey games, and will continue to do so, the Canadians seem to be the biggest N.H.L. attraction.

Some of the leading teams in Quebec and Ontario are approaching play-off positions. In the Montreal circuit the Canadiens, practically the same team that came to the Maritimes to play Balhurst the first year of the East took part in the Allan Cup play-downs, have been eliminated.

In and around Toronto, fine hopes are held for an Allan Cup winner this season. The big shots of the National Mariboros, Port Colborne and Hamilton Tigers, although Toronto Varsity are also proving strong contenders, Hamilton won the Ontario Hockey Association title last year and represented the province in the Allan Cup play-downs.

Any one of the first four teams named in the foregoing are regarded as possible winners. All have outstanding amateur players on their line-ups and the brand of hockey being doled out is particularly good.

When a man says it hurts him to borrow money, you can be pretty sure he'll want an anaesthetic when Mary had a swarm of bees. The bees to save their lives, went everywhere that Mary went, for Mary had the hives. -Digester.

There are also times which try men's soles. CLASIFIED ADS FOXES - 12 REGISTERED SILVERS, proven breeders and pups, pelt value. P. McGrath, Covehead. P.S.-1636-1-20-31 TO REMY-POUSE, MODERN CONVENIENCES. Reliable party Apply 172 Sydney St. Phone 504. - 21
