RAPS FLORIDA OFFICIALS

WINNIPEG, Man. Oct. 6.—Gordon officials "from the governor down," and real estate operators, were severely criticized today by John Barton Payne, chairman of the American Red Cross, for minimizing the loss in the hurricane of September 18, and thus handicapping relief work.

"The poor people who suffered are regarded as of less consequence than the hotel and tourist business of Florida," Judge Payne said, in a message to C. C. Pinckney, chairman of the Richmond, Va., chapter of the Red Cross.

REPORT OF DELEGATE TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

To the members of Charlottetown sub-division C. W. L.

As your delegate to the Diocesan Convention held at Kensington, Sept. 7th to 9th, inclusive I beg to submit the following report:

The fifth Annual Diocesan Convention Catholic Women's League was opened at Kensington with a public meeting in C. M. B. A. Hall with Mrs Jas. Pendergast president of Kensington sub-division, chairman. Seated on the platform were His Worship Mayor Laird, of Kensington, who spoke briefly to the delegates and visitors, bidding them welcome to Kensington and wishing them a very successful convention. Rev. Dr. Monaghan of Miscouche who was present primarily to voice the thanks and appreciation of Miss Isabel Gallant of his parish who had merited the C. W. L. prize of ten dollars for the Catholic girl matriculating with the highest marks in P. W. College for the current year. This young girl won also the Prince County scholarship, the Brennan scholarship which provides board in Notre Dame Convent for the year and had the highest marks in both Latin and French of all those who took the matriculation examinations through out the Province. This is indeed a record to be proud of and Rev. Dr. Monaghan in referring to this enviable record of Miss Gallant's achievement in scholarship said that such a result was attained by unflagging attentiveness to her studies and much hard labor, nothing worth while was achieved without labor which is the great constructive force of the ages. Genius alone could not construct. Labor. God's choicest gift to man brought into being the life and growth of nations. In the field of Education what is gained by hard laborous work and concentrated study ever remains to be an essential part and force of the student. He congratulated the C. W. L. on their part in furthering the interest of higher education for girls. Whatever the walk in life may be the share of each and every boy and girl now pursuing their studies, the need of a full and comprehensive education was necessary to these who till the soil by the sweat of their brow as well as to those who follow the learned professions.

Dr. J. D. McGuigan spoke on Health, a general topic which allowed much latitude for a keen and discriminating analysis of conditions of life in relation to the health of mankind from the early ages to the present time. Now, the great ideal of the medical fraternity is preventative measures in dealing with disease. How this field of research has made good is exemplified in the many anti-toxins and inoculating remedies which have all but eradicated such diseases as small-pox, typhus, diptheria, and lately diabetes, which were for ages a menace to the life of man. Speaking of Cancer the dread disease of the present age, he said it was a curable disease, but only in the early stages and stressed the fact that if all would immediately consult the family physician when any symptom made its appearance and did not wait until pain become apparent, a cure could most assuredly be effected. Both these addresses were listened to most closely by the large audience present who showed by their applause how much they appreciated such interesting and educational addresses.

The Diocesan Executive were also seated on the platform. The Diocesan president's address was a word of greeting to the delegates and the wish expressed of a successful and beneficial meeting. She announced the appointment by the Dominion Executive at the Dominion Convention of Mrs. W. J. MacIntyre as National Convenor of Child Welfare. Mrs Pendergast, chairman welcomed the delegates and visitors in a most gracious and pleasing way and a beautiful bouquet of roses was presented the Diocesan president, Mrs. Conroy by little Irma Hughes for the Kensington sub-division. Those present were furnished a real musical treat by Madame St. Coeur of Boston, the noted Mezza Soprano, who was vacationing on the Island and generously gave her services From the Grand Aria of Carmen, sung in Italian to the simple heart songs of the present which she sung in response to encores, her liquid tones were a joy and delight and her charming personality won all who were privileged to be present. She also received a gift of flowers. Readings by little Inez McLellan proved most delightful and supplied the comedy note which is always appreciated. The opening song, "O Canada," and "God Save the King" at closing completed an evening of splendid entertainment for which Kensington Sub-Division as Hostess is to be commended; and the delightful social hour following, when dainty refreshments were served to all present, was the occasion of pleasant meetings and greetings between visitors and townspeople.

Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock the Convention Mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Maurice MacDonald who also preached a splendid sermon on the woman in the home, her duties as a mother and a Christian, commending the members of the C. W. L. on their work of charity, he urged an increasing unselfishness in their actions and to keep ever before them the ideal of service for love of God and the salvation of souls.

The business meeting was called to order at 10 a. m. with every subdivision but one represented. After prayer the reading of the minutes of the last Convention were waived, as each had been supplied with a typed copy. The president who had been a delegate to the Dominion Convention at Ottawa last June read her report of same showing some important changes in method of administration and also an extension of national work most commendable. A printed year book will take the place of the summary of events in letter form heretofore furnished and each sub-division will in this way have a complete history of work accomplished by National Committees and the financial dealings of the Organization. The expanding of immigration work so as to create more efficient service at the ports and the further helping of the Missionary order, Sisters of Service, who are performing such helpful service among isolated Catholic families in the great Western provinces were features of the work accomplished at this Dominion Convention. Many notable speakers both clerical and laymen were present at the various meetings and addressed those present, among whom were His Excellency, Most Rev. Pietro de Maria Apostolic delegate in Canada and Newfoundland, Most Rev. J. M. Emard, D. D., Archbishop of Ottawa, Mayor J. P. Balharri of Ottawa, Rt. Hon. F. A. Anglin, Chief Justice of Canada, Hon. Rodolph Lemieux, Rev. Jas. M. Gillis, C. S. P. editor of the Catholic World, Rev. Geo. Daley, C. S. S. R. and others of note who brought their message of service, patriotism, religion and encouragement to the delegates present from every province of Canada. It was the largest Convention as yet ever held and was officially housed at the Chateau Laurier.

The business of the Diocesan Convention proceeded through Wednesday and Thursday and the reports given by the representatives of the various sub-divisions were most encouraging, showing a greater amount of work done and a much greater numerical strength. Social Service, Education and Sisters of Service reports were particularly good, showing great activity along these lines. Among the rural sub-divisions Hope River had an outstanding report of work accomplished and had the added distinction of having the largest number of delegates present. Rulings were given affecting the governing of action in sub-divisions which will be effective from date of pronouncement. Complete minutes will be furnished each sub-division as heretofore.

The election took place Thursday afternoon and resulted as follows:

President—Mrs W. J. McIntyre
First Vice Pres—Mrs F. J. Casey
Second Vice Pres—Mrs Amelia McGrath
Third Vice Pres—Mrs (Dr) E. G. Gillis
Treasurer—Mrs Jos A. Bernard
Corres. Secy—Mrs (Dr.) J. E. Blanchard
Record Secy—Mrs Jas. Pendergast

Councillors—Mrs J. B. Cunningham, Mrs Chas. Fisher, Mrs Francis Hagan. Mrs Mary I. MacAulay, and Mrs Wm. Pendergast.

After a vote of thanks to the retiring officers the newly elected Diocesan President, Mrs MacIntyre took the chair and after speaking briefly in gratitude for the honor done her and in eulogistic terms of the capable and efficient administration of the retiring president, Mrs Conroy the Convention came to a close with the singing of the hymn "Holy God We Praise Thy Name" and the National Anthem.

A service of thanksgiving was given by the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament by Rt. Rev. Mgr. D. G. Gillis of Indian River who also preached a splendid sermon on "Mary the Virgin Mother of God, a Model for All Women."

The delegates were entertained at a charming Whist at the residence of Mrs (Dr) E. G. Gillis which closed with a very enjoyable musical hour. A charming drive through Malpeque, Hamilton, Clermont and Indian River was a most enjoyable feature of the social part of the Convention with a stop at Malpeque Corners to view the wonderfully fine memorial to the fallen war heroes of that vicinity on the grounds of the Presbyterian Church, and the beautiful historic church itself which has seen a century of service, and also a visit to Indian River Church through which the venerable pastor, Mgr. Gillis conducted the party explaining the workmanship and exhibiting the treasures of this grand edifice which is surely a memorial to his lifelong devotion to his flock.

On Thursday evening an Auction party in C. M. B. A. Hall provided another occasion for meeting the hospitable people of Kensington and so closed another year's record of good work done by the Catholic Women's League of Charlottetown Diocese.

At an Executive Meeting held immediately after the close of the Convention the following Convenors of Committees were appointed for this Diocese. These ladies, by a new Dominion ruling, will act automatically by virtue of this appointment on the National Committees.

—STATION IMPROVEMENTS—Mr George McDonald, bridge and builder foreman, C. N. R., has been in Kensington supervising improvements to the Station Platform there. This work will be keenly appreciated, since Kensington has a large number of good citizens who feel and express gratitude for any addition to the public convenience. Y
