WHEN FATHER GREW UP.

Johnny had eaten the soft portions of his toast at breakfast and piled the crusts on his plate.

"When I was a little boy," remarked his father, "I always ate the crusts of my toast.'

"Did you like them?" asked Johnny, cheerfully.

"Yes,' replied his father.

"You may have these, then," said Johnny, pushing his plate across the table.

IN MEMORIAM

RODERICK McSWAIN

On Monday, July 25th Mr. Roderick McSwain, a highly esteemed resident of Hopedale passed peacefully away at the age of 76 years. The deceased had been in failing health for several months and while all had hoped that he would recover, yet his death did not come as a surprise to his friends and loved ones.

Besides a sorrowing widow Mr. McSwain leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, five sons and six daughters.

Mr. McSwain was twice married. His first wife was Miss Christy Nicholson, of Springton. The first family there were two sons and three daughters. The sons are Malcolm, of California; Allan, of Duluth and the daughters are Mrs. Thos. Morrison, of Colorado; Miss Mary of Duluth and Miss Margaret of New York. His second wife was Miss Mary McPhee of St. Peters and in the second family there are three sons and three daughters. The sons are William, of St. John; Murdoch, of the P.E. Island Railway and Stewart of Hopedale, and the daughters are Miss Dorothy, of Boston, Mass.; Miss Margaret, of Quincy, Mass. and Miss Bessie at home.

The deceased was one of quite a large family of brothers and sisters, three of whom survive him, viz: Roderick of the United States; Miss Duncan McLeod of Darlington and Mrs. Capt. Peter McKenzie, of Pictou, N. S.

Mr. McSwain will be much missed not only in his own home but also in the whole countryside where he was well known. His last suffering was borne calmly and patiently and when the end came he was found ready.

The funeral, which was quite a large one, was held on Wednesday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. R. H. Stavert. The pall bearers were Messrs. Alexander McDonald, D. M. McDonald, John E. McLeod, John McLeod, Malcolm Cummings and Malcolm Nicholson.

Interment was in Hartsville Cemetery.

Moplahs Adopt Guerilla Warfare

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The India Office states that during the past month a change from open to guerilla warfare on the part of the rebellious Moplahs is more marked. Their forces are now being led more and efficiently and, influenced by the chances of looting and terrorizing, more Moplahs have joined the rebels. With the recent reinforcements, the Government forces are now considered adequate to handle the situation.

Are You Sure Your Children's Eyes Are Right?

A responsibility rests upon every parent to give his child every possible advantage in life; to give the child the best of weapons with which to meet the struggle of the years ahead. Surely good eyesight is "the priceless gift" that your child should have. Remember that poor eyesight means poor concentration and will retard the youngster's progress. Many a child considered dull or lazy in school or music studies has simply been suffering from defective vision. And ofter correct glasses have changed entirely the record of performance. Perhaps your youngster's report-card is reflecting the presence of eye-strain. Perhaps you are not doing your own child full justice. Have an examination made and know. Consult

Teachers To Have Pension System

Action Decided by Central Body of Catholic School Commissioners

Must Contribute 1 p. c. of Annual Salary for 20 Years—Board to Make Similar Payments

TORONTO, Nov. 11.— A pension system for teachers empolyed by the Central Board of Catholic School Commissioners was adopted at a meeting of the board held at the Plateau Academy yesterday. The system provides for a contribution by the teachers or one per cent. of their salary, and of a contribution by the board of an equal amount. The system was adopted on the report of a special committee consisting of Ayme Lafontaine, secretary-treasurer of the board; A. C. Miller J. M. Manning J. P. Labarre, and J. David Pilon, secretary-directors.

The report reads, in part, as follows:

"1. A pension fund to be established and administered by a committee of five members, of which three are named by the Central Board of the Catholic School Commissioners, and two by the Catholic Professers ' Alliance of Montreal. Members are named for one year. z z z zz

"2. The members of the committee choose their own chairman and secretary.

"3. The money for this pension fund is collected as follows: (a) One per cent. of the annual salary of a teacher to be retained each year during a period not exceeding 20 years. (b) An equal amount to be placed half-yearly to the credit of each teacher by the board. (c) Gifts from individuals or corporations will be accepted for the fund.

in connection with the fund, the collecting of the teacher's contributions being made by district committees.

"5. The district committees deliver the money collected to the board each month, the money being treated as a loan to the board.

"6. All the revenues, such as money retained, board's contribution, and interest are capitalized on December 31 and June 30 at a rate not exceeding 6 per cent. and fixed each year by the board.

LIFE ENDOWMENT.

"7. Every teacher who shall have contributed to the pension fund for twenty years shall have the right to a life endowment, payable on June 30 of each year, the annual payment being the simple interest at 5 per cent. on his other capitalized share in the fund at the decrease of the pensioner this capitalized share shall be

"8. Teachers who shall have contributed to the fund during less than five years, and who leave the employ of the board, shall have right to a repayment of their contribution capitalized.

"9. Teachers who shall have contributed for five years or more and who leave the employ of the board, shall have right to a repayment of their share in the fund capitalized.

10. These rules are obligatory for all the teachers, of either sex in the employ of the Catholic School Commissioners of Montreal. Exception, however, is made for men teachers over 45, and for women teachers over 40, at the time of the adoption of these rules. These teachers have the right to choose the pension system or to take advantage of the rules actually in force in regard to resigning teachers who have been employed by the commissioners for a certain number of years Such teachers must give notice of their choice within three months of the adoption of these rules."

The above rules are made retroactive to September 1 of this year. The board appointed Commissioner J. A. Richard, Ayme Lafontaine, and Victor Dore to represent the board on the pension fund committee. The commission as present were: Judge Lafontaine, Mrs. Donnelly, J. V. Desaulniers, J. A. Richard, A. W. Patenaude, and Ayme Lafontaine, Secretary-treasurer.

One Hundred Years Of Success

BY GEORGE MILLAR

The celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island is deserving of the ear and heart of of the whole Church. It brings us back to beginnings almost in despair, common of us all. Here the first settlers from Argyleshire, Perthshire and Morayshire fought many years for a bare existence and it was 39 years before they had their first settled minister.

In landing they never dreamed that the shores they beheld would yet demonstrate a power of fertility unsurpassed by any part of Canada and would, after one hundred years, challenge the world to a contest of pastoral picturesqueness. Yet these pioneers without the dream, put the axe to the root of the tree, and their hands to the plough, and their heart to their homes, and their faith in their God. What we of this generation now see and enjoy would have indeed made glad their burdened hearts. But they saw not these scenes. We have shores to redeem that give us no hint of what they may yet be. Let us dare to believe and labor even as they that "generations yet unborn may praise and magnify the Lord."

The Story of the People

There was a time when history was written in terms of Kings. Historians wrote the lives of Kings and said, "These are your gods. Here is your past with its heritage." There is some danger with us in trying to call up before our eyes the past of a Presbytery. Great men have been in the ministry and, beside them, always the elders. And though the people of today would gladly give them all honor and obliterate themselves, his would be too serious a wrong to the ministers, who lived not to themselves, and too serious a wrong to the people they served or us to indulge in during a centennial service. Presbyterianism s for the people, and from the people, and of the people. The history of the Presbytery is the history of what the people have suffered and rejoiced in and purposed and achieved.

The Organ Question

They had questions which became conflicts and brother was divided from brother and minister from people in their intensity. Take the Organ Question as the first illustration. And remember that the organ question was to our fathers a matter of the highest spiritual import. We wrong them when we think of it with anything but the highest respect. What right had music to come in between the soul and the holiness of God? There were enough earthly things in them, clouding the vision of the Crucified and grieving the Holy Spirit. Before we speak of that movement with contempt let us ask what use music really is in the service of the sanctuary. Good singing may help the worship of God. Good music may be but a kind of good works, and as deadly as others we have feared. Has music come in as our fathers feared, as something earthly, a sacrifice of Cain, dead, unholy, and unacceptable; or is it with us as it may be, a spiritual light and power and loveliness, akin to the essence of God, lifting us into the high, pure blue of truth above? The fact that the General Assembly has sent out Dr. MacMillan, one of its choicest spirits, shows that the Organ Question is still with us. Is music mainly to keep awake and entertain or is it an instrument of holiest kind to bear us nearer the mercy of God?

Calvinism and Inspiration

That century of the people's life is poorly realized if we do not see in it a great intellectual struggle also, a battle with hosts of inadequate conception of our Father in Heaven. The idea of "the blessed and only potentate, "King of kings and Lord of lords" must be made clear. A plan of salvation there must have been in the divine mind. Our mind must gain the heavenly truth. Their Marne from which their foes never went back was the sovereignty of God, and the rights of Christ.

And was this not civil war, the struggle for the emancipation of the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments? What suffering was endured in settling the question of inspiration. We had the pangs of real heresy in that century gone by. Can we ever escape them? Is not truth still more precious than life? Did not our fathers win here more splendidly than they knew? Did they not win liberty to find God in every word of the Scripture and did they not win forbearance to the weaker brother who cannot find Him in every event of history and every circumstance of life as well as in every word of the Scriptures?

The Great Challenge

Nor may we think of that century without proudly though reverently pausing before the noble spirit in this Presbytery which, first among all the Presbyteries of Canada, took up the challenge of Paganism, paganism in its high places with club, and spear daring the Christian to lay down his life for his Master. It was a son of this Presbytery that, first of all among our Presbyteries, took up the gauntlet flung down by the Goliath of Cannibalism and laid so low his giant that it is written, 'When he came to this island there were no Christians and when he left there were no heathen." It was in this Presbytery that the farmers, with but few shillings to spare, gave to Dr. Geddie and Dr. Keir and their companions their scanty earnings and their prayers. But there were enough to win the heart of the Synod by a majority of one. Canadian Presbyteranism was committed to this great venture by a majority of one.

The Kirk Historical insight of even a very superficial kind cannot fail to not with kindling eye the spiritual forces of the century moving the people everywhere upon another great and possibly unsolved question. May it be called "The Kirk against the world?" It is a fine story that could be told of how the Kirk won all others and how all others won the Kirk and there was a great day of union in 1875.

The MacDonaldites

And here our Presbytery looks out on one of the most unique spiritual events in Presbyterian history, the life and labors and results of the Rev. Donald McDonald. His work was a constant evangelistic effort and he felt a wonderful organization behind him to carry on his purpose. One section has been wooed and won by us. The Rev. Donald McDonald did not care much for any Presbytery, but let us remember that he cared not even for a home in his great zeal. We honor today his work parallel to ours, but unparrelled by it.

Now and the Future

Let us not dream that our fathers have left us homes and farms and towns and cities alone. They have left us tasks as great as ever a McGregor or Keir of Geddie or Sterling ventured to take up. There are still problems for those whose zeal for God is kindled at the Cross, whose gratitude to Christ has its source in the cleansing from sin and the gift of life which they have received, whose constancy is maintained in the fellowship of the Holy Ghost. What those tasks are others must say. The Moderator of the General Assembly says the first duty is to wait. "Wait, I say, on the Lord." "He that hath ears to hear let him hear what the Spirit saith to the Churches."

Girls, Don't Wash Your Face

Use Liska cold cream instead (you have never used anything like it.) Just try it once, and you will never be without it. Soap and water has a tendency to make the skin rough, and does not cleanse the skin as thoroughly as Liska cold cream. To prove it make this test: Wash your face with soap and water, dry thoroughly, then apply Liska cold cream, massage it well into the skin, then wipe off the superfluous cream with a soft white cloth; examine the cloth and see how much dirt has accumulated thereon. Liska cold cream cleanses, softens and beautifies the skin. For sunburn or after a dusty auto trip there is nothing like it. Its fine after shaving, too. Let hubby or brother try it. Just compare Liska cold cream with any other you have ever used, and you will need no further argument to convince you that it's the best. It's put up in tubes, the only sanitary way. Try it tonight. You will be delighted. At toilet counters everywhere including J. G Jamieson, Geo. E. Hughes.

WET OR DRY BATTERY STORAGE?

A Battery that has been in use a full season or longer has given a large part of the service it was designed to give. As a precaution against trouble next season, we recommend for the winter months. Your battery will be taken down, thoroughly cleaned and treated, carefully stored, and in the spring re-assembled with new separators, fresh acid an re-charged. Such a thorough going over as this insures that your battery will be in perfect shape for next season's work. The cost is very little more than for wet storage, and will save several times the extra cost in avoiding loss of time and repair bills next summer.
